

RAINSTORM STOPS RACING AT COLUMBUS

Ben Ali Wins Hotel Deshler Stake and Harvest Gale Takes Buckeye Colt Trot in Straight Heats.

(By Associated Press.)
Columbus, O., Aug. 8.—With two events finished and one heat of the 2:15 class pacing ended, a heavy rainstorm fell today and forced a postponement of the remaining heats of the 2:15 pace until Thursday.
The grand circuit racing card was a short one today and the two races that were completed did not furnish any thrills.
The Hotel Deshler 2:10 class pacing, purse $3,000 was won by Ben Ali. His third heat in 2:03 1/2 was equal to his record and made necessary by the flight of speed of the Pointer Queen in the stretch. The Pointer Queen went to the half in 1:01 1/2 and lead until the drive was started.
The Buckeye colt trot, open to three-year-olds, was a purse of $1,000 had only three starters, Mary Coburn having developed a temperature during the morning. Harvest Gale, the well played favorite won in straight heats. The first mile in 2:08 1/2, is the fastest mile of the year for trotters of this age.
W. L. Snow's Peter G. took the one heat raced in the 2:15 pace.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Barish Tone of Crop Report Causes Advance in Corn.
Chicago, Aug. 8.—Mustings which turned out to be correct that the government crop report although bearish would not indicate so large a yield of corn as had been generally predicted, led today to a moderate upturn in corn prices. The market closed firm, 1/2 @ 1/2 net higher, at $1.17 1/2 for December and $1.14 1/2 for May. Wheat declined 1/2 @ 1/2, closing steady at $2.25 for September. Oats gained 1/2 @ 1/2 and provisions, 2 @ 1/2.
Wary shorts in the corn market began in the last half of the session to take measures to guard against any possible surprise in the government report. As a rule the trade had been looking for an estimated yield of about 2,200,000,000 bushels, but finally concluded that this total was too high at present, as the official figures would not take account of the full benefit from recent generous rains. Then, too, there were advices from Kansas to the effect that crop in some sections had been irreparably damaged and that benefits therefore from moisture could not be general. The result there was a gradual upturn in values that much more than offset a decline, which had been witnessed in the earlier part of the day, when favorable weather and a prospect of further showers had given temporary case to the market. Discussion of dangers from frost counted somewhat as a factor in hardening quotations in the dealings near the close.
Damage reports from Kansas and evening up by shorts to prepare for any possible surprise in the government report led to a gradual advance. The close was firm at a net gain of 1/2 @ 1/2 of a cent, with December at $1.17 1/2 @ $1.17 1/2 and May at $1.14 1/2 @ $1.14 1/2.
Wheat traders failed to anticipate the falling off which the government report showed in the probable yield of wheat. The fact that harvesting had commenced in Canada tended somewhat to favor the bear side of the market. More or less depression was also due to opinions expressed that to all practical purposes the passage of the food bill would stifle business in future deliveries.
Later the market appeared to be at a virtual standstill and there was a general impression that to all purposes the passage of the food bill would result in the wheat trade being stifled. The close was steady, 1/2 @ 1/2 net lower, at $2.25 for September.

Oats rallied in sympathy with corn. Houses with seaboard connection were the best buyers. The government report as to oats was about what a majority of dealers had looked for.
Strength characterized provisions throughout the day. The chief bullish influence came from an advance of maximum prices in England. Shipments of fresh and cured meats from here were much larger than was the case a year ago.
Chicago Cash Prices—Wheat: No. 2 red, $2.41 @ $2.43; No. 3 red, $2.37 @ $2.41; No. 2 hard, $2.50 @ $2.52; No. 3 hard, $2.51 @ $2.53.
Corn: No. 2 yellow, $2.30 1/2 @ $2.32; No. 3 and 4 yellow, nominal. Oats: No. 2 white, 49 @ 50; standard, 70 @ 74c. Rye: No. 2, $1.90. Barley: $1.35 @ $1.50. Seeds: Timothy, $4.00 @ $1.50; clover, $12.00 @ $17.00. Provisions: Pork, $41.50; lard, $22.50 @ $22.75; ribs, $22.50 @ $23.75.

Travels On Its Own Track

Plows Eight to Ten Acres a Day

Cleveland Tractor

The PERFORMANCE, UTILITY and CONSTRUCTION of the CLEVELAND TRACTOR Have Amazed Fremont

Performance
Those hundreds who saw the CLEVELAND marveled at its performance.
Yesterday they saw it surmount mud filled ditches.
They saw it turn in a twelve-foot circle, without even the guiding hand of a driver.
They and other hundreds will see it pull two fourteen-inch bottom plows and with them plow up eight to ten acres a day. And this even though the land be wet and soggy.
The CLEVELAND is built to work in rain or shine. So the condition of the land to be worked is immaterial.
Wet soil or dry soil, level or hill; they are all alike. For the CLEVELAND just won't stick or mire.
It can't. Its construction makes it impossible that it should.

Utility
The utility of the CLEVELAND is almost beyond belief.
It is capable of doing a wider range of work—doing it more quickly and more economically than any tractor of its size on the market.
Make us prove this statement at Fremont. We can do it easily.
The CLEVELAND will do more work than three three-horse teams and three men.
And this not for one day, but day in and day out, under the most trying conditions.
Plowing, harrowing, discing and all kinds of stationary work are but a few of the things that the CLEVELAND can do for you, more speedily and more cheaply than you are now doing them.

Construction
The CLEVELAND travels on its own track.
It possesses six hundred square inches of traction surface, ample to haul most anything on the farm most anywhere, under nearly all conditions.
The sturdy, enduring engine of the CLEVELAND develops twenty horse power at its pulley and twelve at its draw bar.
The CLEVELAND is steered by the power of its engine.
All gears are enclosed in dirt proof, dust proof cases.
The machine weighs but 2,750 pounds.
The CLEVELAND is built to last. It will. For Rollin H. White, one of the country's foremost truck designers, builds it.
He uses only best materials—materials identical with those employed in the construction of highest grade motor trucks. And he builds it carefully.
