EMEMBER Max J. Weisfeldt; ferme R manager of the local branch of the Mutual Film Corporation. Well, he is now the general manager of a new film company, to start marketing its productions on or about September 1. It is the Wholesome Film Corporation, and its promoters have decided on a new policy in the business of motion pictors, that of making screen versions of clean, literary making screen versions of clean, literary works by the best known authors and to feature them, and not the particular stars. Mr. Welsfeldt announces that they will shortly start on the producing of a picture with Mrs. Bryant Washburn in the leading just. Then Raiph Morgan is one working in a picture. He is the dashing Joe Bascom of George M. Cohan's "Turn to the Right" fame, and is working in "The Penny Philanthropist." by Clara E. Laughin, Guy McConnell, well known producer and magnific writer, has also just joined this comsuine writer, has also just joined this com-cany in the capacity of director general and will guide the continuity and produc-tion of all wholesome subjects.

Didja ever hear that movie comedians wear paper cuffs? We have, but it's all a mistake. They wear cuffs all right, but metake. They wear cuits the control of the cuit iner are the real thing-lines, too. If you they are the real thing-lines, too. If you up to C. W. Taylor's len't believe it, go up to C. W. Taylor office of the Standard Film Corporation office of the Standard Film Corporation, and there, neatly tacked on the wall, is a cuff that was worn by Hilly West in his latest two-reel screen. The Hero. It was a thru fool stunt too. He must just have inken it off and put a stamp on it and not dressed at to C. W. T. and not only that, but he or the positions was dirty from the looks of the cuff.

motion picture actors are human and just as liable for selective conscription as the next one. In the studios, both in the east aexi one. In the studies, both in the east and out on the studies, both in the east and out on the west coast, the draft promises to work havor. The screen actors as a rule are young, of excellent physique and could make ideal soldiers. Besides, one and all they are thrilled with patriotism and anxious to go to do each his cheerful duty for liberty and his country. Thus far the only ones that have been beought to light are Samuel B. Kramer of Bluebird, V. F. Freeman of Triangle, Ralph Ince (director), Wallace Reid of Famous Pikyers-Lasky, Charles Ray, John Drew Bennett, Vell Burns, E. H. Calvert, William B. Davidson, Allen J. Holubar, Marshall Neltan, Louis L. Arms, Philip MeNell, Ewald Taub, charles E. Quick, Alfred Querital, J. Sourley Ben W. Kanter, Irving Cumming, and Robert Haugton, We suppose that by next week we may be able to announce many more.

"Herman the Great." otherwise known as manager of the local office of the Mutual Film company, says some of the most peculiar things and has the strangest talk nowadays that it is almost impossible for the uninitiated to fathom the mystery. It is all very simple, though. He lives up on the third story of an apartment house and Mr. Stork was flying bigh, wide and handsome one night and being a little tired did not know there was a building in his path, with the result that he landed in said Herman's apartment. Awakened by the noise our here says "Whazamata." Nothing," say Mr. Stork, "only I just brought a present." So Herman enters into conversation with said present and tries the lings on everyone. Very simple, P. S.—Our here announces that he has secured a first floor

Mabel Normand and the Goldwin company have finally agreed. It is understood that she will appear in their productions for a period of three years at $2,500 a week for the first year and a raise of $500 a week for the next two years. The Goldwin Distributing company has also closed a contract with Marie Dressler to release for the comedienne eight two-reel comedies to be made by her own company.

Bills for Current Week

Strand—Louise Glaum and Mary Pickford are the features at the Strand this week, where only two changes of program hold forth. Miss Glaum starts the week Sunday and Monday in "A Strange Transgressor," a picture said to be on the order of "Camille," elegantly staged and portrayed by a wonderful cast. Little Mary comes Tuesday till saturday in a story of early California called "A. Romance of the Redwoods," different from anything she has ever been seen in in addition there will be one of those Keysione mirthmakers and the Pathe Weekly. Buring engagement of the Pickford picture matinee prices will be the same as night.

Sun-Manager Goldberg announces three fine programs for the summer patrons of the Sun this week. Jackie Saunders is shown today and Monday in one of the cloverest little comedy dramas in which she has yet appeared, entitled "A Bit of Kindling." For the comedy end of the show there is a two-

The Universal Film company is now distributing a moving picture of the Russian revolution, which shows scenes in Moscow and Petrograd, photographed in the very thick of the most amazing revolution in the world's history. They were photographed under the auspices of the American ambulance in Russia and as said to be the only pictures so far known of these vivid scenes.

Mrs. Vernon Castle has become very popular with her directors. She refused to be "doubled" in "stunt" scenes, in consequence at the studio where her pictures are being made for Pathe there is never any difficulty about taking scenes where thrills are the important thing.

Mabel Normand and the Goldwin company have finally agreed. It is understood that she will appear in their productions for a period of three years at $2,500, a week for the first year and a raise of $600 a week for the next two years. The Goldwin Discovery The Stolen.

Empress—The story of "The Stolen Treaty," which is being shown at the Empress the first four days of this week, starting today, deals with the theft of a secret treaty between the United States and a foreign government. A refreshing love story is interwoven with the gripping adventures of a man and a girl. Earle Williams is the clever secret service man and Corinne Griffith, one of the prettiest girls in movies, is his adventure-loving flance, who blocked the foreign agents. Hank Mann in the Fox Film comedy, "His Love Fight," and the Hearst-Pathe Weekly complete the film offering.

Hipp—Apropos for the circus, which appears in Omaha Monday, the Hipp offers Sunday and Monday a story of the sawdust arena, "The Little Terror," with Violet Merserau in the title role, while the remainder of the cast leaves nothing to be desired. Many of the scenes of this story were taken WARNER OLAND'S wonderful interpretation of the arch-conspirator in "Patria" is more than equalled by his work in "The Fatal Ring." As a foil for Pearl White, the peerless star, he is admirable. Seldom do you find two such great artists in one cast. But in addition there are Ruby Hoffman, Earle Foxe and Henry Gsell in leading roles in "The Fatal Ring." The story by Fred Jackson and B. Millhauser, abounds in thrills, mystery, suspense, intrigue, daring and romance. "The Fatal Ring" is easily Pathe's best serial, which means that it is without a peer.
