

MALONEY AND SUTTON FIRED

Two Omaha Detectives Are Found Guilty of Unbecoming Conduct by City Commissioners.

afford to buck the fellows who went to the Owl club. I refused to go because I would not go any place with Barta and Walker. I told Cunningham to go and not get himself in bad."

"What do you say regarding testimony of Officer Pipkin's brother yesterday?"

Never Saw Pipkin.

"Never saw him until yesterday; he never spoke to me in his life and he never turned a prisoner over to me, as he stated."

"Is there any place in Omaha that you have given protection or shown favoritism during your course as an officer?"

"Not a single place."

"Have you ever been asked by a superior officer to extend protection or favoritism?"

"I have not."

"Have you investigated all places you knew of?"

"I did."

"Have you ever refused to go with Barta, Walker or Unger except to the Owl club, as you explained?"

"Since the organization of the Omaha Detective Association I would have nothing to do with Barta, Walker or Unger."

Against an objection made and sustained Attorney Thomas offered to show that during May, 1916, Sutton made 133 arrests for crimes over which the morals squad has peculiar jurisdiction.

Raided Ford Place.

Thomas resumed: "Look at these reports and state whether you ever raided the Ford place."

"We did, three times."

"What happened there regarding the inmates?"

"Barta suggested we should not take the inmates. The captain had told us to use judgment about taking inmates. Usually we took the keepers."

"Barta spoke of your giving protection to Jennie Williams' place. Where is that place?"

"At 1513 Burt street. We went there several times, but we could not get in. There is a bottom door and a glass door at the top and when they see a police officer they clear out."

"Did you ever go to Stella Marquette's place for purpose of a raid?"

"We went there five or six times. Never arrested anybody there and don't think anybody ever arrested. You couldn't get in there without breaking down a door—a police officer couldn't."

"What about the Williams place at 618 North Sixteenth street?"

"Made Later Arrests."

"I went there and saw only a man named Davis, a sick woman and another woman. Barta was not in the kitchen. Later Cunningham and I arrested her upstairs of 2234 Farnam street three times."

"What about Mina Whitney?"

"Went there many times—only a week ago—but she lives in a neighborhood where they are always on the lookout for police officers."

"Did you ever receive money from anybody for protection?"

"I did not."

"Not even from Honeywell?"

"No."

"Have you done general police work as well as morals squad duty?"

"I have done other work. There was the Rogers case, for instance. Captain Dempsey detailed four men to help me and Cunningham. We got Rogers one night and got eight others of the gang afterwards. Rogers got fourteen years."

"How many arrests have you made on the morals squad?"

"More than 1,100."

Attorney Lambert: "While on department did you ever work at Dr. Willis' place on Cuming street?"

"I did not."

"Do you know whether Pete Loch or Johnny Lynch had any interest in Willis' place?"

"No, but I knew that Willis and Loch were friendly."

"Did you ever tell Barta or Walker they would be talking a beat?"

"I did not."

"If you were making an arrest and Loch or Lynch came along would you yield to a request from them?"

"No. I would not yield to anybody. I have been friendly with Loch and Lynch."

"Did you speak of investigating the stealing of automobiles and you thought you knew who they were?"

"When Maloney suggested that Pipkin should go on a farm did you disagree with Maloney?"

"No."

"Can you tell a street walker a block away?"

"I and Officer Cunningham could."

"Did you complain of Barta and Walker to Kugel?"

"I complained against them going with Unger and Wolf on raids with us."

"Did you report conditions of the Underworld to Mr. Kugel?"

"I think I did."

Attorney Thomas: "Is it a fact that places where liquor was illegally sold were charged as disorderly houses, rather than under the Stocumb law?"

"Officer Cunningham explained that to me. The proof of the sale of liquors was hard to obtain."

"Did certain persons make requests not to arrest certain women? What did you do?"

"Lots of requests, but I always made the arrests and then did not get so many requests."

"Did you send any telegrams to John Lynch under your own or any other name from Chadron?"

"I did not."

"Did you read such a statement?"

"I did and took several parties to the Chadron telegraph office, but we found no such telegrams."

Defense Rests.

"With that rest," announced Attorney Thomas.

Attorney Lambert: "I am not here as a prosecutor of Sutton. I have tried to be of assistance in bringing the facts before the council. An argument from me would be a waste of your time and an intrusion."

Attorney Thomas: "There are a few observations I wish to make to the council. As I view this matter there are charges that Sutton was guilty of improper conduct at Chadron in that he falsely charged Maloney. Let me remind you that Maloney was not Sutton's superior at any time. Sutton was under the superintendent and was complaining against Maloney telling him what to do. Kugel told Sutton to investigate at Chadron and let him know if any members of police department were involved. The fact that Maloney was bound over at Chadron should exonerate him in minds of the city commissioners as to the alleged false charges against Maloney. The facts on that charge would sustain an appeal if you should fire Sutton. There is no evidence to show that he knew of law violations and failed to make arrests and prosecute cases. It would be grossly unfair to remove him on the evidence offered against him. The testimony offered by Barta and Walker showed their deep hatred and venom. If Sutton made such statements to Barta and Walker—who were not friendly to him, why did he make such an offer to those with whom he was at least on friendly terms. Barta and Walker were here to swear Sutton out of job and ruin his reputation if false swearing will do it. Mr. Kugel gave Sutton a clean bill. You have to find that Kugel, Dempsey, Cunningham, Murphy, Anderson and Chief Dunan were mistaken and Barta, Walker and Unger told the truth if you find Sutton guilty. Don't fire Sutton because you want to fire him."

Attorney Baker: "The things Sutton did in Chadron have nothing to do in this case unless you can show he was a party to a scheme to get Maloney. Another marvelous thing of this case is that Sutton should have gone to Kugel and said he wanted to make an inquiry, but did not mention the name of one suspect. There was a conspiracy between Sutton and this woman, backed by somebody. Mrs. Melson testified Sutton said he was going to get Maloney. In connection with the Chadron affair you cannot reconcile the fact that Lynch did not know. It was imparted to him. The only way for opposing counsel to get out of a conviction is to brand as a liar everybody who testified against the way he believes. If Thomas, as he said, knew of certain powerful places in Omaha not being molested, why did he not tell of them to the little hero of the police department? I don't know of these places—it may be I don't get around as much as my friend, Thomas."

"It is apparent that a pet, a favorite, has more to do with demoralizing the force than anything else. Every charge, except the one referring to Ruth Bass, has supporting evidence. Favoritism of resorts has been shown. If you believe in Sutton as truthful you are believing that a dozen are perjurers. Captain Dempsey told of the condition of favoritism under which Sutton has worked. That is a condition which you cannot have and have the police force work in harmony. Sutton admitted he would not go with Barta and Walker, but gave no reasons. I think the best thing for the police force is to eliminate Mr. Sutton. That would not mean that he is dishonest, but that he is a factor of disruption and the force is less valuable. Sutton is a disturbing factor and interferes with proper workings of the police department."

Says Not Circus Wrestler.

Bessie Wilson, proprietress of a rooming house on the second floor of 707 South Sixteenth street, wishes to correct a statement that before she entered into her present enterprise she was a wrestler in a circus. That impression was given during the Maloney hearing before the city council.
