Cattle—Receipts moderated a little today, but the run was fairly liberal at that, about 6,200 head, fully 60 per cent of them being western grassers. As usual of late, choice cornfed beeves have been scarce, and cattle selling from $13.00 to $14.00, the latter being the highest price ever paid here, were quotably steady to strong. The same was true as to choice grassers, selling around $10.50@11.50, and on up. On the general run of half-fat and grassy cattle, however, the market was slow and unevenly lower, mostly 10@15c lower than yesterday and 25@40c lower than a week ago.

Cows and heifers were in tolerably liberal supply and not very vigorous demand from any quarter. The market was inclined to be draggy, with prices weak to 10@15c lower than yesterday and around 50c lower than a year ago.

There was not much doing in stockers and feeders. Supplies were not as heavy as on Monday and quality was not very good, and demand from the country was decidedly slack. Tone to the trade was weak and prices unevenly lower.

Sheep—Fat lambs sold a big 25c lower this morning. It was another slow session with no sales made up until nearly noon, and quite a bit of stuff unsold at midday. The best lambs including the mates of yesterday's $15.10 stuff were bought at $14.75.

Feeders are beginning to show the effect of the declines in killers, and while some of the best held nearly steady this morning there was a lower tendency to the medium and fleshy kinds. Sales made up to midday ranged mostly from $14.75 to $15.20. No sales of feeder sheep had been reported.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Month-End Squeeze of Shorts Causes Wheat and Oats to Jump 11 and 12 Cents.

Chicago, July 31.—In a last-of-the-month squeeze today shorts had to bid July wheat up 12c a bushel and July oats up 11¼c. An even more acute pinch in settling July corn contracts was averted by recent action of the Board of Trade directors whereby all fresh dealings in the July delivery were forbidden. Corn closed nervous, 1⅝c off to ½c up, with September $1.64¼ and December $1.17½@1.17⅝. Wheat finished unsettled, varying from 7c decline to 12c advance, at $2.74 for July and $2.17 for September. The outcome in oats ranged from ¾c setback to a gain of 6¼c net.

Provisions showed a rise of 12@37c except July pork, which lost 20c.

Aside from the flurries which attended the windup of July contracts in wheat and oats, the main interest centered in free selling of new crop deliveries of corn. The general run of crop reports, except from Kansas and Oklahoma were favorable. Besides forecasts pointed to cooler weather with showers, and there were hopes that this might extend to the southwest. Demand for corn for immediate use, especially by distillers, remained so urgent that cash corn and the September option rose to new high price records, No. 2 yellow touching $2.33, about quadruple ordinary values before the war.

July wheat scored gains during the last fifteen minutes of the session, which outdid the total advance made in all the rest of the day put together. Meanwhile the September delivery of wheat had a continuous downward bend, owing to rains in the northwest auguring well for the improvement of the spring crop.

A jump to the unprecedented price of 90c a bushel was forced in the July delivery of oats before the wants of shorts were satisfied. Then the market suddenly broke to 82c, but again shot up to 85c just at the close. Deferred options were easy.

Active call for lard lifted the provisions market sharply. Cash trade was more promising and buyers were encouraged because of an upturn in the value of cottonseed oil.

Cash Prices—Wheat—No. 2 red nominal; No. 3 red, $2.60; No. 2 hard nominal; No. 3 hard, $2.69. Corn: No. 2 yellow, $2.32@2.33; No. 3 yellow, $232; No 4 yellow nominal. The oats market was a trifle stronger today with prices quoted about ¼c higher and there was an active inquiry for all grades, but the old crop samples sold a trifle more readily than the new.
