

ALLEGED FORGER IS TRAPPED BY POLICE

Purchases Goods at Six Stores and Gives Checks Signed in Name of Dead Man.

A young man, giving the name of Lizzie Furish of Detroit, purchased goods in six of the leading mercantile stores of Omaha, Saturday afternoon. He gave checks signed by a man who has been dead two days.

He was arrested by Detective Tagle of the Burgess-Nash stores and Emergency Officer Rine of the central station as he was preparing to leave for St. Joseph.

Detective Larry Finn of the Brandeis Stores assisted in the arrest and most of the goods were recovered. The young man told the officers he had taken a book of checks from the National Plating company, together with a rubber stamp of the firm's name.

The alleged forger purchased clothing of all descriptions. He received change from practically every store. When searched he had several hundred dollars in his possession.

The known places where he cashed checks, totaling more than $100, were Brandeis, Burgess-Nash, Benson & Thorne, Browning-King, Nebraska Clothing company and the Drexel Shoe company.

He has been living at the Drexel hotel, where the remaining checks and the stamp outfit were found, together with part of the clothing. The remaining clothing was found in a pool hall where he had left his suitcase preparatory to leaving town.

Pains in the Stomach and Bowels. Owing to the great distress which this disease occasions, every family should keep at hand the proper medicine for its relief.

Mr. E. S. Snikes, Centralia, Ill., writes: "My father has kept Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house as long as I can remember, and when he has taken it, to my knowledge it has given the desired relief.—Adv."

Here's the Hanscom Park Militia Boys Training to Be the Nation's Defenders

Company D of the Munny Guards, which is composed of the Hanscom Park boys, is now completely organized. Everyone of the forty young soldiers is uniformed and drill day for them has become paramount in their life's doings.

All the minor squad and company movements have been mastered. Captain Campen is now paying special attention to the dressings and company movements, as these will count most at the training camp. Company D now has two sections. Those who enlisted since last Sunday are drilling under First Lieutenant Arthur Banan and Sergeant Floyd Stryker.

Ten new recruits have been added to the roll since the exhibition drill held last Sunday. The new material is being added to the original company as fast as they are ready to do advanced work.

Cadets Are Interested. Several high school cadets are taking a great deal of interest in the Knickerbocker company. Melvin Carlin has been made second lieutenant. Others who aid Captain Campen are Gene Rosson and Harry Hobson. Both were commissioned officers in the cadet regiment. E. E. McMillan, supervisor of military affairs at the Omaha Central High School, and Frank Guillard, commandant of the same school, have endorsed the movement.

The former said, "The recreation board never did a better thing." Mr. Guillard told the captains that any Munny Guard upon entering the high school will skip the awkward squad because of the training received in the play ground army.

Ladies Help Soldiers. Miss Ruth Rinehart, playground supervisor at Hanscom park is a very important part of Company D. She is very enthusiastic over the army. Consequently she is military supervisor morally and otherwise. She is recruiting agent and at times helps to break in the rookies. Captain Campen says that Company D simply could not do without Miss Rinehart.

Each company has a sponsor and Red Cross nurse. Miss Lillian Henderson of the South Side is the honored one. She is the one who will come to camp on visitors' day laden with goodies for the hungry soldiers. Her first work as nurse she did when the boys suffered from many jigger bites, which were received while swimming in the Papio, while they were taking their first military hike last Saturday.

Up-to-the Minute Gossip About Boys in Khaki at Omaha Camps

Company A of the Sixth has an Indian bugler. George O. White, from Walthill, is an Omaha Indian. White is well educated, being a graduate of Haskell.

Hachitaro Unsaki is the "man with the million dollar smile" of Company A. Hachitaro has bought $500 worth of Liberty bonds, which he has willed to Company A.

A Korean, Che K. Lee, is another addition to the cosmopolitan make-up of Company A.

The "Dandy Sixth" likes its cot better than drilling just now. There are a number of sore arms in the lot, the result of typhoid inoculation Thursday and Friday. Those whose vaccination did not "take" got a second dose of it. Lieutenant Frank Van Doren, United States medical examiner, did the work. He says 100,000,000 typhoid germs was the second dose for each man.

At Fort Sill, Okl., where Lieutenant Zimmerman of the Fifth machine gun company received special training last spring, the grounds include 69,000 acres. "We could shoot up the whole country and not hit anyone," he said. Lieutenant Zimmerman has been giving instruction in machine gun work to the machine gun company of the Sixth regiment, which is composed of men unfamiliar with such work.

It is reported that Corporal Ben Arriens of Company A, Sixth Nebraska, is getting married "somewhere in Nebraska" today. If the rumor is confirmed the boys of the company will meet him at the train. Corporal Arriens is a well known Omaha business man. The boys say "Barkis has been willing" for a long time, but it took a call to war to make the girl say yes.

There was a rumor current in the Auditorium yesterday that Sergeant Earl Sherwood was married. When cornered he blushed deeply and denied the allegation. "But I'd kind of like to be," he confessed. It is said Sergeant Sherwood is too bashful to pop the question.

Anybody got a base ball glove "almost as good as new" for the machine gun company of the Sixth? Captain Buehler Metcalfe believes in only half work and the other half play for his men.

"I wish every man in the company had a base ball glove," he said. "The men enjoy base ball so much and it is fine for them. Drilling is monotonous and makes them nervous. They need some exercise to keep them in condition and for this there is nothing like a fast game of ball."

"I know many fellows in Omaha have an extra base ball glove, still good, they would be glad to give to us. We would appreciate them very much. Just bring or send them to the machine gun company at the Auditorium."

MERCHANTS' NIGHT AT DEN ON MONDAY

Storekeepers From All Over State Will Come to Omaha to Be Feasted, Fattened and Frightened.

One thousand merchants from a dozen states surrounding Nebraska, are expected to be on hand for the initiation grind at Ak-Sar-Bien den next Monday night.

The merchants will be here for the first day of the Merchants' Market Week in Omaha, and Samson has issued a mandate that they be hustled into his royal castle to be feasted, fattened and tortured.

The newly commissioned officers, who have just come from Fort Snelling and other training camps, will also be at the Den. Samson has worn out several good goose quills endeavoring to write invitations to all of them, but he cannot find the street addresses of all. He sincerely hopes that those who do not get his invitation will consider themselves doubly invited and will present themselves in uniform for admission to the royal castle just as if a barrel of formal invitation had reached them by mail.

Dandy Sixth Men Invited. Those men, too, of the "Dandy Sixth" who did not have their uniforms in time last week to go to the Den with the rest of the regiment, are to be there Monday night in full uniform.

The boys of the First Iowa Engineering corps will also be present. There are some 250 of them.

Samson hopes also to bring in the English and Canadian officers who are in Omaha at the present time. He hopes to get Major Hanney of the Royal British Flying corps and his aides, and Captain Ivan Finn of the Canadian cavalry and the other attaches of his British recruiting mission in Omaha.

Again the mighty Samson is hurling across the fair temples of his city the call for the paid members to be at the castle Monday night, for it is a noteworthy body of men from first to last that will be entertained there upon this occasion. Likewise doth Samson call upon those who were faithful knights last year and who have not yet this year sworn their allegiance, to step forward, wrapped in a $10 bill and make themselves full-fledged knights this year lest the great coronation ball will take place and pass into history without the dignity of their knightly presence.

Mildred Lee Gardner Is Married to Lieut. Shrum

A wedding of military interest occurred Saturday evening at 8 o'clock when Lieutenant Winfield O. Shrum and Miss Mildred Lee Gardner were married at the home of the bride's brother, Charles R. Gardner.

The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit with a bouquet of sweet peas. The Rev. Oliver Keve performed the ceremony.

Lieutenant Shrum, who recently received his commission at Fort Snelling, will leave August 29 for Des Moines, preparatory to going into active service. Mrs. Shrum will make her home for the present with her brother, who resides at 3324 Seward

Silver Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McDermot, 2512 Maple street, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage Wednesday evening. Fifty guests were present at the party given in their honor. Several out-of-town guests were present.

FORT CROOK USED FOR SECOND DRAFT

Commercial Club Members Believe Local Camp Will Come Into Prominence When Next Call Issued.

Commercial club members last night announced that when the second conscripted army is called into training Fort Crook will be developed for the accommodation of a large body of troops.

It is thought that General Pershing's urgent request that more of the troops be trained in France and fewer in the American cantonment camps makes it unlikely that Fort Crook will be needed at once for an auxiliary camp, although confidence is felt that it will be needed later.

There seems to be a disposition on the part of the War department to consider General Pershing's recommendation and to rush large bodies of troops to France to be trained there. This will relieve the congestion at the cantonment camps and also room enough to train all those who will be kept in America for preliminary training.

The second conscripted army, it is believed, will surely overflow into the Fort Crook reservation and there is a feeling that development, such as laying of city water mains and road building programs, will have to be started here before many months.

Rahn Denies Pro-German Utterances at Springfield

George Rahn, a contractor, residing at 3910 South Twenty-fourth street, denies that he made the statement credited to him—"Germany ought to whip the United States, and I hope she will." He also denies that he was run out of Springfield, where he went to submit a bid on the new school-house to be erected there. He states that he was not at Springfield at the time mentioned and that he arrived there after the bids had been opened.

Mr. Rahn is an old resident of Omaha and has been a naturalized citizen of this country since 1886. He has a son who applied for admission to the army and who has been examined for that purpose at Fort Crook. He emphatically denies all pro-German sympathies.

Federal Officers in Texas Hold Austrian Army Men

Laredo, Tex., Aug. 19.—Four Austrian army officers, alleged to be accomplices of Captain Irving Schneider, recently arrested at San Francisco on a charge of being a German spy, were arrested by Department of Justice agents here today and placed in jail. It is said they came from San Francisco and were en route to Mexico.

Chicago Detective Bound Over to District Court

Roscoe R. Smith of Aurora, Neb., and R. W. Stanley, a private detective of Chicago, were bound over to the district court Saturday on a charge of false imprisonment, at the Castle hotel. Theodore E. Nordgren of Aurora was dismissed. Fred Luff, 1229 East Washington avenue, Council Bluffs, was the complaining witness.

The charges are the outgrowth of several suits in Hamilton county. Luff alleges that he was held in the room and an endeavor was made to force him to sign a confession that he had perjured himself in a recent criminal charge filed against him in Hamilton county. The defense contends that a friendly meeting was in progress in an endeavor to get evidence to be used in future cases to be filed by the county attorney.
