Summer Complaint. During the hot weather of the summer months some member of almost every family is likely to be troubled with an unnatural looseness of the bowels, and it is of the greatest importance that this be treated promptly, which can only be done when the medicine is kept at hand. Mrs. F. F. Scott, Scottville, N. Y., states, "I first used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as five years ago. At that time I had a severe attack of summer complaint and was suffering intense pain. One dose relieved me. Other members of my family have since used it with like results."—Advertisement.

SOUTH SIDE

SOCIAL SETTLEMENT PROUD OF EFFORTS

Week of Carnival Ends With Talk by Mayor Dahlman and Display of Garden Truck.

"When we started our social settlement work on the South Side I hoped we would have good results, but I never dared hope for as good results as we have obtained," said Mrs. Draper Smith, head of the institution.

"Our gardens have been wonderfully successful. We have taught the women how to sew. We have helped the girls to make their own hats at low cost, and yet feel that what we have done is only a small beginning of the things that we will do."

A carnival was held at the settlement house, 2827 Q street, last week. The garden products were brought in and piled in the windows on display. There were potatoes, big and thin skinned, beets so big that it would make your arm ache to carry one, and carrots, and cabbage heads so big you could hardly lug one of them in both arms, and baskets of onions and strings of green peppers and baskets of tomatoes.

Display Work of Girls. The work which the girls have done is also on display. It is not mere exhibition articles that are shown, but real "honest-to-goodness" garments that are of practical use to the little girls who have been taught how to make them.

Some time ago the M. E. Smith company said: "We have a lot of samples of cloth here that usually go to waste. I wonder if you could use them in making quilts."

The pieces were accepted gladly, but they are not being used for quilts. Pretty gingham and percale into quilts when the little girls need dresses? No, indeed! To be sure, the samples are only scraps, only ten inches square; but the little South Side misses do not mind working hard for a new dress, so they piece these samples and match them and sew them all together until the result is a brand new dress. Only a close inspection would ever reveal the fact that it is only a "sample" dress.

Camp Fire Girls Visitors. The camp fire girls from all over the city visited at the settlement house on the South Side Tuesday evening and held a drill and a concert. Each camp fire girl is planning on giving a soldier a pound of beans that she has raised herself. This is a part of the bit she is doing for her country.

The boy scouts gave a drill Thursday night. The South Side boy scouts hope to have their uniforms soon.

Professor Johnson of the South Side High school brought his orchestra down Friday evening and gave a musical program. Mrs. H. Jolly supervised a play which was given by her class of children, the Bluebirds.

Some of the children in the program took the part of little Dutch Cleasner girls. The costumes were furnished by Cudahy & Co.

Prizes for Garden Truck. Prizes for the best garden truck were awarded Saturday evening. Mayor Dahlman was present and spoke. They were:

Vacant Lot Gardens—First, cultivator, Mrs. L. Friedman; second, $5, John Krefetz; third, $3, Mable Winkler.

Home Gardens—First, $5, Helen Lavant; second, $4 in garden tools, Robert Kinner; third, $2, Agnes Stefanski.

A Tom Thumb wedding was given Saturday evening, little 4-year-old Mary Cussin was the bride. John Hurley, 5308 South Thirty-third street, aged 5, was the groom. His sister, Gertrude, aged 7, was the bridesmaid, and his brother, Dan, aged 10, performed the marriage ceremony.

Maurice Howard is in charge of the settlement gardens and is the leader in all of the boys' activities. Mrs. W. J. Wirts has charge of the work with the girls. She is assisted by a number of the young society girls of Omaha who volunteer their services.

The garden committee is: Mrs. Draper Smith, Mrs. Lowrie Childs, Mrs. Luther Kountze, Mrs. J. H. McMullen and Paul McAulley.

The advisory committee is: R. C. Howe, M. R. Murphy, C. B. Spangler and Everett E. Buckingham.

South Side Speeders Are Rebuked in Court—"You're flirting with death when you disobey the traffic ordinances," said Prosecutor Fred Anheuser in South Side police court Saturday morning to twenty persons who were arrested for violating the speed laws or the light ordinance.

Peter Ault, 5524 South Twentieth street, was arrested for speeding while he was taking Joseph Michalls, 3601 Harrison street, to the coroner's inquest where a jury was deciding the cause of the death of Frank Mitchell, who died from injuries received when he was struck by the car which Michalls was driving. Ault said they were driving fast so they wouldn't be late to the inquest. He was fined $2.50 and costs.

One woman was arrested. She gave her name as A. Weiss. She smiled at the officials and explained that she did not know that the law requires glass dimmers on the lights.

Police Judge Madden looked out of the window and gave his decision firmly: "Two dollars and fifty cents and costs."

"I don't have so much money and I can't get it," said the woman. "When she was told that it was either pay or go to jail, she obtained the money and paid her fine."

Stanley Zager, 3001 Q street, was fined $7.50 and costs for speeding. "He uses Q street as a speedway," testified Officer Robey, who is making a special effort to stop speeding on Q street.

Dick Rhyno and George Clarke of Council Bluffs were each fined $5 and costs for exceeding the speed limit. E. N. Strahl of Ralston, A. A. Alexander of Plattsmouth, Rudolph Rothlof, Twenty-third and D streets, and John Kruelck, 2915 R street, were each fined $1 and cost for violating the tail light ordinance or running their cars with the cut-out on.

Three South Side Brothers Join Uncle Sam's Army

Three of the five sons of Mr. and Mrs. Eloy Nilsson, 3932 South Twenty-eighth street, have enlisted in the United States army. The brothers enlisted in the same regiment, the Kansas-Missouri-Colorado ammunition train, now stationed at Rosedale, Kan., just outside of Kansas City.

These boys are maintaining the ideals of their ancestor. They are descendants of the old Norse warriors. Their mother, Mrs. Mary Jewett Harter Nilsson, can trace her descent to Mary Chilton, the first woman who stepped off the Mayflower.

The boys are: R. A. Nilsson, aged 24 years; Carl Nilsson, 26, and E. L. Nilsson, 33.

South Side Girls Must Do Some Gymnasium Work

Principal Edward Huwaldt of the South Side High school has planned an extensive program of expansion for the coming year.

"The great problem here on the South Side," said Mr. Huwaldt, "is to connect the school work with the interests."

"We want to fit students for life. Only a small per cent of our pupils ever go to college, so, as far as possible, we want to fit them so they can earn their living. We want some academic work and we want to teach the ideals of life, but we also hope to make our teaching practical."

"Hitherto the school has been behind in industrial work. I hope to co-operate with the industrial life of South Side. The boys in the manual training department will take up automobile work. As long as there are any fruits to dry the girls in the domestic science department will use the new municipal drying plant to dry foods. I only wish we could have a branch bank and a branch post-office."

Twenty-five boys from the South Side High spent their vacation working on farms. Mr. Huwaldt kept in close touch with them and they will be given some school credit for their work.

All of the freshmen girls must take gymnasium work this fall. This work has always been optional before, but the teachers contend that if it is left to the wishes of the students only the big strong girls register for it and the weaker girls who really need the physical training, are timid and do not enter in the gymnasium work.

Curtainment in Rail Service To State and Other Fairs

Anticipating that the railroads of the country are going to have their carrying capacity taxed to the fullest extent handling soldiers and war supplies, the Railroad War board has sent notice to all of the officials, as follows:

"The season of state and other agricultural fairs is approaching, and we call your attention to the fact that they come at a time when the railroads will certainly be called upon by the government for a maximum of passenger service. It will, therefore, probably be physically impossible to supply the coaches and special train service for the state fairs this year in the way they have been supplied in the past. In fact, in places there may be difficulty in maintaining at the time regular service on account of the extraordinary call by the government for passenger equipment."

"We suggest, therefore, that you bring this situation to the attention of the railroads serving state fairs in your territory and propose to them that they put the authorities of the state fairs on notice that the usual special passenger service will not be available this year."

College Students Make Money During School Term

As ample proof of the popularity of the young woman with even a partly finished business education, the Van Sant School of business reports that during the last three months the daily attendance records show that about four-fifths of the advanced members of class of the school are employed in substituting work.

The curious result of this was that the school itself did not have a sufficient number of typists to get out the summer advertising, and for the first time in twenty-six years, all school advertising went out addressed in long hand by city school teachers whom Miss Duffy pressed into vacation service.

The earning power of pupils is increasing monthly. During last month pupils' earnings on short time work amounted to $2,500 and earnings between January 1 and the present, on this class of work amounts to $2,250.80. This may offer encouragement to those wanting to help themselves secure a business education.

Boyles College Fall Term Starts September Fourth

A record-breaking year from the standpoint of student attendance at Boyles' college, is expected, according to H. B. Boyles, president of the institution.

"The institution," says Mr. Boyles, "has felt it could render no greater patriotic service at this time than to put forth its best efforts toward persuading young men and women to enter the badly depleted business ranks."

"Business concerns are being hardest hit right now, due to so many young men joining the army and navy, being drawn from the minor positions such as bookkeepers, office assistants, accountants, stenographers, telegraphers, etc."

"Very few people have realized that the draft ages of 21 to 31 years, catch a larger percentage of young men in office positions than probably any other occupations."

Omaha Clergyman Puts In a Most Busy Day

Did it ever occur to you how many different events make up the day's work of a well-loved minister in a metropolitan parish? Friday was a busy day for Rev. Thomas J. Mackay, for from 10 o'clock in the morning, when he was called to conduct the funeral services of Mr. Frank J. Sutcliffe, a former employe of The Bee, until 11 o'clock at night, when he was called from bed to perform the marriage ceremony of a soldier and his bride, he was busy with the joys and sorrows of his parishioners.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon he officiated at the baptism of the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Sobotker. At 4 o'clock he conducted the funeral services of Mrs. Lois Brown Jonett, wife of Lieutenant Jonett of Fort Omaha.
