MANY SULKY STARS ENTER THE OMAHA RACES

FAMOUS PACING CHAMPIONS ENTERED IN FREE-FOR-ALL AT THE GREAT WESTERN RACES

Hal Boy, 2:011/4; Ben Earl, 2:001/2; Lillian T, 2:021/2, And Seven Other Stars Nominated to Start in Classic Event of Next Week's Meeting.

BY RUSSELL PHELPS.

At Youngstown, a few weeks ago 15,000 harness horse fans assembled to see a match race between Ben Earl, Edward Peterson's champion pacer, and Single G., a Grand circuit phenom.

In Omaha a week and a half hence, Ben Earl and nine other "big time" steppers will battle in free-for-all pace-but one of fourteen events on a four-days' program universally conceded by horsemen to be the strongest card ever presented on a half-mile track in the United States.

FOUR DAYS' PROGRAM.

The Omaha Driving club's Great Western circuit meeting at the Benson racing plant August 21 to 24, inclusive, will be the most convincing argument to the Nebraska metropolis' claim as the "Lexington of the west." Never before has such a galaxy of racing stars been lined up off the Grand circuit. The Omaha meeting will be the headline week of the season on the Great Western circuit, which takes in Peoria, Burlington, Des Moines, of Minneapolis, Milwaukee and Sedalia.

Just as there are but two really big baseball leagues, so there are but two really big horse racing circuits. The Great Western loop is one of them and the Omaha Driving club will offer the strongest card on the circuit, Grand Circuit Horses.

Nearly 250 stars have been nominated to start in the fourteen events on the four-days' program. More than $12,000 in stakes and purses is to be distributed among the winners. Every race scheduled is a classic in its class. There are several events alone which would draw the pick of the eastern horse racing fraternity on any Grand circuit track.

Otis M. Smith, superintendent of speed and one of the directors of the driving club, and Edward Peterson, president of the organization, issued the following statement yesterday:

The Omaha Driving club and the sportsmen who comprise its membership have done their part to give Omaha and the surrounding country the greatest program ever attempted in the west. It is now up to the public whether Great Western circuit, metropolitan harness racing can be supported here. The expense of promoting the coming meeting completely overshadows any previous horse but unwilling to concede him similar racing effort in the history of the middle west.

Stars in Free-for-All.

The free-for-all pace, feature event on the opening day's program, will bring together the cream of the country's stables. Each of the ten champions entered has repeatedly thrilled thousands on "big time" tracks. Horsemen and sport followers will come to Omaha from all parts of the country to see this race alone, for probably never again will such an aggregation of stars be seen on a cover. half-mile track. One of the entries of Hal Boy, 2:011/4, the biggest money winner in the United States in 1915 and recognized by experts to be one of the three or four best pacers in the country. Hal Boy is owned by Stoeten Fletcher, millionaire Indianapolis sportsman. This famous son of Hal B., also the sire of Hal McKinney, won more than $30,000 in 1915, copping the $20,000 historic pacing stake at the San Francisco exposition as a prize achievement.

It will be the first time in Hal Boy's sensational career that he has started in a Great Western circuit meeting. For the last three years his racing has been confined solely to the Grand Circuit and "big time."

Ben Earl, champion pacer of the country last year and the biggest money winner, needs no introduction to racing fans. He is owned by Mr. Peterson of Omaha and is as widely known as any star in the land. Ben Earl's mark is 2:00½. His winnings on the Grand Circuit last year totaled more than $17,000.

Expects Shattered Records.

A match race between Ben Earl and Hal Boy would draw thousands on any track in the country, and the added attraction of eight other step-pers in the free-for-all should make Omaha the mecca of fans from coast to coast. It is a certainty existing state pacing records will be shattered and a possibility that half-mile marks will be appreciably lowered.

Another entry in the free-for-all and a horse feared by the best pacers in the country is Lillian T, a 2:021 stepper, who recently went a mile over a twice-around track in 2:051/2. The winner of the Omaha free-for-all will probably have to step faster

Hal McKinney, famous pacer recently sold to Homer Ross of Milwankee by Tom Dennison, will likely grounds almost unknown. start in the free-for-all. Hal McKins ney is reported to be as good as ever, a fact, which, if true, should make the race a hard one for either the three favorites.

Famous Trotter Entered.

The Grain Exchange purse of $1, 000 on the third day of the meeting will bring together the cream of the country's 2:14 trotters. Of the twenty entries, including such stars as On-ward Allerton, May Harriman, Heir Reaper, Sweet Aubrey and Winnie Lockhart, Spriggan, owned by W. J. Lowry of San Francisco, is the outstanding favorite.

Spriggan, a 2:081/4 trotter, won the $20,000 trotting stake at the San Francisco exposition and earned a national
