German Planes Make Air Raid On English Coast

London, July 22.—Another daylight raid, carried out over the east coast of England this morning, resulted in the repulse of about twenty German airplanes after they had dropped a number of bombs over Felixstows and Harwich, killing eleven persons and injuring twenty-six.

The morning broke bright and sunny, but a thick haze soon appeared. At about 8 o'clock the enemy machines were seen flying toward the coast. They received a hot reception and were hardly well over the coast before their formation was broken up.

Observers say that the gunfire which followed the section which went down the Essex coast reached a pitch of unusual intensity. It was the movements of this squad which caused the firing for the first time of new warning signals in London.

WOMEN APPEAL TO CONGRESS TO END BIG FOOD WASTE

Report Dealers Dump Vast Quantities of Edibles in River in Effort to Force Prices Up.

Discovery that a large quantity of food is dumped in the river because it does not bring the high prices demanded, has prompted the investigation committee of the Woman Voters' Conservation league to send a resolution to congress demanding that action be taken to stop the waste.

The resolution was endorsed by the food conservation committee, which met yesterday afternoon in the city hall to make further plans for an active campaign this week.

Mrs. A. C. Anderson received several letters from parents of boy gardeners declaring that their sons had been threatened with arrest when they attempted to peddle their garden produce.

To meet this situation, Mayor Dahlman promised to issue permits to boy gardeners at once, which will be given to them upon proper identification.

Stalls will be established at the public market Monday where the boys will sell their produce and from which they will deliver to families who wish to order.

Boycott Boy Gardeners. Mrs. Thor Jorgensen, chairman of the investigation committee, said: "We are going to follow this situation to the end."

Mrs. Mary E. Howe, also a member of the committee, said when she presented the resolution to the conservation committee and near the coast.

The present food situation is producing more anarchists in the present generation than can be dealt with in the next.

Mrs. Howe also told of a lad who has tramped the streets in an effort to sell his vegetables until they were so wilted that he had to throw them away. She said he was so disheartened that he threatened to stone anyone who looked at him.

The special committee on investigation of food supplies is composed of Mrs. Thor Jorgensen, chairman, Mrs. G. Simpson, Mrs. A. C. Anderson, Mrs. A. Weisman, Mrs. Mary E. Howe, secretary. The resolutions calling for congressional action were as follows:

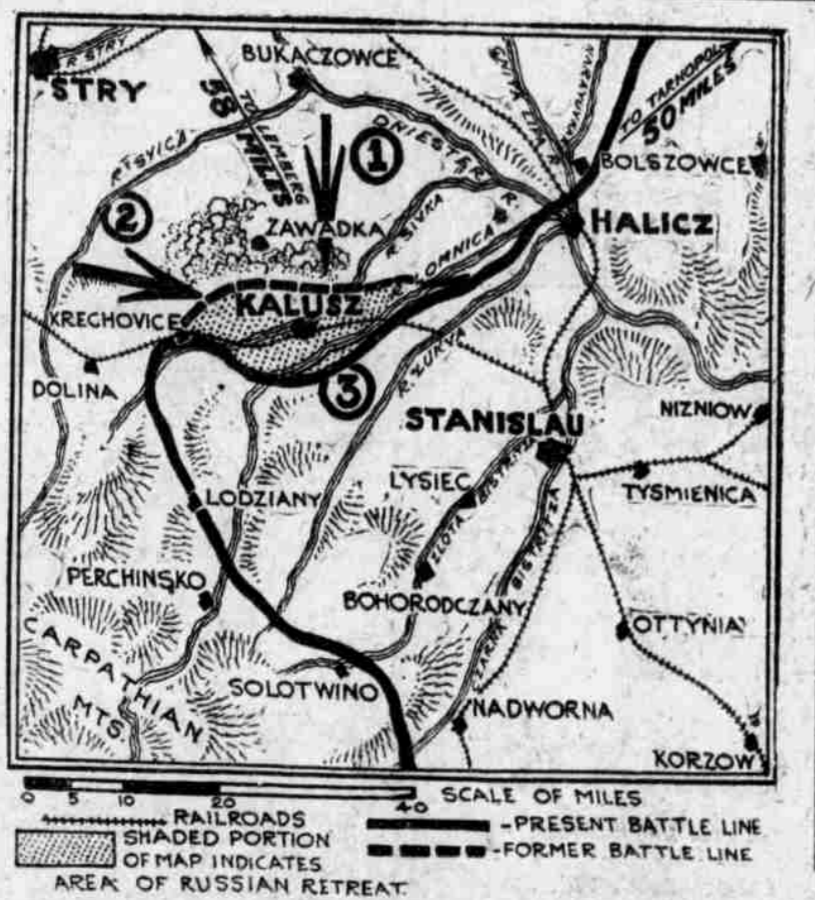

"Resolved, That the Women Voters' Conservation league of Omaha urge upon congress through any channel it may deem necessary, that laws be passed and appropriations made providing for federal inspection of all places where food received or delivered for transportation, and said federal inspectors shall have power, when they deem that any and all food will in a short time decay and become unfit for consumption, to declare said food the property of the United States government; and be it further,

Resolved, That the owner, occupant or lessee of any farm, fruit ranch or truck garden be given by the aforesaid inspectors reasonable time in which said owner, occupant or lessee shall gather, harvest and store any produce. And be it further provided that the aforesaid federal inspectors shall have power to declare produce not gathered, harvested or stored within the given time, the property of the United States government, subject to confiscation and to be disposed of as the government of the United States may deem fit."

Four Kings Lose Countries, Two Lose Crowns During War, Which in 3 Years Rocked Mighty Empires to Foundation

SENATE PASSES BILL TO PROVIDE BATTLE PLANES

House Measure Appropriating $640,000,000 to Complete and Operate Big Air Fleet Is Voted.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 22.—The house bill appropriating $640,000,000 for aviation service, was passed yesterday by the senate without amendment or a record vote and with less than an hour's discussion. It now goes to the president.

The senate's only dispute, with many members expressing a desire to pass the bill, was over an amendment of Senator Hardwick of Georgia to strike out a clause authorizing drafting of the men for aerial service. The amendment was rejected, 66 to 12, after Senator La Follette and Senator Gronna made brief speeches opposing the draft.

Details of plans for expending the huge sum appropriated have been withheld, but it is known that it provides for about 22,000 airplanes and nearly 100,000 men.

To Sign Bill Monday.

The president is expected to sign the bill Monday and the work of building one of the greatest air fleets the world has seen will be pushed with vigor.

In rejecting the Hardwick amendment the dozen senators voting to strike out the draft clause were: Curtis, Borah, Broussard, Gore, Gronna, Hardwick, Kirby, LaFollette, McKeellar, Norris, Owen and Vardaman.

Monarchs Minus Titles Numerous as Fourth Year of Great Conflict Will Open Early in Month of August.

Many strange, startling, history-making events have taken place since the world war began, three years ago today, not the least of which events were the number of thrones upset and the number of kings precipitated into a hard, cruel world to earn their daily bread.

Four monarchs are "kings without countries" as a result of the war. Each still enjoys his claim to the title of "king" by reason of the fact that his subjects have not taken it away from him, although the Teutonic hordes in the first flush of victorious invasion took their countries away from them all.

Two other august personages were compelled to relinquish their thrones and the other to shovel snow from the pathways of what was once his magnificent imperial estate. They are kings without crowns, for they have abdicated their crowns and sceptres "voluntarily." That is to say—they didn't jump, they were pushed.

The four "kings without countries" are Albert of Belgium, almost all of whose kingdom is in the hands of the Germans. Albert is beloved of his people, however, and will be restored to his throne as soon as the Germans are driven out.

Nicholas of Montenegro lost his little agricultural kingdom when the Austro-Germanic armies swept Serbia. Nicholas, was compelled to flee before the oncoming Teutons. Looking far from anything resembling a king, Peter joined the lines of diseased, starving and wounded stragglers that clogged the roads out of Serbia for weeks. Part of the way he walked and part of the way he rode on a donkey, until he reached the British lines in Macedonia and safety.

If the Allies win the war both Peter and Nicholas will get their countries back, and their people will welcome them with open arms.

Abbas Hilmi Pasha was Sultan of Egypt under the nominal suzerainty of the Sultan of Turkey. In reality, Egypt was a British Protectorate. When the war broke out Sultan Abbas swung over to the side of Turkey, so that the English relieved him of throne and elevated Prince Hussein Kamel Pasha to the Sultanate. Unless Germany wins, ex-Sultan Abbas will be out of a job.

Everyone knows the story of Nicholas Romanoff, late Czar of all the Russians. The "Little Father" lost his job of "little fathering" when the Russian people became impatient recently. Nicholas seems to be permanently out of a job. He is one of the kings without a crown.

Constantine of Greece lost his throne because he was too friendly with his brother-in-law, said brother-in-law being Kaiser Bill. Constantine's possibilities of again wearing a crown depend upon whether the Germans are victorious. If they are not, he will have to go to work along with the ex-Sultan and the ex-Czar. He is another king without a country, but no crown.

And so it goes. The fourth year of the war finds kings, with perfectly good crowns but no countries, and other kings with perfectly good countries, but no crowns.

Washington, July 22.—An effort by Senator Fletcher to make the $27,000,000 rivers and harbors bill the unfinished business of the senate, was defeated late today on objection of Senator Borah, who said many features of the bill, in his opinion, should be rejected. He said the bill was not a war measure.

SOCIALIST HEAD ATTACKS GERMAN SUBSEA WARFARE

Majority Leaders Before Reichstag Score Domestic and Foreign Policy of Government.

(By Associated Press.)

Copenhagen, July 22.—Berlin newspapers containing the speech of Imperial Chancellor Michaelis and the debate in the Reichstag have not reached Denmark for some reason, but arriving Hamburg papers give more extensive reports of the speeches in the Reichstag than were transmitted by the Wolff agency.

Philipp Scheidemann, leader of the majority socialists, particularly attacked the submarine warfare. Its adoption, he declared, was a triumph of unscrupulous demagoguery with Count von Reventlow and the Deutsches Tages Zeitung playing leading roles. The censorship had prevented effective opposition to the warfare by the press. Scheidemann recalled the prophesy made some weeks ago by Herr von Heydebrand, the conservative leader, that the war would be won in two months through the submarine and evoked merriment in the house by adding:

"Heydebrand, your submarine watch has run down."

As a weapon to end the war this summer the illusion of the submarine.

"Dandy Sixth" Gets Its Popular Name From Bee

The Hildreth (Nebraska) Telescope says: "We have asked a dozen or more why the new regiment of Nebraska National Guard is referred to as the 'Dandy Sixth,' but no one seems to be able to furnish us the desired information. Can you?"

The "Dandy Sixth" got its name when the announcement first was made that Governor Neville contemplated resigning the governorship to go to war as colonel of the new Nebraska regiment.

One of the editors of The Bee, in writing a headline for the story filled in the head with the words "Dandy Sixth." The name at once became popular and the regiment probably will go through the great war with a blaze of glory.

OFFICIAL TALLY SHEETS TO BE MAILED TO EXEMPTION BOARDS BY NEXT TUESDAY

Next Step in Summoning Great National Army Soon Completed; District Boards to Govern Industrial Claims Named; Frank A. Kennedy and M. C. Peters Of Omaha Named for State District.

(By Associated Press.) Washington, July 22.—Despite the fact that officers and clerks of Provost Marshal General Crowder's office worked all last night to complete the drawing that fixed the order of military liability of 10,000,000 registrants, the tally sheets had been compared and corrected before dark tonight and the master list was in the hands of the printer.

General Crowder has issued the following statement: "The drawing is complete and has been apparently successful. The official tally sheets have been compared, sent to the printer and the proof is being received. Final copies will be ready for distribution not later than Tuesday.

GERMAN AGENTS CAUSE OF RIOTS, SAYS KERENSKY

New Russian Premier Appeals to Patriots in Explaining Cause of Recent Disturbance.

(By Associated Press.)

Petrograd, July 22.—The recent disturbances in Petrograd were instigated by agents of the German government.

Race to Be Swift. "We have now passed the stage in the execution of the selective service act when we must have concert of action by the states. In raising state contingent, the race is to the swiftest.

"I cannot let this opportunity pass without adverting to the very great value of the assistance, which has been so earnestly and efficiently rendered by the press.

"Without the systematic campaign of public information that prepared the country for the registration, the enrollment of 10,000,000 men on the fifth day of June would have been impossible. The generous support of the newspapers throughout the period since registration day is appreciated and only the most thorough efficiency could have placed upon the streets, within a few hours after the first number was drawn, lists for each registration district, showing the names of the persons who would be summoned for examination on the first call of the local boards."

General Crowder also made public the text of the regulations for their application, which will accompany the master lists.

The officially new feature shown is the plan for handling cards that are found to have duplicate numbers or are otherwise confused and also of dealing with those received July 10, when the local boards closed their lists to begin numbering.

By the plan worked out, these additional cards will be given an order of their own by lot and then will be added to the lists of the districts from which they come and be affected by the drawing precisely as though they had been received and numbered before the board lists were closed. Where several cards bear the same serial number, one will be drawn from the group and retain the duplicated number, while the others will be registered as unnumbered and the process of adding them to the lists be followed.

Another step accomplished during the day was the appointment of the district boards of thirty-two of the states and announcement of the names of the five men who will compose each of them.

Some states have six or eight (Continued on Page Two, Column One.)

Santa Fe Road to Finance Farmers of Southwest

Chicago, Ill., July 22.—Following the government's policy to increase food production, the new farmers in the sparsely settled districts of southwest Kansas and northwest Texas will be financed for seed wheat purchases this fall by the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway company, according to a statement made today by E. P. Ripley, president of the railway.

The railroad company will loan the farmers in this section more than a quarter of a million dollars through local banks on reasonable terms. Extra wheat acreage under this plan, it is said, will produce 2,500,000 bushels of wheat.
