

FOOD CONSERVING GOES MERRILY ON

Many Committees to Canvass All of Omaha in Interest of the Food Conservation Work.

"I've scraped and scraped all my life, but if the government wants me to I can scrape a little bit more," said a little old woman who came to her door in answer to the knock of a canvasser in the city-wide food conservation pledge movement. Such responses are being met all over the city where the women and girls are carrying their cards.

On the South Side three young boys have volunteered their services to help in the distribution. Masters John McBride, Everett Bentz and Stephen Osborn. Church women of that part of Greater Omaha have assumed the entire responsibility of distributing the pledge cards. Their work will be done in the eastern and northern sections of the district.

Mrs. A. E. Miller is chairman of the workers from the Wheeler Memorial church. Assisting her are Mesdames W. H. Bentz, Ed Wells, George Stewart, Gus Beavers, Walter Hill, William Barkley, John Risley and Miss Valeria Wells.

At the Methodist church Mrs. R. E. Vermillion is in charge, with Misses Helen Van Sant, Gladys Munson and Master John McBride as her assistants.

For the Christian Church. Mrs. W. W. Widoe is chairman at the Christian church. Mesdames J. C. Martin, C. Rowe, L. M. Larson, Ed Baker, L. Hodges, Frank Godard and Misses Lillian Hodges, Beulah Carper, Vera Osborn, Mamie Phillips and Bessie Wilson, and Masters Everett Bentz and John Osborn as assistants.

The Baptist church has Mrs. G. E. Taylor as chairman, with a corps of workers consisting of Mesdames W. B. Wyman, G. S. Mynard, C. L. Talbot, W. B. Myers, Drs. Baumgarten and English, Misses Alma Mason, Mildred Mynard, Mildred Taylor and Charlotte Wells.

Mrs. H. W. Bore, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Roy Pole and Misses Evelyn Bore and Ione Hall, will represent the United Presbyterian church.

The entire district west of the Burlington railroad will be in charge of Mrs. Will Leamer, with Misses Marian Leamer, Mary La Coma and Myrtle Anderson helping.

The packing house district south of Q street to the city limits will be in charge of the Campfire Girls. Mrs. Wirts of the Social Settlement will head the work, assisted by a group of girls, many of whom are employed during the day and will have to do their canvassing at night. They are Misses Rose Dubnoff, Sonnie Dubnoff, Molly Siever, Catherine Enright, Margaret Enright, Genevieve Kronigen, Rose Teshek, Mary Serdono, Bernice O'Brien, Catherine and Elizabeth Bliss, Mabel Hardman and Lula Hardman.

In the Bohemian settlement and all through Albright the Bohemian Presbyterian missionary, Miss Martha Hets, will work.

All the canvassers will meet Saturday at 2 o'clock in the council chamber of the city hall to turn in cards already signed and to make arrangements for the continuation.

SEVENTEEN FINED FOR TOO THIN MILK

Anton Larson Loses License and Others Assessed Various Sums in Police Court.

Seventeen dairymen were fined in police court on the charge of selling adulterated milk and cream. City Milk Inspector Bosse has tested the milk and cream products sold by 692 local dairymen since July 1 and of these only 6 per cent were found to be violating the ordinance.

Anton Larson, who has been fined on the same charge before failed to appear and his license will be revoked. Larson's place is the dairy Sheriff Clark raided shortly after May 1, and confiscated a large quantity of liquor.

Christ Tarf, Second and Wright streets, was fined $35 and costs; Jim Sorenson, Benson, $25 and costs; L. P. Jensen, 2212 South Forty-second street, $25 and costs; E. Corneer, Thirty-fifth and Valley, $25 and costs; L. Johnson, Seventieth and Grover streets, $25 and costs; C. P. Johnson, Benson, $25 and costs; L. P. Neilson, East Omaha, $25 and costs; George Verucysee, Benson, $25 and costs; H. K. Paulsen, $50 and costs; Hans Larson, Seventieth and Pacific streets, $25 and costs; Fred Hanson, Benson, $50 and costs; J. C. Hudson, 4303 Brown street, $50 and costs; Andrew Rehmer, 6617 Evans street, $50 and costs; M. F. Christensen, Seventieth and Center streets, $25 and costs; A. Heugren, Seventieth and Center, $50 and costs; H. J. Peterson, Fifty-first and Gold street, $25 and costs; Robert Peterson, East Omaha, $30 and costs.

"These men are not only doing an injustice to their patrons but also to their competitors who will not lower their standards and therefore cannot sell as cheaply as they do," said Prosecutor McGuire.

Three offenses of this kind cause the dairymen's license to be rebuked. The requisite for milk is 3.2 butterfat, and for cream 18.0. Dr. Boler was the chemist.

The fines levied are turned over to the School board and the costs go to the city.

Police Inspection is Put Over Till Tuesday

Chief of Police Dunn postponed the police inspection at the Auditorium from Monday to Tuesday at 2 o'clock. The reason given for the change is to have as many coppers on duty Monday, which is circus day, as possible. At the inspection, Mayor Dahlman and other council members will address the police on "what is expected of them" and "ways of bettering the service."

NEW TRACKAGE IS PLANNED BY THE U. P.

Railroad Buys Land and Will Install Four Tracks at Once for the Peters Mill.

Extensive trackage and other development is planned between B and D streets, South Side, on Twenty-ninth street. The Union Pacific has purchased of the M. C. Peters Mill company twelve lots lying on the west side of the mill, which will be developed with trackage. The deal involves some $20,000. The negotiations were conducted through the Byron Reed company. Four tracks are to be laid here for switching facilities for the immediate convenience of the Peters mill, where some extensions are being planned. The tracks will be used for inspection of alfalfa used at the mill, and some time in the distant future it is thought the hay market of Omaha may be developed here. Union Pacific officials, however, say the idea of making this the hay market is not contemplated at this time. It has been suggested by some hay dealers that this would be a good place to develop such a market, however.

Peters Mill Expands. Mr. Peters during the last year has made some large extensions to the Peters mill, which makes alfalfa feeds, and handles grain, hay, bags and burlap. Further extensions are planned now in connection with the increased trackage that is going to be available when the Union Pacific completes its work there, but M. C. Peters says he cannot tell as yet how far he will go with his extensions until he knows whether or not he will be compelled to serve on the exemption board, to which he and Frank L. Kennedy have been appointed. Mr. Peters would like to be excused from serving on this board if possible.

"It is a big work I am undertaking in the way of extensions here," said Mr. Peters, "and I cannot go ahead with it until I know whether I will serve on the exemption board or not."

Baptist Union Meets At Benson Church Today

Baptist Tri-City union quarterly meeting is being held today at the Benson Methodist church. The Methodists offered their new building to accommodate the large numbers who are attending the all-day session. The morning was occupied with devotional services, dinner was served at noon in the parlors of the church, and reports and addresses were delivered in the afternoon session.

Price of Corn at the Stock Yards is Raised

The price of corn at the Omaha stock yards has been raised again; the new price is $2.50 a bushel. The price was $2.25, but when corn sold on the open market for $2.24 it was necessary to raise the price again. The new price is in line with the price charged at other markets.

Swimmers Hunt for Cold Waters Thursday Night

Thursday night was banner swimming night at Carter lake and other municipal beaches. Commissioner Hummel stated that crowds at Carter lake were so great that many bathers had to wait hours before they could find dressing quarters. Another large tent is to be put up for the accommodation of bathers.

"The Digest" Affords You a Wider Outlook

What everyone of us needs is a wider outlook. We are all too prone to gaze out upon life from our own private back window and to imagine that the view we thus obtain is a comprehensive survey of the globe. We need to forget ourselves for a while and to go out into the pure clear air of world-thought and learn what a different universe this is when beheld with a seeing eye. THE LITERARY DIGEST, greatest of news-magazines, puts you in touch week by week with every important event that is taking place within the compass of the Seven Seas. It reports these occurrences to you in the words of the periodicals published on the spot, voicing no views of its own, being content to record for you without comment what the world is doing and thinking, leaving you to form your own judgments. Why not read this week's number?
