during which time they are expected to teach men that will be taken out of the ranks to do the cooking. There will be a total of 280 cooks required for the Des Moines cantonment and they will be divided into two classes. Class A and Class B.

Class A men must be experienced chefs or ex-chefs. They must be claims for exemption, so have already men who have held responsible positions at good salaries and must be capable of teaching other men. These men are to receive $125 per month, free board and lodging, with transportation to and from the cantonment.

Able to Cook.

Class B men must be men who have held secondary positions. They must then?" be able to fry, roast and make stews, bake biscuits and make puddings; in other words, they must be general all around cooks. These men will receive $90 per month, board and lodging and transportation to and from the allotted time would be called for the cantonment.

Inasmuch as this request of our government is but a temporary ar- peal to the district board. rangement, every hotel and restaurant man in the United States should feel it his duty to furnish the govern- ing station, when interviewed stated: ment with one or more cooks. Anyone who knows of a cook or can furnish a cook, should notify either Mr. Letton or Mr. Miller at once, as these fight they should be assigned to labor cooks are wanted by August 25.

The securing of cooks for the cantonment is most important, as if they do not get the houses built, the men can sleep under tents; if they do not get the uniforms or shoes, they can get along; they do not have to have arms for drilling immediately, but they do have to have cooks to feed the men the first hour they arrive at the cantonment.
