Colored Waiter Injured

Probably Fatally In Fight Red Cloud, Neb., July 21 .- (Special Telegram.)-Harold Littlejohn, a colored waiter in the Burlington dining car service, was seriously if not fatally injured here early this morning in an altercation with another waiter named Cummings. According to the information available, Littlejohn claimed that Cummings owed him a small amount and was trying to enter a sleeping shack near the depot uta sleeping shack near the depot uttering threats and Cummings hit him on the head with a bedrail, causing a fracture of the skull. Cummings went west on No. 15 this morning, but was arrested at McCook upon the order of County Attorney Munday, who also ordered the conductor and cook of the dining car held for investigation.

The Solitary Breakfast.

At first blush breakfast seems a sociable meal; at that hour a man is best satisfied, or least contented, with himself, and in a mood to make the most of the world. Humood to make the most of the world. Human vitality is at its maximum, mere existence lugs exhilaration along with it; good humor mantles everything. But there is an uncertainty in company, even when you may choose it; for temperament is never to be wholly trusted (artists are dangerous people to meet at breakfast), and there are thousand happenings—troubled aleep, early awakening, mosquitoes, a surmised mouse, no hot water, buttoned boots, putting studs in a shirt—that may occur between going to bed at night and coming down to breakfast in the morning, and illadjusted feelings in even one member of the company may dampen the spirits of all. Company is no doubt the better state, and brings out the full capacities for pleasure that its in breakfast, but a solitary breakfast is safer; solitary breakfast is more certain.—Yale Review.

Radical Changes in Workmen's Compensation Law

The Omaha "Bee" of July 9, 1917.

New Statute, Operative in Two her m Weeks, Fixes Price for ifte as Loss or Injury of Every Part of Body.

Two weeks from today every employer of labor in Nebraska except Ch farmers and those employing domes- and traw tics only, will have to carry liability side p ole insurance to cover all possibilities of lo Douglas injuries occurring to those employes.
The workmen's compensation and employers' liability law of Nebraska bind with its new amendments adopted at bring ! the last session of the legislature, will have b become effective July 24.

The former law made only those on govmore persons in their business. Unchars der the amendments all those employ- eviden the law's provisions.

This will take in a much larger said the field than the old law, for the reason versal that under the old provision a large percentage of the small retailers in the country towns escaped on the grounds of not employing five per-Keep Employes Insured.

Under one of the amendments emfrom ployers are now required to keep in-of the sured sufficiently to cover damages for personal injury or death to their em-ployes; or to furnish to the compen-ınder- sation commissioner satisfactory proof of financial ability to pay direct the He compensation in the amount and man-was ner, and when due as provided for in ens the act. Not only does the revised statute for-cover a larger field of employers in the state, but it shortens the time elapsing between the accident and when the liability begins to run from two weeks to one. The new law further increases the amount of liability from 50 per cent of the injured one's salary, to 66 2-3

Price Fixed by Law.

Under the old law there was a schedule of liability fixed for the loss tton, Under the new law there is a long and detailed schedule of liability for dismemberment. Every joint of the finger is here listed with its price. the Every finger of the hand is evaluated. Every finger of the hand is evaluated. Every toe and every joint of the toe is listed with its price. This is continued down through a long list.

This detailing of the schedule is considered to be an advantage in that it eliminates all possibility of dispute as to liability in minor injuries. pute as to liability in minor injuries and makes law definite and certain.

Are You Protected?

To be exact, the new law becomes effective at midnight, Monday next, July 23d.

Applies to all employers of one or more persons, except farmers and householders.

One of the requirements is that every employer insure his risk in a Company licensed and admitted in Nebraska--or furnish proof of his financial ability to pay the benefits over a period of twenty or thirty years-or even longer in some cases.

While the maximum payment for a single death is $4,200.00, aloss of Fifteen or Twenty Thousand Dollars is possible for total disability of one employee-to say nothing of a number of employees injured in one big accident.
