Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 27.—Peace and Pope Benedict's proposal to the belligerents that a way be sought to end hostilities are expected to occupy an important place in deliberations of the sixteenth annual convention of the American Federation of Catholic so- cieties, which began here today to continue until Wednesday. Federation officials today predicted that the pontiff's proposal would be indorsed, but said they expected it would be entirely along broad lines. They characterized as absurd reports the convention might urge the Amer- ican governent to accept the pro-	pers publish 1.c exception rather than the rule. For instance, a dispatch may report an unpatriotic utterance by a man in some town, but nothing is aid about 999 others, who are pa- triotic. Of course, it is the duty of papers to call attention to unpatriotic utterances in orer those guilty may be punished, but the fact that they do not give the number of the patriotic may lead to a false impression as to public utterances.
