Fill Up Police Court

Following strict orders issued by Chief Dunn of the local police department to motorcycle police that unless they showed good results within forty-eight hours they would have to get out, thirty-seven speedsters, cut-out violators and bright light offenders were hauled into police court Thursday morning.

In the majority of cases where use of the cut-out and bright lights were charged Judge Fitzgerald discharged the offenders with a strict warning.

Motorcycle Officer Wade had twenty-six violators to his credit. He was stationed in the West Farnam district and was kept very busy far into the night. The unusual rush of automobile drivers occupied two hours of the court's time.

"LUCKY SEVENTH" IS READY FOR SERVICE

High School Boy Draws Poster Urging Enlisting in the New National Guard Companies in Omaha.

Orders from Adjutant General Steele at Lincoln came yesterday to Major Ray Abbott of the Seventh militia reserve, designating the companies of the Omaha Battalion as E, F, G and H. The Omaha battalion of the "Lucky Seventh" has been recruited in the last two weeks, but already it is large enough to promise that the four full companies will soon be formed.

Fred W. Higginson of Omaha has received notice of his appointment as captain of Company E. This company was mustered in last night at the recruiting headquarters, 1612 Farnam street.

"We will first be sworn into state service," said Captain Higginson. "Then we will give an exhibition of squad drills on the streets. After that we will be at Omaha's service. We will keep on with our regular business and drill at night. For awhile we will be compelled to use the streets for drilling. After the machine gun company of the Fifth leaves we will drill in the army. When needed for guard duty, to quell strikes or Industrial Workers of the World disorder, we will be on hand."

"Jimmy" Williamson, a talented young high school student, who cannot enlist because he is under the age limit, has found he can help the militia reserve now organizing in another way.

"Jimmy" is a genius at poster designing and he has drawn some remarkably fine pictures showing the reasons why Omaha boys should join the militia reserve.

Several of these are on the window of the recruiting office, 1612 Farnam street, and have attracted much attention from passersby who supposed they were the work of some of the famous eastern artists—till they looked closer and saw the signature in the corner.

One striking sketch shows a powerfully drawn soldier in the foreground pointing to a terrifying battle scene behind him. The picture is labeled:

"I'm Going Into This for You—Protect My Family."

Another poster shows a dead soldier on the battlefield, amid gruesome surroundings. Beneath this are the words:

"This Man Has Paid Your Debt to France."

"Pay Yours to Him and Protect His Family."

PARTY IS GIVEN FOR NEW ARMY CAPTAIN.

Capt. Maurice C. Johnson

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnson gave a farewell military hop for their nephew, Captain Maurice C. Johnson and Lewis G. Johnson, last evening at their home. The former was commissioned captain at the Fort Sheridan training camp and the latter will leave with the next set of men trying for commissioned officers.

The evening was spent in dancing the new dances and a number of the old ones, including the Virginia reel and a grand march. Refreshments were served, after which ever, guest was asked to give a little speech. Those present were:

Messrs. and Mesdames—
C. F. Johnson, John Larson,
E. Wickman, Richard Johnson,
John R. Young.

stable Mark Peterson, who has arrived in Omaha.

Cochran, who has been employed as a porter in the Woodmen of the World building, was arrested on advice of Portland officers. He was indicted recently by a grand jury for the murder of his infant child, which his wife alleges he burned to death in the kitchen stove.

According to newspaper reports brought to Omaha by Peterson, Cochran has a criminal record both in Oregon and Montana. They tell of his mania for killing and state that he carried a bottle of strychnine which he spread on bread and tossed to animals.

His wife secured a divorce last January and the custody of their six small children in Oregon courts.

Iowa and Nebraska Grocers Discuss Hoover Food Bill

Twenty members of the Iowa and Nebraska Wholesale Grocers' association met at the Fontenelle hotel Thursday morning to discuss how they would be affected by the Hoover food administration campaign.

A. C. Melhop of Council Bluffs, secretary of the association said: "We have received certain information from indirect sources that Mr. Hoover's committee will fix the prices on some of the staples going from the manufacturer and producer to the consumer. However, we have no idea what staples will be selected by the committee. We have met to consider how the grocery business will be affected in this territory, and from the little information that has been received, to endeavor to form the groundwork in preparation for the readjustment in the prices of food that is bound to come."

Mr. Melhop declared that the wholesale grocers are co-operating with the government in this new movement to the best of their power. "We are an organization loyal to the United States and we recognize our duty to the government. We are now awaiting definite word as to what staples will be affected and the commands of the food commission will be obeyed to the letter."
