

ROURKE ERRORS HAND COMBAT TO LINKS ON PLATE

Brotten and Yardley Conspire to Slip Game to Opposition and Conspiracy Is a Huge Success.

Omaha and Lincoln play a double-header this afternoon, starting at 2:15 o'clock.

Otto Merz and Marty O'Toole will lead for Omaha, while Gregory and Halla probably will pitch for the Links.

Pa's Pets deliberately handed yesterday's game to the lowly Links. The Links were reluctant to accept it, but they were finally forced to do so, 3 to 2.

For five innings Jim Park and Dutch Meyers staged a pretty hurling duel and Omaha had a one-run advantage. All was well until the sixth, when Toy Brotten and Fin Yardley conspired to slip the game to the Links. Their conspiracy was a huge success, although Yardley had to put on the finishing touches again in the eighth. Bayless opened the sixth with a single. Lober flew out to Miller. Berghammer singled through second and Bayless took second. Effert followed Berghammer at second, but Bayless took third on the out. Effert started a steal of second. Brotten made a false motion to throw to second and Bayless darted for home. Tony turned around and had Bayless caught flat-footed. But instead of throwing to third, Tony let the pill slip from his fingers and it rolled ten feet away while Bayless started home again and made it.

Two Errors by Yardley.

Selk then hit a grounder to Yardley. This should have ended it, but Yardley bobbed the grounder and Selk was safe. Effert rounded third and kept coming home. Yardley fielded the ball too long and then hurled it into the dirt at Brotten's feet with the result that Effert scored.

In the eighth, Bayless walked and was sacrificed to second. Yardley's error sent him to third and he scored on Effert's hit.

Omaha scored one in the first inning on a walk to Cooney. Williams' sacrifice and Miller's double. Miller's triple and a fielder's choice scored the other Rourke tally in the seventh. The real feature of the game, however, was the umpiring, the one named Daly, new to these parts. Daly is a great show. He calls the athletes "Mister," religiously announces each one as he comes to the plate and his voice is a gem. It is a stentorian bellow with a G echo attached. Mr. Daly also has a cute way of swinging his right when calling a strike. Daly alone is worth the price of admission.

Omaha Gas Bike Riders to Stage 100-Mile Event

A 100-mile gas bike race will be staged at the East Omaha speedway September 9 by the Omaha Motorcycle club.

The century race will be for the championship of Nebraska and a prize of $200 has been hung up for first prize. The fastest riders in Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Missouri and South Dakota are expected to take part.

This event will be held on the board speedway, which is now being repaired. The surface of the wooden oval was damaged considerably by the automobile races July 4, but all of the breaks will have been repaired in time for the pop-pop program.

Twin-cylinder machines will be used and several special speed creations are being tuned up by local stars who hope to keep the championship in Omaha. It is believed the race will be the fastest ever run in this part of the country.

In addition to the championship, three events for single-cylinder machines will be held on the board speedway. These will be a five-mile sidetrack race and ten and fifteen-mile solo events.

Junior Tennis Tourney At Field Club Tomorrow

The annual junior city tennis tournament starts on the courts of the Omaha Field club tomorrow. The proceeds will be given the Omaha chapter of the Red Cross.

The junior tournament is open to any boy in the city 18 years old or under. Howard Green ranks as the favorite to capture the junior title although Will Melson is expected to give young Green a stiff contest for honors.

In conjunction with the junior event, the annual "kid" tournament will be staged. This is open to boys 15 years old or under. Stuart Summers and Dick Wagner are favorites in this division.

Coast League is Anxious To Take Over Seattle Club

The Pacific Coast league can invade Seattle, Wash., without infringing on the rights of the Northwestern league, according to a statement made by Manager McCredie of the Portland club. "The explosion of the Northwestern league has left Seattle open to the Coast league," said McCredie. "It would be a splendid idea to see a Coast league team there, as it would cut down the railroad expenses of teams visiting Portland."

Yankees Still Willing to Pay Big Coin for Stars

That the New York American league club is still willing to pay the big money for players is shown by the purchase from Baltimore of Pitcher Herb Thormahlen, outfielder Bill Lamar and Second Baseman Bill Fewster. The deal meant the closing of an option on Lamar for $5,000, of that Thormahlen and Fewster bring $7,500 each, taking it for granted that Jack Dunn's statement that he got $20,000 out of the trio is correct.

BOWLERS PREPARE TO GET UNDER WAY

Woman's, Union Pacific and Huntington Leagues Already Organized; Loch Leagues Form Today.

Omaha pin tumbler are beginning to prepare for the opening of the 1917-18 season.

Three leagues already have organized for the year and half a dozen more are expected to complete their organization this week. A dozen leagues are expected to be rolling regularly by September 20.

The Woman's Bowling league will open the season September 19. J. J. Isaacson, recreation director for the city, was elected president of the league; Dad Huntington, vice president, and Miss Lucetta Miller, secretary.

The women's league will bowl on Wednesday nights. Six teams comprise the loop. The six teams holding franchises are Omaha Towel Supply, Burgess-Nash, Sweet Shops, Marsh-Overland, American State bank and Herzberg Toggery.

A six-team league has been formed by employees of the Union Pacific. M. L. Miller, who was president of the Union Pacific base ball league, was elected to the same office in the bowling loop. George Stours was elected secretary and J. L. Coulton, treasurer.

The Huntington league will start the season's play September 17. Dad Huntington was elected president of this league and J. McQuade, secretary-treasurer. Swifts, Overlands, Neilsons, Ostronics, Opticians, Ernie Holmes, Eagles, Stylers, Union Outfitting company and Loose-Wiles teams have applied for franchises in the league.

A bowlers' meeting will be held today at the new Loch alleys, 1416 Harney street, where at least two leagues and possibly three or four will make their headquarters this year. The Omaha league is expected to organize shortly and Farnam alley leagues are due to elect officers and select opening dates soon.

Honolulu to Stage Great Marathon Relay Contest

Honolulu is arranging plans for a marathon run in which the participants will carry a message from Father Neptune, god of the sea, to Pele, the goddess of volcanoes. The race will make the start from the bay of Hilo where the first relay of runners will each be handed a message by Neptune. The finish will be at the rim of the active volcano Kilauea, thirty miles distant, where one of Hawaii's fair daughters, assuming the role of Pele, will take Neptune's message from the first man of the last relay to reach her.

The runners will pass through sugar and pineapple plantations, forests of ferns and palms, they will run past streams from which steam jets issue, and holes spouting geysers. Incidentally, in order to reach their destination, they will be climbing to a height of 4,400 feet above the sea level. Runners from all parts of the various islands are expected to compete.

Leon Cadore Passes Army Exam With Flying Colors

Pitcher Leon Cadore of the Brooklyn Dodgers passed the examination for the army with a high percentage, claimed no exemption and said he is anxious to fight. President Ebbsen probably will declare a holiday in his honor.

John McGraw has had Walter Holke change his batting style. The Giants' first baseman chokes his bat instead of swinging. He's hitting around .270 at that style, whereas he hit .340 and better last fall.

Omaha Mat Fans Snicker Out Loud As Bear Stories Come from Dodge

Bear stories, which have begun to trickle into Omaha from Dodge county, the home of Joe Stecher, are giving Omaha mat fans something to snicker at.

The said bear stories contain the information that Joe Stecher is treating his forthcoming match with Marlin Plestina, Omaha's heavyweight champion, at the Auditorium Labor day night, lightly and is not losing any sleep or exerting himself in his training.

These yarns say Stecher is making no perceptible effort to train, but is content with a little exercise now and then. Unless Stecher puts on a sudden burst of steam soon and gets down to business, the reports say, Joe will be in poor shape for a gruelling contest such as Omaha fans believe Plestina will give him.

CADDOCK GOES TO WYOMING TO REGAIN HEALTH

Wrestling Champion Reported to Be Sick as Result of Infections from Bad Ton-sils and Teeth.

Earl Caddock, world's champion wrestler, is headed for Thermopolis Springs, Wyo., for his health.

Caddock is reported to be a sick man. His system has become infected with poison and he finds it impossible to take on weight. Considerable apprehension over Caddock's physical welfare is felt in the Caddock camp.

Caddock conducted an exceedingly busy wrestling campaign last winter. He wrestled in all between October 15 and March 15 probably a score of matches. He followed this with a stiff three weeks of strenuous training preparatory to his match with Stecher April 9.

Then, following his victory over Stecher, the champion found himself in such demand that he wrestled a match every ten days or two weeks until the hot weather of June arrived, when it was noticed that he had begun to lose weight and run down generally.

This caused a turn in Caddock's mind and the champion was immediately ordered to take a vacation while his managers called off all his matches. It was believed the summer rest was all that he needed and that he would again be fit as a fiddle when fall rolled around.

But contrary to expectations, Caddock failed to gain any weight during his rest and when he was examined at Atlantic, Ia., for the draft he was refused because poison from his tonsils and bad teeth had polluted his entire system.

This gave the Caddock camp more worry and Earl was immediately packed off for Omaha for a diagnosis. He was given a three-day examination by Dr. A. Sacks, who is said to have found his condition so alarming that he recommended Caddock consult Dr. Murphy, the famous Chicago specialist and then go to Thermopolis Springs for treatment there.

Caddock's system has become so tainted by the poison from his tonsils and teeth that he finds it impossible to gain a pound, but on the other hand quite rapidly loses weight, which he cannot regain. It is said he has become so run down it would be folly for him to attempt a match with a formidable opponent.

It is hoped, however in the Caddock camp that the baths and treatment at Thermopolis will bring about the desired result, and that the champion will regain his strength. How long this will take, though, is problematical and it is believed it will be several months, at least, and perhaps well into the winter before Earl will dare attempt a championship match.

Notre Dame Announces Coming Foot Ball Schedule

Notre Dame, Ind., Aug. 25.—The Notre Dame foot ball schedule was announced today as follows:

September 25, Ripon college at Notre Dame.
October 6, Kalamazoo college at Notre Dame.
October 13, Wisconsin at Madison.
October 20, Nebraska at Lincoln.
October 27, South Dakota at Notre Dame.
November 3, Army at West Point (contingent).
November 10, Michigan Aggies at Notre Dame.
November 17, Morningstar at Sioux City, Ia.
November 24, Washington and Jefferson at Washington, Pa.
A practically new foot ball machine will have to be developed by Coach Harper. The majority of last year's squad has been taken into the army, many having won commissions at training camps.
In place of the annual classic with the army team a game is being organized to be played in Chicago. An all-star team recruited from the Great Lakes naval training station or from Fort Sheridan, Ill., is being considered.

Castoff Red Sox Hurler Now Army Drill Master

Nine years ago, when the Red Sox were training in Texas, one of the youngsters who was trying to land a job as pitcher was A. B. Hoffman. When he was informed he was not of big league ability he joined Uncle Sam's army. This summer when the Red Sox asked for a drill master, the man who had failed to make good as a pitcher with that team was detailed by the War department to instruct the club in military tactics.

Matty Draws $12,000 to Manage the Cincy Reds

Some data on players' salaries was brought out in the testimony of August Herrmann, as chairman of the national commission, in the suit of Vincent Campbell to collect salary from the backers of the former Newark Federal league club. Herrmann testified, when asked about salaries of players and managers, that Mathewson draws $12,000 as manager of the Reds, and that Herzog drew $10,000, and that the salary of Hal Chase is $8,000.

Chicago Sandlot Player Makes Good With Pirates

Chicago admirers of Adam Debus have been cheering him on in the series between Cubs and Pirates. The youngster got his start with a Knights of Columbus team in Chicago and has a large circle of admirers in that order. Incidentally he looks every inch a ball player, judged by his work with the Pirates.

Three Washington Stars Ask Exemption From Army

John Henry, Joe Judge and Eddie Foster, caught in the first draft, all ask exemption. Henry passed the physical test with high rank, but asked to be let go on the ground that he has wife, father and mother dependent on him.

Notes of Interest to Western League Fans

Morris Schick, sent back to the Chicago Cubs by Omaha, has been shipped to Richmond, Ind., in the Central league. Des Moines at St. Joseph.
Stuffy Stewart quit the Denver team to report to a detachment of the 670th National Guard. Stuffy is a sergeant.
Dickerson, it is said, is looking with longing eyes to the Tri-cities of Day report, Rock Island and Moline as a likely spot for a Western league franchise next year.
The twenty-one-inning game played by Joplin and Lincoln was not the longest in the history of the Western league. Sioux City and Wichita played twenty-two innings four years ago.
Paul Musser, Des Moines hurler, has fanned 275 batters so far and is likely to mark up a new record for the season. His feat of hitting twenty-two men in a seven-inning game also will get into the record book.
Gus Williams, Omaha boy playing with Louisville in the American association, is pouncing the cover off the ball. In a recent double-header Gus made seven hits in eight trips to the plate. He is lead-off man on the Louisville team.
The first city at St. Joseph upon the return of that city to the Western league showed an attendance of 3,528 in four games, including a Saturday and Sunday. Some improvement over Sioux City, at least.
Runners persist that the American association is due to split next year and a new western circuit to be organized. Omaha, St. Joseph, Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Milwaukee are spoken of as proper cities for the new loop.
Ray Miller, first sacker for the Rourkes last year, is in the big show again. Ray is playing for the Pirates. Miller made a jump from Oakland to the copper country, then returned to have him, however, but Pittsburgh, in need need to get a first baseman, took him.
Willie Lee Crosby, former Rourke, who is now out-acting for St. Joseph, has not missed starting a game all season. He finished last but two. He was once chased by an umpire and another time forced to retire on account of a slight injury. Willie Lee has been called for the draft.

LINDLEY MURRAY WINS NET TITLE

Former Californian's Power Proves Too Much for N. W. Niles of Boston in National Tennis Finals.

Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 25.—R. Lindley Murray of Niagara Falls, N. Y., formerly of California, defeated Nathaniel W. Niles of Boston, in the final round of the National Patriotic singles lawn tennis tournament here today, in a four-set match, by scores of 5-7, 8-6, 6-3, 6-3. Murray's smashing and driving tactics, combined with his endurance and court generalship, proved too much for the well balanced but not particularly aggressive play of Niles.

Niles made his best showing in the first two sets, the first of which he won after deuce had been called and the second which he lost, after even a longer and more grueling struggle. From that point on Murray began to force ahead and scored game after game in rapid fire order. In many respects Niles showed a more finished example of tennis play and stroking, but he never rose to the height of power or the degree of endurance shown by his conqueror.

Niles won the opening set at 7-5, although he had considerable trouble in handling Murray's slashing service. Point score, first set: Murray..... 4 3 0 4 1 4 2 4 0—36-5 Niles..... 2 4 2 3 2 4 4 2 4—35-7

Murray won the second set at 8-6, after a great exhibition of service and smashing in the final game, when the score stood 40-15 in Niles' favor. Point score, second set: Murray..... 4 4 4 5 5 2 2 1 4 1 4 6—48-8 Niles..... 1 0 1 4 5 3 5 4 2 4 0 4—41-8

Murray won the third set at 6-3. Niles appeared to tire under the fast pace necessary to keep up with Murray's persistent rushing tactics and returns. The former Californian refused to let any shot go by without trying for a return, with the result that he forced rallies into long-drawn-out volleying duels. Point score, third set: Murray..... 4 4 4 4 5 2 4 4—32-6 Niles..... 6 3 2 7 4 1 2—28-6

Murray won the fourth set and match at 6-3. Niles reponed his attack on Murray's backhand with but indifferent success. He did better with his short fore-court returns, which brought Murray close to the net, where Niles slipped passing shots through his dense netting the score stood two games all. Murray then worked a change of pace, which threw his opponent off his footing and the Bostonian began to net and out while Murray ran the score up to five games to two.

Niles, in his endeavor to pass Murray, either at or on his way to the net, drew his strokes so fine that he repeatedly netted the ball. He took the eighth game after deuce had been called, however, with an exhibition of perfect placement shots which were absolutely unreturnable. It was his last effort, however, for with Murray serving, Niles appeared to lose control of his strokes again, and making four errors, lost the game, set and match. The point score, fourth set: Murray..... 4 4 4 3 2 7 4 1 2—38-6 Niles..... 1 4 0 0 1 4 0 0 1—18-3

For once in his erratic career the fiery son of Ptoleus was "in the pink." He took the lead in the first heat and kept it, surprising everyone by not blowing up.

"The second heat looked like Helen Chimes' until the finish, but she 'died' at the wire and Bezy, driving a pretty heat, abouted the old campaigner under the wire a winner. The time of the second heat was 2:06 1/4—mighty fast. Columbia Fire stepped the last half-mile in 1:02 1/4.

The old fire horse annexed the next heat in the same steady way, outpacing Helen Chimes at every stage of the twice-around. Bezy's animal went the last heat in 2:07 1/2 and seemed to have lots of speed left.

Another favorite tasted defeat in the 2:17 trot. Every starter was an outsider and only one of them hailed from Nebraska. Habara, sired by George Muscovite, looked like the goods before the battle. She is a Missouri mare owned by a Sedalia horseman. She was odds-on favorite.

The first heat proved a tilt between Dexter Sym, a son of Symboler, an Ohio horse; Habara and Fred R., a Nebraska gelding sired by Mytolus. Habara had a shade the lead up to the wire on Dexter Sym when she broke, letting Dexter Sym win by a winner. Fred R. was third.

Habara started out to win in the second heat and would have won it not for a blowup on the home stretch. She ran under the wire and the judges placed her fourth in the heat. Dexter Sym was placed first and Lila Lac, an Iowa mare by Garnet Lac, second. Fred R. got third in the shuffle.

The final heat was a comparatively easy one for Dexter Sym, who had earned the race by this time. Lila Lac finished second in the windup heat and Habara third. First money in the race went to Dexter Sym, second to Lila Lac, third to Habara and fourth to Fred R. Symboler's son stepped the first and third heats in 2:11 1/2 and the second in 2:12 1/4.

A dandy race day marked the wind-up of the Omaha Driving club's Great Western circuit meeting. The weather could have been a little warmer and the crowd a little larger, but taken all in all, it was a getaway afternoon ending in the proverbial "blaze of glory."

"A fine meeting and excellent support by the public," was the unanimous expression of Otis M. Smith, superintendent of speed, secretary and one of the directors of the driving club; Edward Peterson, president, and the rest of the officials.
At the close of the afternoon's sport the judges announced that, while they were convinced Bobola and Wagner were not drivers to win in Thursday's 2:27 trot, they would not impose any penalties. The matter was dismissed. Bobola and Wagner were starters in the race, which took seven heats to decide a winner and in which three drivers were unseated and rebuked by the judges.

Wallace Joins Clan of Eulogizers of Hornsby

Bobby Wallace, who has seen them all come and go, has taken a great fancy to Rogers Hornsby since joining the St. Louis Cardinals. Wallace is credited as saying that Hornsby is one of the best natural hitters he ever saw, barring none in his twenty years' of knowing them.
