Hutchinson pounded Park rather soundly. McCabe's double, Benson's sacrifice and McClellan's single scored one for the Salt Packers in the opening stanza. That was plenty to cop the game, but they added one more in the third for good measure. McClel-lan opened the third with a double and scored on Faulk's single.

The Rourkes were a little crippled because Marty Krug was out of the rame. Marty was spiked in the ankle Thursday and was hobbling around on a cane yesterday. Yardley, whose reg-ular job is rightfield, filled in at short in nifty fashion, Ward Miller was shifted to right field and Woodpecker Williams, the most enthusiastic athlete in captivity, was allowed to play left field with the aid of a first baseman's mitt. Woody made a couple of swell catches with the said first baseman's mitt, too.
