JOE BURG BIG AID IN OMAHA VICTORY

Former Rourke Disguises Himself as Miner and Helps Hand Game to Pa's Pets, 8 to 3.

The Rourkes took an unfair advantage of John Savage yesterday and walloped his Joplin Miners, 8 to 3. The unfair advantage was that the Rourkes had ten players while Joplin only had eight. Joe Burg, disguised as a Miner, was one of the stars of the game for the Rourkes. It took the Rourkes one inning to get together, but when they did decide to play a little base ball, they exhibited an a No. 1 with which the Miners could not cope. Joplin made three runs in the opendently didn't realize they were in a game. Jim Park fanned Carlisle, the first man up, but Burg clouted a high fly to left center. Thompson told Miller to get it, but Ward couldn't reach it so Joe got a double. Cochran walked. Metz sent a drive against the right field fence for two bases. Score right field fence for two bases, scoring Burg and Cochran. Cochran had no business to score on the drive, but battle. Score: did. Also Metz should only have made one base instead of two. The relay was slow. Lamb hit a grounder to Nye. Nye turned around to see where Allows One Hit.

That ended it for the Miners. From at ended it for the Miners. From period on the Rourkes played. Nye is Beaned.

A walk to Miller, Shaw's single, and Yardley's sacrifice put Miller on third in the fifth. He scored when Sanders hit Nye in the bean with a pitched ball with the bases full.

Brottem and Thompson walked to start the seventh. Nye fanned, but Park sent a single to right, scoring Brottem. Thompson came home and Park galloped to third when Davis made a wide throw to the plate. Cooney's single scored Park The Rourkes and Miners clash again
