Cochran's Double and Delayed Steal, Followed by Monroe's Sacrifice Fly, Fatal to Omaha.

Pa Rourke got a haircut yesterday As a result the jinx crossed his athletes and Omaha dropped a gruelling eleven-inning contest to the Joplin Miners, 4 to 3.

There is no disputing the assertion that Pa's haircut was responsible for the defeat. The Miners got every break-in the luck and every close decision was given to the enemy by his majesty, the umps. Something must be responsible and the circumstantial evidence points to the tonsorial ar-tist's performance on Pa's bean.

Joplin got a two-run lead on Oma-ha in the fourth. With two down, Monroe singled to center and Merz walked Davis. Lamb's single scored Monroe. Merz bobbled Yardley's throw into the diamond and Davis scooted home, while the ball rolled to the granstand.

Lead Is Short-Lived.

The Joplin lead, however, was short-lived. The Rourkes made back the two runs and one to boot in the home half of the fourth. After Miller fanned, Shaw dropped a safe high fly into left. Ben stopped at first to see what happened to the pill, or he could have made second standing up. Yardley's single sent Shaw to second and Brottem's single scored him. Yardley went to second on the Yardley and Brottem got foxey and executed a nifty double steal. This caused Maple so much grief he uncoupled a wild pitch, on which Yardley scored and Tony went to third. Tony came home on Nye's hit. loplin tied the count in the eighth.

Collins, batting for Maple, walked and Cochran sacrificed. Carlisle's safety scored him. Cochran opened the fatal eleventh with a double to center. He worked a delay steal of third on Brottem and scored on Monroe's sacrifice fly to
