BUILDING A TRENCH RAILWAY IN FRANCE-Behind the lines in every offensive are waiting the thousands of engineers, skilled workmen and ordinary laborers, prepared to undertake the task of making passable reconquered territory and destroyed roads and railroads. Every advance means new trenches constructed or reconstructed in advanced territory, and every trench must have railways operating within a convenient distance of it in order that supplies and ammunition may be brought up as speedily as possible. The men in the photograph are shown building such a railway line leading to new trenches of the French on the western front.

Disturbing effects of the strike manifested themselves amendally in the corn

New York, July 28.—Professional traders had the field to themselves in this week's negligible dealings, which incidentally has marked the third anniversary of the war. Price again responded to bear pressure, prompted by adverse developments at home and across the water, together with the utter lack of public inquiry for stocks.

War prices and taxes again engaged attention. This situation was emphasized by the presentation of the Treasury departments $5,000,000,000 budget and mounting cost of the war. Bankers also viewed with misgiving the steady cufflow of the country's gold, large additional amounts being shipped to Japan. Spain and South America.

Railroad earnings for June are showing up very favorably and crop prospects, except in isolated spots are increasingly bright.

Forecasts of the United States Steel earnnings for the second quarter, to be published next Tuesday, range from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000 over those of the preceding period, although allowance is made for changed conditions in that industry. General trade is reported to be satisfactory, but authorities lay more than ordinary stress upon the undertone of conversion due to the strike manisper propriet sended to lift prices. Complaints that injury had been rendered worse by extreme heat referred to a broad stretch that included much of Texas, Oklahoma, Kaneas and Nebraska. changed conditions in that industry, General trade is reported to be satisfactory, but authorities lay more than ordinary stress upon the undertons of conservatism, due to uncertain government regulations.

Short covering was again the paramount influence in today's light operations, the oversold condition of the list being seen in the 1 to 2 points gains, recorded by leading atocks, notably war issues.

Advances were largely surrendered in the profit-taking of the last hour, the market closing, however, with a firm tone. Shippine, motors, leathers and secondary specialties shared in the temporary rise, but rails were ignored throughout, the only feature in that division being St. Paul, which retained half of its 2-point gain.

Despite the outlook for a huse crop, the cats market rose with corn. The strike of switchmen here gave reason for serious approhension that the movement of the crop might be delayed.

Strike difficulties curtaling the arrival of hogs led to a decided upturn in provision.

Begian relief purchases counted also as an element of strength.

The bank statement reported an actual loss of almost $50,000,000 in reserves of members, held by the federal reserve bank, and a decrease of slightly more than $37,000,000 in excess reserves, still leaving the total excess well more than $100,000,000.

Danish Singer and Composer Will Give Concert in Omaha

I. Saxtorph-Mikkelsen, noted singer and composer, is in the city visiting friends. Sunday afternoon he will give an open air concert at the home of Fred Brodegaard, where he will sen, Ethel Welch, Marjorie Tripp, some of the better known Danish folk songs. He will accompany himself on a Luth, a mediaeval string instrument, made for him

Italy.
Mrs. Saxtorph-Mikkelsen is with her husband, and is said to possess great proficiency in the art of sil-houette clipping. The two have been introduced to a large number of Omaha music lovers the last week. Recently Mr. Saxtorph-Mikkelsen composed a "soldiers' farewell" song which elicited favorable comment in the press of California.

OMAHAN ENLISTS ON TRANSPORT DUTY

Think He Was on U. S. Ships Taking Second Contingent to Europe; This Is Second Enlistment.

Elmer H. McCune, an Omaha boy, who two months ago made his second enlistment in the navy, is believed by Edwin L. Huntley, his uncle, to have been on one of the transports which carried the second American contingent of soldiers to France. McCune has been a member of Mr. Huntley's family since he was a child.

McCune's uncle has not received a letter from him for three weeks. At that time he was attached to a big transport, formerly a German-Amerliner, interned when war broke ican out. He said the vessel was then being fitted up for transport service and would be ready in a few days. Young McCune re-enlisted in the naval reserve, but his former four years' service made it possible for him

Armour Girls Supply the Soldiers With Fine Kits

Armour's hospital class is doing more than "sewing shirts for soldiers." They are making comfort kits for them. They have already made fifty and have started more. These are the most complete kits made by any hospital unit in Omaha. They A tug-'o-war, wrestling match and a musical program will feature the lawn social to be given Wednesday night by St. Patrick's parish at Rourke and tooth paste, and a "house-brush and tooth paste, and a "house-brush and tooth paste, and a "house-brush and tooth paste, and a "housewife." All of these "first aids for homesickness" are packed compactly into an olive drab bag which occupies very little space and weighs almost nothing.

The kits are not cheap. The girls have been able to buy almost all of the articles at wholesale, but, even then, they cost more than $3 apiece. They will be given to the men from Armour's packing company who go to war.

This hospital class has already sent over 1,000 bandages to France.

This class is unusual in that it is made up entirely of self-supporting young women. They have paid for all their material themselves. They hold their meetings in the evenings. Miss Lily R. Ring, private secretary to R. C. Howe, general manager of Armour's, is chairman of the class.

The members are; Amy Holgerson, Agnes Johnson, Catherine O'Brien, Helen Heuck, Charlotte Lovely, Mar-Katherine Rafferty. Catherine Millner, Grace Yates, Ruth Hudson and Clara Stargardt. Mrs. James C. Wrath is instructing the class.

Sheriff and Negro Both Killed in Chester Fight

Chester, Pa., July 29.—David Schwartz, a deputy sheriff, and an unidentified negro were shot and killed here late last night in a fight in the negro section. The shooting was the result of the sending of a number of policemen and guards to the neighbor hood after a crowd of negroes had opened fire on two guards.
