Hartman, cf. Kelleher, ss. Butcher, If. The Rourkes came from behind on the pesky Grizzies with much clatter and clamor yesterday with the result Mills, 16. Hartzell, 2b. McCormick, rf. that the enemy from Denver was repulsed, 6 to 4.

The Rourkes had a lot to overcome, but strong and sturdy athletes that they are, they performed the trick in noble style. In the fourth-inning Ray Hartzell startled the Rourklets by pasting a homer over the right field wall with two on the bases, but after recovering from the shock Pa's pets bent to their task and drove home enough tallies to overcome this disadvantage and win

The fourth stanza in which the op-position scored all its runs was a more or less wierd frame. After O'Toole had sent Hartman down by the strikeout route, Kelleher scratched a hit through the box and stole sec-ond. Butcher popped out to O'Toole, but Mills walked. Then Hartzell manufactured his circuit drive.

Fail to Cover Plate.

Big Moose McCormick, who seems to have reached the period of sec-ond childhood, singled to center and Shestak beat out an infield hit to-ward third. Nye's throw went wild and the Moose hiked to third on the play. After Nye hurled the pill, Brottem, O'Toole, Krug and Nye beat it for third apparently to cover the bag should Shaw throw to that station to try to nab McCormick. Coupland Says Big Wheat Acreage to Be Planted

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Aug. 10,-(Special.)-Reports on winter wheat, according to Vice Chairman George Coupland of the state council of defense, are very encouraging. Indications are that farmers are alive to the necessity of planting large acreage of fall wheat and applications for seed wheat are coming daily.

"There is a disposition to let the seed wheat go at the market price,' Mr. Coupland this morning. and there will be little effort made by farmers who have the seed to hold it for a bigger price."
