The feeders trade was fully steady and 50,960 pound feeders found a pretty good eutlet around $14.25,914.65, while two or three droves of fat lambs were bought to take back to the country at $14.00, bringing 25c or 30c more straight than the packers were willing to give for the tops. Buyers are quoting $14.75 or better on some choice 7fty-pound feeders. Several care of good ?fty-pound feeders. Several cars of good feeding ewes sold around $7.10. Tops out of the same string went to packers at $8.25, looking nearly steady, in fact there was no quotable change anywhere in fat sheep. Yearlings and wethers sold up to $10.00 to packers and handler kinds would have brought more.

WOMEN PLAN COUNTY

Douglas for War Service.

Plans for the registration of women for war services in Douglas county were discussed at a meeting of Omaha Woman' club directors, called by the president, Mrs. A. L. Fernald, acting county chairman for the State Counril of Defense, women's section. Whether the Omaha Woman's club would undertake the registration work or what other women's organizations would be asked to co-operate was a question to be determined.

"Our county organization must be completed before actual registration work can be started and workers at the polls named," said Mrs. Fernald. Mrs. Fernald does not believe the work can be started before August

30. The preliminary meeting today was held at the Y. M. C. A. The call for registration is issued by Mrs. A. E. Sheldon of Lincoln. chairman of that department, in the following letter to Mrs. Fernald:

"The Council of National Defense and its woman's committee asks for the registration of the woman power of the nation. The aim of this registration is to record in definite form the training, capacity and willingness for service during the war of as many women as can be reached throughout the country

Registration Voluntary. "This registration is voluntary. It is held so that every woman of 16 years of age or over may be given an opportunity to register for patriotic service. This is the first registration of the women of the nation ever called for and should be reponded to enthusiastically by every loyal American. Any woman registered hitherto by any other organization is asked to register under this national registration which includes all women. "In Nebraska, the women will register at the regular polling places in New York, Aug. 6.—About 1,500 each precinct on the day proclaimed by Governor Neville for this purpose. Hours of registration suggested are and advertise the hours best adapted "The success of this registration depends mainly upon the careful selection and organization of the precinct to save the ship, which went ashore registration boards. Wherever possithere July 15. The Kristianiafjord ble the aid of automobiles in getting ble the aid of automobiles in getting women to the polls should be secured. You should try hard to get every woman in your county to register. Effort should be made to secure the registration of Nebraska women temporarily out of the state on the day of
