RUSTON RESIGNS HEALTH BOARD JOB

Newly Appointed Sanitary Engineer Quits Early to Accept More Salary in State of Maine.

Lincoln, July 23.—(Special)—Dr. L. D. Ruston of Boston, appointed chief health commissioner under the new state law which goes into effect tomorrow has resigned and Dr. E. S. Tenney, a graduate of Harvard Medical college, has been appointed in his place.

Dr. Ruston has been offered a similar position in Maine at a larger salary. The state health board has revoked the license to practice medicine of Dr. L. H. Phillips of Seneca. The new board of health will be as follows: Dr. E. S. Tenney, Boston, health commissioner; Dr. William Wild, Lincoln, epidemiologist; Mrs. Louise Andrews, Kearney, statistician; H. P. Letton, Lincoln, sanitary engineer; Lorraine Follette, May, F. Hyland, Edna Kelley and Ruth Steyer, clerks.

Notes from Beatrice

Beatrice, Neb., July 22.—(Special)—The house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brownawell, three miles northwest of Blue Springs, was destroyed by fire Saturday. The loss is placed at $1,500, partially covered by insurance.

John M. Hurst, who was given thirty days in the county jail Friday by County Judge O'Keefe for having liquor in his possession when arrested at Wymore, was fined $100 and costs Saturday by the court, the sentence having been changed. Hurst paid his fine and was taken to Lincoln to answer a federal charge of bringing liquor into a dry state.

Edgar L. Monroe of Geneva and Miss Earlene Bozarth of Sterling, Colo., formerly of this city, were married here Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's uncle, Dexter Bridges. They will make their home at Geneva, where Mr. Monroe is engaged in the banking business.

George Grant Satterlee, who was given an indeterminate sentence of from one to ten years by Judge Pemberton in the district court here Friday, on the charge of bigamy, was taken to Lincoln by Sheriff Acton to begin serving time. It is alleged that he deserted his wife and child at Kansas City some time ago. He was married here on June 16, 1917, to Catherine Pearl Johnson, 16 years old. He was working at Fairbury when arrested.

News Notes from Table

Rock and Pawnee County

Table Rock, July 22.—(Special)—Dr. E. B. Brooks of Pawnee City has received a commission as captain in the medical corps, and is subject to the call of the government. He expects to be sent to one of the southern cantonments for training before being assigned to active duty. Harvesting and threshing has been in progress in this vicinity for the past two weeks. The wheat is far better than estimated a few weeks ago. The yield is between eighteen and twenty bushels to as high as thirty-three bushels. Oats are yielding better than for several years. John Heer, near town, reports 660 bushels of oats threshed from eight and one-half acres.

M. L. Herrington, who died at his home in Dubois, has been a resident of that vicinity for fifty-four years. He had been postmaster in the town of Cincinnati at different times for fifteen years, and had also served as assessor and justice of the peace in that vicinity for several terms. He was in his eightieth year, and is survived by his wife, to whom he was married in 1873.

Mrs. Mahala Brant, aged 68 years, died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Wilson at 8:30 yesterday morning, after a long continued illness. The body was taken to Pierre, S. D., her old home, for interment.

Thurston County Says Farewell to Company F

Pender, Neb., July 23.—(Special)—A public farewell reception was tendered Pender's contingent in Company F, Sixth regiment, Nebraska infantry, at the city park, Sunday afternoon. A program of music and speaking which was attended by hundreds of people from town and the environs. After invocation by Rev. Mr. Martyn, addresses were made by E. A. Wiltse, Curtis L. Day and Mark J. Ryan.

At the conclusion of the program here between seventy-five and 100 automobile loads of citizens from this part of the county, accompanied by the fraternal band, escorted the soldier boys to Walthill where Company F was mobilized. At Walthill the program was duplicated with Curtis L. Day, Mark J. Ryan and Rev. A. J. Wayne of Pender, and Harry L. Keeffe of Walthill, as speakers.

Polk County Corn Crop Is Damaged by Hail

Osceola, Neb., July 23.—(Special)—A wide area of Polk county was visited by a heavy rain and hail storm on Saturday evening at 6 o'clock. Beginning at Stromsburg and extending west for five miles, the corn crop is almost a total loss. The heaviest portion of the storm appears to have been felt in that locality. Many hundreds of acres will have no corn yield whatever and the damage is generally believed to have been the heaviest that has ever occurred in Polk county for many years. There was a heavy wind and in addition to destroying the corn there were many trees stripped of their leaves. The rainfall was from an inch to two inches all over the county and except in the district which was hit by the hail there is a crop prospect that is the very best.

War Wedding at Tecumseh. Tecumseh, Neb., July 23.—(Special)—Tecumseh has its first "war bride." Mr. John L. Vanwinkle, a member of Company M, Fifth regiment of Tecumseh, and Miss Alberta Jones, also of this city, were married by Rev. F. E. Blanchard of the Christian church Friday. The bridegroom announces that he expects to go to the front with his company.

Game Wardens Catch Men Fishing Illegally

Lincoln, July 23.—(Special)—The high cost of fishing has joined the high cost of living and several individuals on the Blue river are unwilling to testify to that fact. Deputy Game Wardens John Q. Holmes and William Byrket, last week arrested Frank Skulke, who paid a fine and costs of $54.50; Charles Bobear, $25 and costs; Joe Hartman, $15 and costs; Henry and Peter Musick, the same, all for fishing unlawfully in the Blue river. Four seines were seized and burned on the public square at Deweese to give a public demonstration.

Deputy Game Warden Moore arrested Charles Kelen at Elk Creek for fishing with a fish trap and he paid a fine of $25 and costs.

Petition Automatically Suspends Law's Operation

Lincoln, Neb., July 23.—(Special Telegram)—The law granting partial suffrage to women of Nebraska will not go into effect tomorrow along with other acts of the legislature at its last session. The petition for a referendum filed by opponents of the law automatically suspends the law until it is approved by the voters at the next general election. Governor Neville stated today that this issue will be included in his proclamation calling election of state officials in November of next year.

County Red Cross Rally At Tecumseh Saturday

Tecumseh, Neb., July 23.—(Special)—The Johnson County Red Cross society has arranged for a county meeting in Tecumseh Saturday evening. There will be band music and an address by Rev. J. S. Budlong of Hastings. The central chapter of Tecumseh has had workers out to the other towns of the county bringing about the organization of auxiliary chapters. The work is well under way in this county.

Securities Saving Bank Of Omaha Changes Name

Lincoln, July 23.—(Special)—The Securities Savings bank, which was recently authorized by the State Banking board to do business in Omaha, has had to change its name to the Pioneer Savings bank, because of a similarity of title with that of the Security Savings bank of the same city. The change was authorized by the State Banking board today.

Edgar Man Dies Suddenly

Edgar, Neb., July 23.—(Special)—John Allen, section foreman on the St. Joseph & Grand Island railroad, died Saturday at about noon, aged 43 years. He became sick about 10 o'clock and was brought home exhausted. He thought he would be all right after a little rest so lay down, telling his wife to call him for dinner. She called him at noon but got no response, so went in to arouse him and found him dead. He had suffered with heart trouble for several years.

Allen in Washington To Get View on "Slackers"

Washington, July 23.—(Special Telegram)—Tom Allen, United States district attorney for Nebraska, had an interview with Senator Hitchcock today. Mr. Allen is here to ascertain what is to be done legally against the "slackers" and the aliens in Nebraska as they relate to the selective draft. He desires to be informed what the administration thinks should be done. Mr. Allen has another mission to Washington at this time, to ascertain how the attorney general stands in the prosecution of the Industrial Workers of the World so far as Nebraska is concerned. It will be recalled there were outbreaks last year around harvest time in the South Platte country, one citizen being killed near Havelock, growing out of the machinations of the Industrial Workers of the World, as has been alleged repeatedly.

Webster County Assessor Is Dead at Red Cloud

Red Cloud, Neb., July 23.—(Special Telegram)—George W. Hummel, pioneer minister and present county assessor of Webster county, died at his home here this morning. Mr. Hummel was born in 1849 in Erie county, New York. In 1850 he settled in Iowa, where he received his education and grew to manhood. In 1872, with his brother, he came to this county and settled just south of Red Cloud. He was ordained an elder in the Methodist church in 1887 and has preached in every part of the county. He has married more Webster county people and has conducted more funerals of Webster county citizens than all other ministers in the county together. Mr. Hummel was elected supervisor in 1887 and county commissioner in 1907, being re-elected three years later without opposition. He resigned in 1912 and was elected state senator from the Twentieth district the same year. He received considerable publicity as the author of the bill which allowed county boards to levy a tax for the erection of a court house when petitioned by 51 per cent of the voters. After the close of the session he assisted materially in securing such a court house in this county. Funeral services will be held here Wednesday morning.

Women's Votes Barred At the Next Election

Lincoln, July 23.—(Special)—Four hundred and twenty-five additional names were added to the anti-suffrage petition filed in the office of Secretary of State Pool today. The additional names came from Douglas, Clay and Nuckolls counties. They will be added to the original petition which was filed Saturday. The filing of the petition last Saturday means that the women will not get a chance to vote at the next election, as the law provides where sufficient names are secured to call for a recall referendum on any law passed by the legislature, the law is suspended until after the recall is voted upon.

Twelve Hundred Motor Cars in Johnson County

Tecumseh, Neb., July 23.—(Special)—County Treasurer Robert J. Nibbe reports the total number of automobile licenses to be issued in this county so far this year to be 1,207. Of this number 541 are Fords. Placing an average valuation on the cars of $600 each, and this is a low estimate, there is $750,000 invested in automobiles in one of the smallest counties in the state.
