

SOUSA MAY LEAD RED CROSS PARADE

World Famous Bandmaster, Now Leader of U. S. War Musicians, Invited to Take Part in Demonstration.

John Philip Sousa, world famous bandmaster and lieutenant at the Great Lakes Naval Training school, may come to Omaha to lead the Red Cross parade Monday.

Learning that Sousa was to leave the end of the week with nine bands for a recruiting tour through the middle west, Ensign John Raley left yesterday for the Great Lakes Training station to urge him to come to Omaha for the event.

Howard Baldrige, chairman of the military committee of the Commercial club, wired Sousa in behalf of the club and mailed him a pressing invitation to come to Omaha instead of Indianapolis or Cincinnati. All the naval authorities are exerting every effort to bring him to Omaha and the Hotel Men's association also wired him to be here to lead the parade.

Invite Governor Neville. Governor Keith Neville and Assistant General Philip Hall have been asked to come for the event by Richard Kitchen of the Paxton hotel and Joseph Keenan of the Henshaw.

At the meeting of the ambulance committee at the University club the doctors were asked by John F. Letton to ride in the parade. They were delighted and replied:

"No, we will not ride, but march with the company."

A feature of the war film which will be shown at the Grandets, beginning Monday night, will be a moving picture of the parade in which 10,000 persons will participate. Mrs. Howard Baldrige, who is in charge of the Red Cross nurses who will ride in the parade, is arranging a short musical program which will be given during the evening. Mrs. Beulah Dale Turner and others will sing.

War Film Has Arrived. The film has arrived and a private exhibition will be given to army, navy and Red Cross officials, hotel men

Cigaret Prices Are Given Gentle Boost

Cigaret prices in Omaha were given a gentle boost Tuesday. All of the more popular brands came in for the increase which occurred simultaneously in every tobacco shop in the city.

Henceforth those sweetly-scented paper tubes which sold for 15 cents will cost 20 cents and the dream stick which could be purchased for 10 cent a package now costs 15. Just a gentle little boost, only 25 to 33 per cent.

This said the boost in Omaha was delayed because tobacco venders feared to juggle cigarette prices, for, be it known, there is a law in Nebraska which says "thou shalt not sell cigarettes." But the timidity was overcome finally and suddenly and without notice when July 10 rolled around, lo and behold, the "coffin nails" had advanced.

Oh, well, the tobacco barons need the money.

and the newspaper representatives Thursday morning.

The members of the ambulance committee who will march in the parade are: Leroy Crummer, C. A. Hull, E. C. Henry, J. P. Lord, A. C. Stokes, B. B. Davis, J. A. Vance, J. M. Bannister, O. F. Hoffman and W. O. Bridges.

The naval authorities are anxious that anyone who will wire or write Sousa to come to Omaha. His address is care of W. A. Moffatt, Naval Training school, Great Lakes, Ill.

Population Estimate Is Revised for Draft Quotas

Washington, July 11.—A complete revision of population estimates upon which quotas for the army draft will be based was made public today by the census bureau. It is based largely upon the results of the military registration.

MILLION DOLLARS TO FIGHT UNIONS

"Bob" Holmes Testifies Before Mediation Board that the Business Men's Association Had an Anti-Labor Fund.

"We've got a million dollars in the fund of the Business Men's association to make Omaha a bad place for labor unions." That's what V. Ray Gould, president of the Omaha Builders' exchange, said to "Bob" Holmes, according to "Bob's" version, when he was sent as a member of the arbitration committee to inquire as to the prospects of settling the strike.

Holmes told his story this morning on the witness stand before the state mediation board in the city hall.

Though he has held political jobs much of the time, Holmes has been a member of the bricklayers' union thirty-five years. He is a former city councilman of Omaha, and a former member of the legislature of Nebraska.

He testified he went to see Mr. Gould some time ago and had asked Gould if he could appoint a committee to confer with the arbitration committee of the strikers with regard to a settlement.

"Bob, I'd do anything in the world for you," Holmes quoted Gould as saying, "but the matter is out of my hands. I cannot appoint a committee. The matter is in the hands of the Business Men's association, and they have a million dollars to make Omaha a bad town for the unions," he testified.

Information Was Confidential. Holmes said that Gould told him this information was confidential and that he did not want Holmes to give it out.

"But you feel that the time has come when you should tell the matter," said Attorney A. H. Bigelow.

"Yes, sir," said Holmes. Holmes on the witness stand charged that men connected with the Business Men's association had raised the price of brick $2 per thousand in Omaha, though the wages of the workers in the brick yards has not been increased.

Chairman Cowell of the board asked if the price of coal used in the brick kilns had not advanced.

"Yes, I suppose it has a little," said Holmes, "but the same man that advanced brick could advance coal, for he deals in both."

Twelve-Year-Old Boy Killed by Street Flusher

Herman Hahn, 12-year-old son of Jacob Hahn, 1436 North Twentieth street, died at 3 a. m. from injuries received when he fell in front of a city of Omaha street flusher driven by Tom Campbell at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at Thirteenth and Nicholas streets. He received a compound fracture of the left thigh, badly lacerated muscles and a fractured skull. Witnesses say the truck ran directly in front of the truck.

Refuses to "Squeal" on Man From Whom He Buys Booze

Rather than divulge the name of the party from whom he bought a pint of whisky Ed Jones, Council Bluffs, went to jail in default of a fine of $10 imposed on him for being drunk. City Prosecutor McGuire explained to Jones that the judge had power to dismiss him if he would tell from whom he bought the liquor, but he preferred jail.

How To Get Rid Of Corns

People suffering from tired, swollen, aching feet, or from stinging, burning corns or calluses will be glad to know that these nerve-racking, misery-bringing afflictions can be quickly overcome by a simple home treatment that will not cause one bit of pain or soreness.

From your druggist get a small jar of Ice-Mint. Rub a little on any painful corn or callus. Instantly the pain will disappear and in a short time the corn or callus will loosen and can be lifted out easily with the fingers in a healthy, normal condition.

When you stop to consider that the simple, pleasant process of rubbing a little Ice-Mint on the foot at night will shortly rid one of every painful corn or callus and will keep the feet cool, comfortable and rested on the hottest days, it is easy to understand why it is thought that foot troubles will soon be a thing of the past.

Ice-Mint is an entirely new departure from the disagreeable old time foot remedies, inasmuch as it is absolutely harmless and comes in the form of a snow white, creamy preparation, which is delightful and easy to apply. It costs little and can be obtained here from any of our local druggists.—Advertisement.
