Omaha Church People Lay Plans for Entertainment of the Soldiers at Fort Omaha.

The Omaha church federation and the Young Men's Christian association are doing team work in furnishing entertainment every Friday night for the soldiers at Fort Omaha. It is planned for a church choir to go to the fort each week and entertain with an hour of singing, reading, etc. The Walnut Hill Methodist choir furnished the entertainment last week, the Swedish Mission choir will this week, and the St. Andrews Episcopal, the United Brethren, and the North Presbyterian are scheduled for early dates. Many of the churches are furnishing autos for the soldiers to attend church services. Last Sunday about sixty of the boys accepted invitations and attended morning services in various churches. Each soldier who wishes to attend is asked to file his name with the Y. M. C. A. secretary Saturday and then the information is given to the churches that the soldiers specify. The federation now has headquarters in the Y. M. C. A. building and is composed of ministers and laymen of Protestant churches of Greater Omaha. A. A. Remington is secretary; A. N. Eaton treasurer and Rev. Oliver Keve, president.

Rev. J. Walker Moddis, evangelist, is supplying the Hanscom Park Methodist church Sunday mornings during August, while the pastor is away. He has returned after eight months of meetings through the middle west, laboring in seven different states, and making two trips to the Pacific coast. He speaks Sunday morning at the Hanscom Park Methodist church on "The Christian Home and its relation to church and state."

At the United Brethren church, Nineteenth and Lothrop streets, Sunday at 11 a. m., Arthur Christner, a converted Hindoo from Calcutta, India, will speak. He was once a juggler and magician. Nine years ago he became a Christian. He will tell the story of his life and conversion. He worked with Billy Sunday, Gipsy Smith, Rev. Dr. Thorey and other evangelists.

A summer school for children here each day from 10 to 12. Handwork for the soldiers, scrap books, puzzles, wash clothes and beads are made. All children welcome. This school is held at the new property of St. Mary's Congregational church, Thirty-third and Harney streets.

Rev. Raymond J. Rutt has taken up his residence in the city and tomorrow he will begin his pastorate at the Third Presbyterian church, Twentieth and Leavenworth. Rev. Mr. Rutt was pastor of the Presbyterian church at Corning, Ia., before coming here.

Bishop Stuntz has a large number of stereopticon slides illustrating the work of the schools and churches in Asia, Africa and India, which have special interest at this time of worldwide war. The pictures are up-to-date and are said by the bishop to be the very best. They are to be shown at Walnut Hill Methodist church beginning Sunday night, with lectures by the pastor, Rev. Oliver Keve. Interspersed with these will be views of Nebraska Wesleyan, Cornell college, York orphanage, Crowell home, Methodist hospital and various local activities of the Walnut Hill Methodist church. These services begin at 8. Other services of the day as usual.

John Dale chapter Methodist brotherhood of the Dietz Memorial church, Tenth and Pierce streets, will give an old-time "social," August 14. Refreshments will be ice cream, watermelon and drinks.

DEMAND COUNTY ROADS BE PAVED

Joint Committee Meets at Commercial Club to Urge Immediate Repaving of Macadam Roads of County.

That immediate action must be taken toward the re-surfacing of the macadam roads of Douglas county, was the unanimous verdict of a joint meeting called yesterday at the Commercial club by the good roads committee of the Commercial club, Omaha Automobile club and Douglas County Federation of Improvement clubs. It was pointed out that all of the highways running out of Omaha are in very poor condition. W. E. Check, chairman of the goods roads committee of the automobile club, exhibited a letter from a Lincoln highway official, in which the official declared Douglas county's stretch of Lincoln highway "the rottenest in the state" and that Kearney has a stretch which "should make Douglas county bow her head in shame."

Foster Son Who is Support of Family is Problem for Board

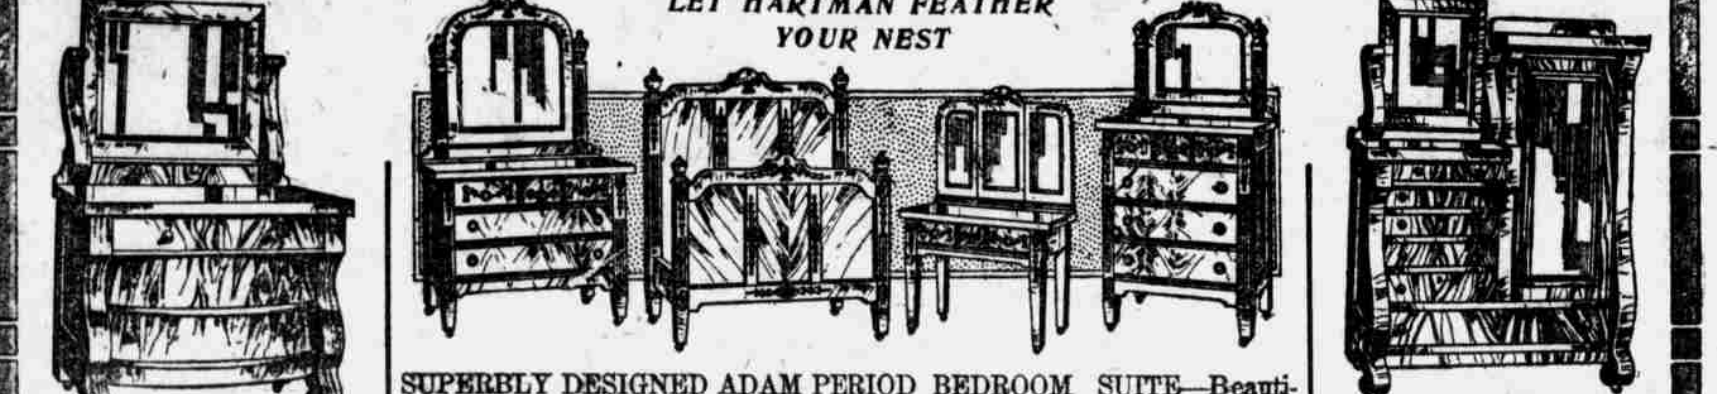

Many peculiar cases come before the exemption boards. The Sixth district board is up against a case that is not under the exemption clauses, but is far more fit for exemption than many cases allowed in the affidavits. Many years ago a woman took a small boy out of an orphan's home and brought him up with her family. He has lived with them near Benson ever since, and is now the chief support of the family, keeping the mother and two children. When the boy was taken into the family no legal procedure was gone through. He merely went to live with them. Therefore he has no relatives dependent on him, but is merely supporting some friends. The only cause for exemption in a family provide for dependant wife, child, widowed mother or a sister or brother. "The problem is a hard one to decide," stated a member of the board. An Irishman, after passing his physical examination in the Fifth district, asked for his papers to file for exemption. When asked the grounds that he expected to receive he replied that his mother and father were dependent on him. "Is there no one else in the family to take care of them?" asked the chairman. "Oh, yes, we have a large family," "I wouldn't ask exemption on those hold their demands in the present agitation. Herman Ross of Chicago, national organizer of federations of labor spoke in favor of strengthening the Bakers' union in Omaha, claiming that the men received less wages and were burdened with poorer working accommodations than other cities. Howell to See About Pipe Line to Fort Crook R. B. Howell, general manager of the city water plant, has gone to Washington, D. C., in connection with a proposed pipe line to Fort Crook, and also on a matter pertaining to his prospective service in the navy.

ADMINISTRATION FOOD BILLS TAKEN UP FOR FINAL ACTION
Washington, Aug. 4.—The senate today took up for final disposition the conference reports on the administration food control and food survey bills, both of which were adopted by the house yesterday with practically no opposition. The senate will act favorably on the reports early in the week, probably by Tuesday. Senator Gore, chairman of the agricultural committee, is expected to offer strong opposition to their acceptance.

Head Ached Constantly
Catarrh Destroyed, Smell and Taste Frequent Nose Bleed, Could Get No Relief
Mr. J. B. Reese, Habnab, Md., writes: "Two years ago I became a sufferer with catarrh, which continued to grow worse and made me miserable. I could scarcely smell at all, and my taste had almost left me. My head ached constantly, and at times had high fever and bleeding at the nose. I was a perfect wreck. I tried several doctors, but derived no relief. I read in one of your little booklets, called 'Hills of Life,' of Peruina being a remedy for catarrh, and procured a bottle at once. After the use of one bottle I felt some better, so I tried the second and the third, and now I am a well man. All praise is due Peruina."
Those who object to liquid medicines can now procure Peruina in tablet form.
