BOY SCOUTS ENJOY THE CAMPING LIFE

Are Preparing to Play Hosts Sunday to Their Parents, as Well as Their Friends.

One thousand bottles of pop! That is the amount already consumed by the Boy Scouts in encampment at Camp Welch on Lake Quinnebaugh, three miles from Deatur, And Commissioner Welch says they have ordered more!

About seventy Boy Scouts from Omaha, together with the Scouts from Tekamah, expect to play the host on Saturday to the many Omaha people who have announced their intention of going up on that day. Scoutmaster English has given out full and explicit directions for the guidance of those going by automobile or train. Automobiles will be in attendance at Tekamah to haul guests to the lake at a charge of $1.50 for the round trip. A motorboat will meet them at the lake and charge 10 cents to convey them to the island in the middle, where the camp is situated.

Discipline Fine. Those motoring up will follow the Deatur road leading north from Tekamah for twelve miles, turn east at the first Boy Scout sign and park cars in the picnic grounds near the store on the edge of the lake, taking the motorboat from this point.

All guests are requested to bring their own lunches, as the Scouts are not equipped to handle a crowd. The boys recently organized their camp on a municipal plan, electing Lewis Calkin mayor, Jack Fetters judge, Nicholas Anous prosecuting attorney, Aaron Barr chief of police, Eugene Clark chief of fire department and Milton Barlow chief of sanitation.

Discipline Fine. Mr. English says that the discipline in camp is remarkable and the appetites more so. The camp cook is the busiest man on the lake.

A big campfire will be held Saturday night, at which Indians from the neighboring reservations will entertain the boys, appearing in full war regalia.

DEMANDS DEATH OF MRS. RENA MOONEY

District Attorney Asks Extreme Penalty for Woman Charged With Implication in Bomb Plot.

(By Associated Press.) San Francisco, Cal., July 19.—Mrs. Rena Mooney smiled several times today as she calmly listened to District Attorney Charles M. Fickert repeatedly demand the death penalty for the defendant when he resumed his opening address to the jury trying her for murder resulting from a bomb explosion here last July which claimed ten lives.

"If this jury does its duty anarchy cannot live; if it fails law and order cannot live," Fickert asserted. "We have shown this defendant aided in the commission of this crime and death is the only adequate penalty. She has been a leading member of a group of anarchists who called themselves the 'Blasters,' treacherous snakes whose creed is crime and revolution and anarchy," he said.

Fickert turned his attack to Thomas Mooney, husband of Mrs. Mooney, who is under sentence of death for the bomb murders, and then to Robert Minor, treasurer of the International Workers Defense league, which financed the present and former trials of bomb defendants.

"This league might justly be called 'the International Murderers league,' its object is to bring filthy money from ignorant people," he declared. "Only the hand and mind of a criminal could draw such pictures," he said, indicating a cartoon Minor testified he had drawn for the Blast.

"This defendant and her co-conspirators knew they couldn't live in this country if the military forces were strengthened and they sought to hasten the revolution, incited by Alexander Berkman's editorials and Minor's cartoons.

"The tragedy last July was the culmination of their criminally blood-thirsty conspiracy," Fickert charged.

Moreni's Officer Tells of Fight With Submarine

Washington, July 19.—A report of the chief petty officer in charge of the gun crew on the American tank ship Moreni, sunk by gunfire from a German submarine on June 12, off Cape de Palos, Spain, after a two hour fight was made public today by the Navy department. It elaborates an official description of the battle made public several weeks ago.

In his report A. Copassaki, the gun crew officer, says that with the ship afire, he and two gunners "went forward and manned the forward gun, with which he fired four shots before the firing pin was put out of commission. When the submarine saw our fire coming closer, she steamed full speed astern, so that we could not see her." The crew then took to the boats, which the submarine later approached to allow the commander to congratulate the gunners on their fight. Four members of the Moreni's merchant crew lost their lives.

Town Partially Wrecked When Lightning Explodes Oil Drumright, Okl., July 19.—Several houses were destroyed and 2,000 people were temporarily driven from their homes here today when a 55,000-barrel oil tank on the outskirts of the town was exploded by a stroke of lightning. The contents of the tank rushed down through the part of the residence section in a flaming torrent. Buildings were set on fire and the whole town clouded in smoke. Hundreds of men with spades hurriedly threw dirt dams across the path of the burning oil to keep it from the business district. The loss here was estimated at $167,500. Three other oil tanks in the Oilton field near here also were destroyed by lightning, involving a loss of nearly $500,000.
