NEBRASKA PICKS UP HOGS FROM KANSAS

Call for Help From Sunflower Farmers Who Disliked Selling Immature Stock, Heard by Many.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Aug. 25 .- (Special.)-The State Board of Agriculture today issued the following bulletin on the situation as regards the deal between Nebraska corn and Kansas hogs:

"The work of the Nebraska State Board of Agriculture in interesting Nebraska farmers in Kansas shoats, forced upon the market by the failure of Kansas' corn crop, is, indeed, gratitying. A worthy effort, it is said, needs no reward, but a reward has been had already in the success of this effort.

"A short time ago Secretary E. R Danielson of the Nebraska State Board of Agriculture received a letter from Secretary J. C. Mohler of the Kansas State Board of Agriculture stating that the Kansas corn crop was a failure and that Kansas hog men were soon to be forced to sell their young pigs. With the shortage of food throughout the country, it seemed a shame that this immature stuff should be placed upon the market-in fact, it had become imperative that it be matured that our supply of pork might not be lessened. He suggested that perhaps the State Board of Agriculture in Nebraska might be able to interest some Nebraska farmers in the matter and save these pigs. The whole thing was up to the neigh-boring states, he said-states which had a good corn crop.

"Immediately Secretary Danielson started a publicity campaign through- before, according to Chief Justice out the state, giving as wide notice to the makter as possible. All of the several days columns of matter were

"The result has been a deluge of the state-and they are still coming. Some Nebraskans have taken several carloads. Others have pooled together and sent in their orders. As fast as received the orders or requests for further information have been forwarded to Secretary Mohler at Topeka, Kan., where he has put all parties in touch with the distressed Kan-

"While many, many orders have been received, let it not be thought that the work is all done. Kansas is one of the largest hog producing General Steele of Lincoln will probcommunicate with Secretary Mohler at the earliest moment and get the matter settled. It is a very worthy matter settled. It is a very worthy matter settled. It is a very worthy effort and, let us add even more emphatically, it will be a very profitable

STATE FAIR BOOMS; ENTRY LIST HEAVY

Secretary Danielson and Office passed by the board: Staff Move to Grounds at Lincoln to Prepare for Exposition.

(From a Staff Correspondent)

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 25 .- (Special.) -With the State Fair only a week away there is every indication that the coming exposition will be not only a big affair, but one of the biggest ever held by the association.

Entries are filling up fast in every line. The stock exhibits are going to be greater than ever. The races are already assured as being the best the fair has ever had and the inovation of having a real live big circus free to all who patronize the grandstand and bleachers is stirring up interest all over the state.

Secretary Danielson and his large force of assistants moved from the state house to their quarters at the fair grounds today and from now on the fair ground activities will be carried on night and day.

The buildings have been repaired and given a coat of paint in and out so that the people who come to the fair will be at once struck with the cleanliness and brightness of the
