

TEUTONIC ALLIES SPLIT ON PEACE

Austria Favors Pope's Plan, While German Press Scouts the Idea of Evacuating Territory Now Occupied.

Copenhagen, Aug. 18.—The German foreign office is not yet ready to announce the government's standpoint on the pope's peace proposals and an answer probably will be delayed considerably, while the four central powers are endeavoring to reconcile somewhat divergent views and interests regarding peace. A cordial article in the Cologne Gazette perhaps presages the German point of view by declaring it is the duty of all governments to support any effort at honorable mediation.

It is evident that Austria-Hungary will throw its full weight in favor of an affirmative answer to the pope's welcome proposal just as Bulgaria will flatly and vehemently oppose any acceptance of the return of occupied areas.

While the newspaper Germania, as befits its representative Catholic character, is decidedly optimistic regarding the prospects for tangible results, most papers are rather skeptical as to the chances that it will lead to anything in the immediate future. At least the pan-German papers insist that peace on the proposed basis is utterly impossible.

The Belgian Tages Zeitung in its comment says the evacuation of Belgium and all occupied regions of France is impossible just now because independent Belgium henceforth would be an irreconcilable enemy of Germany and it must be subordinated to the security of Germany's frontiers. Even the plan of the former German chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, for a Polish protectorate is rejected because the Poles have shown themselves ungrateful for favors granted them.

Plan Up to Reichstag.

London, Aug. 18.—Pope Benedict's peace proposals and the general political situation will be discussed by the main committee of the German Reichstag when it is convened August 21, according to a Berlin dispatch transmitted through Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph company.

U. S. Answer Independent.

Washington, Aug. 18.—The reply of the United States to the pope's peace note will be sent independently and not in connection with any answer from the other belligerents. At least this is the plan at this time as indicated by Secretary Lansing. A reply may not be expected until the proposal has been carefully considered.

It is generally taken to be the fact that the president will consider the opinions of the other allies in making reply and that the diplomatic representatives in Washington are exchanging the views of their governments with the States department.

Find Quantities of Food Stored in Columbus Barns

Columbus, O., Aug. 18.—Great quantities of foodstuffs being held for higher prices have been discovered hidden away in old barns and sheds by officials of the state fire marshal's office, according to a statement issued today by Alfred T. Fleming, state fire marshal.

Colored Vagrant Draws $15 And Costs; Woman to Pay

Sanford Gilispy, colored, when charged with vagrancy, plead not guilty, but could show no visible means of support.

"Do you keep a woman?" he was asked.

"No, she keeps me," was the reply.

"Well, I guess she will pay $15 and costs if she wants you very bad," drawled Judge Fitzgerald.

Widows Gasp When Told Mrs. Turpin Wed; Now Asking Divorce

Later Mrs. V. V. Paxton served in this capacity.

Other members of the board were: Mrs. Alice A. Minick, prominent club woman; Mrs. Emily Dickson; Mrs. Ada W. Hall; Mrs. Joicy O. Mickey; Mrs. Virginia E. Robinson.

MRS. ARTHUR E. ENDERS.

Mrs. C. Louise Carson, Mrs. Florence Garretson, Mrs. Effie Steen Kittelson, well known dramatic coach; Mrs. Lorena M. Beebe and Mrs. Katherine G. Bowie.

Mrs. Fatherine Drummy, policewoman, spoke at several of the widows' meetings. A list of 200 charter members was published by local newspapers, when the widows organized.

Headquarters was maintained for a while in Room 541 Brandeis building and was then moved to the Crouse block, where a sort of workshop for the widows was set up. Mrs. Turpin stated she had induced merchants to allow widows a rebate on purchases, found employment for some of them and also had given all-round welfare service. She said she received many inquiries about her society from other cities with requests that she organize the widows in those localities. A national widows' society was the dream of Mrs. Turpin, hence the name, "Society of American Widows."

Mrs. Enders is still listed in the June Omaha telephone directory as "Mrs. B. C. Turpin, 3415 Dewey Ave."

Failure as Provider.

Mrs. Enders' lawyers say in the divorce petition that she was married to her present husband at Sioux City April 20 of this year.

She alleges before their marriage he caused her to believe she would not have to make a living for herself and her three minor children any more.

But, Mrs. Enders further alleges, he proved a failure as a provider, though she says he was well able to support her and the children.

She says he is a wholesale drug salesman, capable of earning $150 a month.

Shortly after their marriage, Mrs. Enders alleges, he began to treat her cruelly. She says he was cool and indifferent and frequently swore at her, which, she declares, shocked and humiliated her.

She asks the court to restore her maiden name and grant her suitable alimony.

German Diplomat Comes to Blows With Photographers

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)

Mexico City, Aug. 1.—A clash between Heinrich von Eckhardt, the German minister to Mexico, and Mexican newspaper photographers, in which it is declared that the German diplomat came to blows with the newspaper men, enlivened the recent session of the Mexican National Commercial congress held here. Herr von Eckhardt is the man who was directed by Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, then German foreign minister, to make arrangements to bring Mexico with Japan into war with the United States. He, with other members of the diplomatic corps and President Carranza, attended the opening session of the congress.

Newspaper photographers sent to snap the president set up their cameras in the aisle close to the German minister, who was seated at the end of the row of seats to keep him as far distant as possible from the representatives of the entente allies, who occupied the same row. Von Eckhardt protested, in what the photographers described as a rough and caustic manner, that he did not intend to be annoyed by photographers, but the camera men paid little attention and photographed President Carranza and the diplomatic corps from the most available spot, which was directly behind Von Eckhardt.

When the flashlight charge exploded, say the photographers, Von Eckhardt remonstrated not only with words but with blows.

El Excelsior, in commenting on the incident the next morning, declared that a diplomat of Von Eckhardt's experience should have learned before this how to conduct himself toward the press.

to the British and French reports, did not return. The Germans claim to have accounted for twenty-six enemy airplanes.

On the western front military activity was largely confined to the Roumanian front. South of Grozdi, in southwestern Moldavia, forces of Archduke Joseph of Austria attacked the Roumanian and Russian troops, taking more than 1,600 prisoners. In the last month, according to the German general headquarters, the Austro-Germans fighting in Galicia, Bukovina and Roumania captured 42,000 officers and men, 257 guns, 548 machine guns, 50,000 rifles and a large quantity of other war material.

Russ Occupy Turkish Towns.

Fighting has broken out in the Caucasus front, both the Russians and Turks taking the offensive. The Russians in the region of Kharput, west of Lake Van, attacking for the first time since the revolution, on the Caucasian front occupied a series of Turkish villages. Further west the Turks attacked the Russians at Baneh, in the Mosul region, and forced the defenders to retire to other positions.

British light naval forces on August 16 engaged a German destroyer in the North Sea. The Teuton warship, though repeatedly hit, escaped through the mine field in a mist. Later the British warships attacked several German mine sweepers and according to a British admiral report severely damaged two of them. A German account of the naval clash says the English vessels withdrew from the engagement with all possible haste, under a well placed German fire.

ELMER B. CAMPBELL.

Elmer B. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, Twenty-sixth and Harney streets, is one of the few Omaha boys who chose to enter the aviation service while undergoing intensive training at Fort Snelling.

Young Campbell, who is 21 years old, was perhaps the youngest man enrolled at the first camp, and will take up his duties in the aviation service soon, having passed a perfect physical examination. The aviation section is an unusually hard branch of the service to enter, the tests being rigid. Elmer, who is home on a furlough, is now awaiting orders and will perhaps be sent to Columbus, O., or Toronto.

Mrs. Campbell, mother of Elmer, is one of the most accomplished knitters of the city. She made her son two sweaters while he was in training that excited the jealousy of every boy enrolled at Fort Snelling. Mr. Campbell is a well known abstract man.

Jerome D. Burger, son of Simon Burger, 2907 1/2 Dodge street, 2 years old on August 10, was struck by an automobile at the northeast corner of Thirty-fifth and Dewey avenue, driven by Carl C. Thrame, 3345 Harney street, at 6:30 o'clock Saturday night. The child was killed instantly. The car was being driven at the rate of eight miles an hour, according to Thrame, who was turning north from Dewey avenue onto a vacant lot, where he was in the habit of parking his car.

Thrame was arrested and released on a $5,000 bond, for investigation. The child's body was taken to Dodder's undertaking parlors, awaiting an inquest.

Witnesses of the accident say the child was walking along the sidewalk, twenty feet behind its mother. Thrame believes the child was lying in the grass. He says he couldn't see the baby in time to stop.
