ROURKES BEATEN IN JINX BATTLE

Friday, Thirteenth, Contest With Josies Results in Disastrous Thirteen - to - One Smashup on Omaha Lot.

Wow! Fourteen hits! Thirteen runs! Four errors. Good night!

That's what happened at Rourke park yesterday afternoon when the Drummers and the locals met in the last game of the series. Babe Adams held the champs runless till the eighth, while his pals by that time had hit and run till they were tired.

Pete Moore, Pa's latest acquisition to the pitching staff struck out Mr. McCabe for a curtain-raiser. The next man up was Falk and he was allowed to live on account of Dave Williams' error. McClelland and Diltz walked and Harry Williams nailed a single into the center pasture, giving Falk and McClelland the opportunity of scoring. At this juncture Manager Marty jerked Mr. Moore and plteed Leuchen on the mound.

That wasn't all the joy-killers from down-stream weren't through yet. Castle singled, scoring Diltz and placing Harry Williams on sack number three. Williams and Castle then pulled off a double steal for the fourth and last run that inning.

Second Not so Bad.

The second inning was just half as bad. O'Brien walked, but was forced at second. McCabe doubled and Falk singled. McClelland forced Falk at second and he himself died stealing second. Then the kid sneaked out and hung up a bik two on the scoreboard.

The Josies got the bug again in the fourth and brought in four runs with four singles and two infield outs.

The Josies got the bug again in the fourth and ere the inning was over they had annexed two more counters on four singles. Then another zero.

Four more singles and an error in the sixth added three more and a double and a single in the seventh gave the visitors another pearlie. A walk, an error and a sacrifice fly in the eighth brought in one more.

After all this had taken place, Morrie Schick stepped up to the plate in the eighth and drove a single down into Diltz's ditch. Wild applause from the fair fannettes greeted the accomplishment of this feat, but a moment later when Shag Thompson singled for the Rourkes' first and only tally, their joy knew no bounds.

Johnnie Castle played left field for the Drummers for the first time. McCabe was shifted to center and Hartzell warmed the bench.

Tomorrow the "champs" encounter Joplin. Lookout Joplin!

FREAK PLAY GIVES CONTEST TO YANKS

Mixup at Home Plate in Eleventh Frame Takes Victory From the White Sox Aggregation.

Chicago, July 13.—An unusual paly in the eleventh gave New York a 6 to 5 victory over Chicago today. After one man was out, Peckinpaugh singled and took second on a sacrifice. Pipp then singled to center and Peckinpaugh started home. Felsch's throw to the plate was perfect and as Peckinpaugh slid, Schalk dropped upon him and also dropped the ball. While sitting on the New Yorker Schalk recovered the ball and touched Peckinpaugh out. Peckinpaugh was trapped a foot from the base, but Umpire Evans ruled him safe, claiming that Schalk held him while he was recovering the ball.

Caldwell was batted out of the box in the first inning and Chicago scored four runs. Felsch's home run came in the sixth inning and was the noly hit made off A. Russell. Score:
