GOLF TOURNAMENT WILL START TODAY

First Half of Qualifying Round of Patriotic Tourney to Be Played at the Country Club Today.

The patriotic golf tournament, which takes the place of the annual state tournament called off this year on account of the war, starts at 8 o'clock this morning at the Omaha Country club. It is expected 100 golfers will tee off on the qualifying round this morning. Only eighteen holes of play is scheduled for today. The remaining eighteen holes to complete the thirty-six holes of the qualifying round will be held Wednesday.

Rourke Leave for Denver To Start Second Season

Pa Rourke's hopeful left Omaha at 4:20 yesterday afternoon for Denver, where today they start on their second dash of the year for the well known pennant. The first flight of the Rourkes was unsuccessful, but Rourke has assembled almost an entirely new team and expects to lead the field home this trip. The season starting today is absolutely independent of the first season which closed Sunday. A new standing starts with today's game. At the close of the year the team which wins the second pennant fight will meet Des Moines, winner of the first season, in a post-season series to determine absolute supremacy.

Calvert and Renz Win Way Into City Tennis Finals

Calvert and Renz yesterday won their way into the finals of the doubles event in the annual city tennis tournament at the Omaha Field club by defeating Hannighan and Brotherton, 6-2, 6-2, in the semi-finals. Calvert and Renz will play Hoyle and Baughn in the final round at 5 o'clock today for the city doubles championship.

Haines' Claim for Fourth Place in Race is Sustained

F. J. McShane, jr., Omaha Mercer agent and director of contests of the Omaha auto races July 4, has received word from the contest board of the American Automobile association that Walter Haines' claim for fourth place in the local classic has been sustained. Official announcement of winners of the Omaha race were given out by Ralph Mulford, first; Tommy Milton, second; Joe Thomas, third; Eddie Hearne, fourth; Billy Taylor, fifth, and Walter Haines, sixth.

Greek at Kearney Forced to Salute Flag Every Day

A Greek at Kearney, Neb., was rather loud in his hopes that the Germans would soon whip the allies. The Greek was a shoe shiner and was shining a man's shoes. The man immediately knocked him down and, going out and getting an American flag, made the Greek salute it twenty-five times. The flag now hangs in a conspicuous place in the shining parlor and the Greek salutes it every day out of respect for the Americans.

American Officers Are Under Fire in France

An Atlantic Port, July 23.—Eleven American army officers, members of a special commission sent to France, England and Belgium early in June as investigators of army conditions, arrived today on an American steamship. The officers visited all the commands on the western front and shrapnel-dented steel helmets which they brought back as souvenirs supported their admission that they had been under fire.

Explosion in New York Sewer Injures a Dozen Workmen

New York, July 23.—An explosion on a steamship pier at the foot of West Twenty-third street and the blowing up of manholes along the water front for five blocks this afternoon called out fire apparatus and ambulances. The explosion, caused by the ignition of gas in a large sewer which emptied beneath the pier, injured a dozen workmen, three of whom were removed to a hospital in a serious condition. Part of the roof of the pier was blown off. The flames were quickly extinguished, however, and the damage was not serious.

American Squadron Sets Sail for Buenos Aires

Montevideo, Uruguay, July 23.—The American squadron set sail today for Buenos Aires. An enormous crowd gathered on the water front and cheered the Americans. Frank Wood, riding an Excelsior, won the hill climb staged south of Council Bluffs by the Omaha Motorcycle Club Sunday afternoon. Wood scaled the high bluff, 480 feet long, in thirteen and two-fifths seconds. Herman Fisher, Indian, was second, finishing two-fifths of a second behind Wood, while John Bagley was third. James Greevy fourth and Bill Dristy fifth.

Summer Disorders Often Come From Impurities in the Blood

Get in Condition for Perfect Health. So many people drag through the summer season with that worn-down, tired-out feeling, that almost entirely unfit them for their daily tasks, without knowing just what the cause is. It is just now that a few bottles of S. S. S. will prove its great worth. This great blood remedy is a wonderful purifier, and promptly cleanses the blood of all impurities, renewing the vitality that comes with a restored appetite. It is absolutely without an equal as a tonic and system builder.

North Platte Foot Ball Star Out After Federal Job

Washington, July 23.—(Special Telegram.)—James Keith of North Platte, football star, one of the men who discovered Governor Neville and helped to "put him over," is in Washington to interview the head of the bureau of investigation. A. Bruce Bielski, of the Department of Justice, with a view of accepting a position in the bureau. Mr. Keith is accompanied by Dr. G. M. Byrne of Lincoln, who is ready to vouch for "Jim" Keith's physical status if such a question should be raised.

Insurance Planned for American Fighting Men

Washington, July 23.—Tentative plans evolved at today's conference of government officials and insurance men provide for the issuance of insurance in amounts from $1,000 to $10,000 upon the lives of American sailors and soldiers at ordinary premium rate with the government paying the excess charge because of the extra risk of military service.
