THE BEE: OMAHA, FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1917.

By MELLIFIC'A-Aug. 30

Parish Revels at Lawn Fete.

who has been the guest of Miss Erna Five hundred people thronged the Hadra, leaves tonight for her home. Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Hadra expect grounds around St. Cecilia's pro-cato remain at their Carter lake cottage thedral last evening at the opening of until October. . two-night lawn fete for the benefit of the cathedral. Dozens of electric from Clear Lake, Ia., where he spent lights made the scene bright and most of the summer at his summer . lighted the gay booths where the ner will remain some time longer. young women's sodality and the married women of the church sold everything from candy to handkerchiefs.

City and other eastern points. While The young women conducted a there he spent two weeks as the country store, where they sold groguest of Mr. and Mrs. Max Landow, ceries, coffee and all kinds of provi-sions. Mr. Thomas Swift became the former Omaha residents, in Ocean City, Md. fortunate possessor of a plackage of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Post arrived at Camp Curry in the Yosemite valley hardtack from this flourishing store. The married women's bazar con-Saturday.

tained every sort of dainty needle-Dr. C. L. Swanson left Wednesday work, aprons, camisoles, guest townight for Fort Riley, Kan., to enter els, handkerchiefs, knitting bags and the medical reserve corps. a number of handsome articles such as a cutglass water set and a large turn from a two months' trip to Califlower vase ,or urn, contributed by Mrs. B. A. McDermott and Mrs. M. Shirley. The articles which caught fornia September 5 Bishop of Colorade, Irving P. Johnson, who was formerly rector of the eye of most of the young ladies, St. Mark's Episcopal church of however, were the beautiful hat hoxes Omaha, is spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Gibson, enroute home from Minneapolis. which the women had made. Large round boxes of gaily-colored paper, some with beribboned tops and some Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Marley and Judge and Mrs. Bryce Crawford have without, were the cynosure of all feminine eyes. Miss Claire Helen Wood-returned from an eight weeks' motor trip in the east. They spent several ard had her eyes set on a specially Miss Catherine Cartan was shop-ping at the bazar for a bride-to-be Mrs. Losenhine Ellich in the shore of the state of the ping at the bazar for a bride-to-be friend. Her purchase was a very novel laundry bag of pink and white cre-street into the Uintah apartments tonne. The bag was shirred on a today, coat hanger covered with pink and Mrs Mrs. J. W. Towle and her daughter, white ribbons and opened at the side. Miss Naomi Towle, left at 6:30 today so that it could be hung on the wall for Evanston, Jll., where Mis Towle or in any convenient spot without in- will enter the Evanston hospital. Her terfering with its usefulness. The little folks and some big folks, three months. probationary course there will occupy too, were buying dolls right and left. Little Miss Margaret Dugdale carried home a big red-haired doll larger than (herself, Mrs. B. A. McDermott and Mrs. C. H. Caughlan each mothered Eve Takes Blame for big baby dolls before the evening was nobilists were haled into police court Thursday morning to answer to the various charges of operating with one Judge J. W. Woodrough made a talk-befitting the occasion on the situation of the new cathedral, From headlight, with no tail light, fast drivhis country home at Seymour lake for ing or with open cutouts. Half of this ter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cowell, an miserable now. Perhaps if you were twenty miles up and down the valley number were discharged by Judge of the Pappio and the Missouri the Holmes, while the others received Mr. and Mrs. John W. Towle, have you would be more at peace with yourself new cathedral can be seen on the top small fines. of the hill, he said.

H. Richards was fined $25 and costs | Cross work if there is an opening.

"Yes, your honor. She was so close

The girl in question was standing in the background and thought she

"It was all my fault, I am sure," speeded that way, only I think that

George was asked to donate to the

The staff presenting the saber in-

NOVELTY BOOTS

-and-

SAMPLE SHOES

derful bargains are like.

At prices never before heard of on this class of merchandise, and the price marks will prove no less a revelation than the beauty and comprehensiveness of the styles. It's your own fault if you do not take advantage of these special

Come in, you'll be welcome whether you come to buy or merely stop in to see what these won-

No Charges, No Discounts, No Deliveries, No Commissions. Our Prices Will Not Permit of Any Extras.

SHOE MARKET

(Temporary Location), 1607 FARNAM ST.

cludes 156 men, formerly under the direction of Major Maher.

low prices.

by accident I stepped on the gas."

"George would never have had better come to the rescue.

support of the police court.

Major Maher Presented

to me I couldn't work my elbows on

Speeding, but to No Avail

One hundred and twenty-five auto-remain in Omaha over Sunday and then after a short wedding trip will makes their home in Belgrade. The marriage of Miss Bertha Wangberg to Mr. H. H. Thatcher will be solemnized Friday afternoon at All Saints' church, Rev. T. J.

Mrs. L. J. Quinby will return dur-ing the following week from her semi-annual business trip to the week have been Messrs. Louis Yer-ger, Arthur Kuhn, L. G. Johnston,

George T. Wilson and A. F. Bloom and Mrs. R. Talmage.

Miss Sylvia Caro of Kansas City,

Mr. T. C. Brunner has returned home on Sunset beach. Mrs. Brun-

Mr. Martin W. Bush has returned from a month's trip to New York

Here and There with Society.

Mackay officiating.

BRIDE CONTINUES KINDER. GARTEN WORK

Mrs. Ralph B. Carney

GIRLS VOLUNTEER

Offer to Pay Their Owh

Passage to Assist in Relief Work.

pay their own passage and will serve

Because they are not trained for any particular service they have even offered to take instruction in any

the Omaha Red Cross chapter of-Judson, state director, who has taken the matter up with Washington head-an opportunity to do this work.

without salary.

Who are they?

Ey BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

What is Your Ideal?

Just what are you making of life? Peace of mind? Happiness? Suc- luxury and buys for it expensive cess? A chance to serve? It may playthings, but it cannot purchase be that you are trying to secure them real friendship or love or freedom all and that you find all of them eluding you.

We have the highest authority for masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.' Peace of mind demands a clear con science, an assurance of houest dealings, the certainty of effort made in the right direction. But none of these things guarantee worldly success, or achievement, or the applause of the multitude. The "durable satisfactions" of life are not necessarily those which are accepted by the general public in this money-mad and mercenary are of ours. But the really happy people are the people who have peace of mind, who have possessed the durable satisfaction of service and generous love and honesty and kindness and clean striving toward a worthy goal.

Idealism is likely to be sneered at Mrs. Ralph B. Carney, nee Miss by two out of three people. "That Dora Louise Olsen, whose marriage doesn't get you anything," says the took place Wednesday morning, will Practical Man, when he sees some continue her work as kindergarten dione stop to lead a timid and hesitatrector of Madison school, while Dr. ing old woman across the crowded Carney is serving his country as first streets. Of course such a kindness lieutenant in the officers' reserve denwould not be done by anyone who tal corps. At present they are spendstopped to reckon up what it would "get him." But the sort of man who ing their honeymoon in Kansas City. But the sort of man who instinctively offers courtesy and consideration to those who need it has "gotten" something out of his own attitude. Fineness, serene sweetness, responsiveness to the gentle beauty of service are his. This is a subject on which it is all

TO GO TO THE FRONT too easy to be poetical and imprac-Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Novak will re- Four Prominent Omaha Girls tical, and it is the sort of subject down to brass tacks."

And so I am going to be mercenary and cold-blooded and calculating about the things which people who are habitually so have to miss! Money

Four girls of prominent Omaha buys automobiles and pearl necklaces families are ready to go to France for and palaces at Newport and beautiservice. They have volunteered to

Advice to Lovelorn By Beatrice Fairfax

It is Not Safe." Dear Miss Fairfax: I am 21, and in love with a young man who drinks and gam-bles. Fe has asked me to marry him, and branch of Red Cross service desired if they are assured they will be given bles. I's has asked me to marry him, and my perents refuse to consent to the mar-riage. Miss Fairfax, I love him. Things seem so doubtful and arc making me so miserable that I would like to have your advice. While answering that, I beg you to keep in mind that I want to be fair to my parents and that I love this man sin-cerely. SINCERE, Well, Miss Myra Nourse, secretary fice, is the only one who knows and she won't tell. Not until Frank W.

The wife of a man who is drunkard and a gambler has very little chance for happiness. You would probably quarters, has had a reply from there. not be heartbroken if you were to separate Miss Louise Dinning, daughter of from this man. Of course, you would miss Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Dinning, and Mrs. hts companionship for long months. You C. W. Turner, formerly Miss Etta would be lonely and perhaps desperately Schneider of Fremont, are already in unhappy. But wounds do hgal. After a Paris awaiting call to duty in French time we cease missing what once meant hospitals. Miss Mona Cowell, daugh- almost life itself to us. You say that you and Miss Naomi Towle, daughter of brave enough to give up an unworthy man announced their intention to do Red than you are now. Does he absolutely refuse to make an honest effort at reform?

Miss Cowell also applied for work If he doen, I think you must try to and children. ful clothes and plenty to eat and drink.

It feeds the body, dresses it in Success bring admiration, applause, stating that "No man can serve two flattery, the distinction of being point ed out as a person who has accomplished something big. But it brings envy, too-and deceit and publicity when the one wants peace and quiet and the need of living up to what the public expects.

"The tumult and the shouting dies; The captains and the kings depart; Still stands thine ancient sacrifice. An humble and a contrite heart.' wrote Rudyard Kipling, And in those lines we find the secret suggestion of the utter vanity of pomp and ceremony, of riches and position, of achievement and adulation as compared with the rich beauty of feeling which can well up in the human heart. The "durable satisfaction" of life are the things which a man who longs for happiness must idealize. The mar who visions himself, not as a successful engineer, but as the man who gives to his fellow men a road for traffic through hitherto unpierced mountains, has an ideal which can bring him happiness.

The money his calculations may earn for him, the praise and position his achievements can win, are only stimulating to pride and self-esteem They are brilliant and beautiful to look at. But the engineer cannot warm an empty heart with them or satisfy any of his natural human longings for love and companionship,

I often wonder whether the life of the great "K of K" was a success or a failure! Did Kitchener want to be a great soldier, a leader of men so that his pride might be satisfied and so that he might experience the joy about which no one can write very of standing alone on the summits? usefully unless she is willing to "come Or did he want to help his country great English soldier was a failure, even though he was a hero. If he was working for his country, he was a a success the world calls him! If to success, even though he missed the bring something to the world, to make warmth and beauty of home and wife those about him happy, to contribute If self is any man's ideal he has ideal for which a man is working, he to be a failure, no matter how great is bound to be happy.

Ask for RIDGEWAY'S "ORANGE LABEL" TEA

Full satisfaction or your money refunded.

Awarded Gold Medal, San Francisco, 1915 Awarded Grand Prize, San Diego, 1916

New York Office, 111-113 Hudson St. H. J. HUGHES CO., DISTRIBUTORS

FREE

MONEY BACK

GUARANNEE

Dinner for Enlisted Men

The Philathea and Baraca classes of One winsome lass charged with exthe Hanscom Park Methodist church ceeding the speed limit said that she was on her way to Fort Crook to bid gave a dinner Tuesday evening in the parlors of the church for Mr. Harry her sweetheart goodby. She was dis-Nelson and other members who have charged. In one case of joyriding that was waist?'

the wheel."

she said.

coln

in Columbus, O.

enlisted, including Mr. Ted Willard brought in from Florence boulevard of the navy, Mr. Arthur Bond of the British Aero service, Mr. Will Ingh- Eve came to the rescue. "Why were you driving so fast?" am of the ambulance corps and inquired the judge. "I didn't know that I was," the Messrs John Reel, Adolph Sanderson, Bert Mallinson and Ed Partridge of the army. Misses Mary Virtue, Mar- man answered. "Was anybody with you?" "Yes, my girl." garet Riley and Adeline Stone sang, and Mr. Bert Wilcox, Miss Gertrude Pfeiffer, Messrs, L. C. Sholes, Frank Pond, John Reel, Harry Nelson, Will "Did you have one-arm around her waist?" "I did." Inghram and Ed Partricge gave short. "Did she have one arm around your

Mrs. Sprague Wins Match.

Mrs. E. H. Sprague played a 94 in the informal golf game at Happy Hollow club Wednesday afternoon which was arranged in honor of Miss Louise Pound, former state chamion, who is visiting Mrs. W. W. Richardson for a few days. Probably tomorrow Miss Pound will play with a group of golfers on the Country club course. Miss Sarah Beasley of Council Bluffs, who made low score in the qualifying round of the women's golf tournament at the Council Bluffs Rowing association Wednesday morning, was another member of yesterday's party.

News of Autumn Weddings.

Simplicity was the keynote of the marriage ceremony of Miss Agnes Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Russell, and Mr. Frederick Stott, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Stott of St. Paul, which was solemnized this afternoon at 5 o'clock by the Rev. Robert French Leavens at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride wore a simple frock of white net with a corsage bouquet of pink and white sweet peas. She was unattended. Pink roses were used as decorations throughout the house. Only a very few friends witnessed the ceremony with the relatives. Several out-of-town relatives came for the occasion, among them Mr. Stott's parents and his three sisters, Misses May, Genevieve and Dorothy Stott of St. Paul, Minn. Mrs. Russell's brother, Mr. Harvey Ingham, with Mrs. Ingham and their sons, William and Harvey, jr., of Des Moines, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McChesney and their children, Helen and Fred, of Iowa Gity and Miss/Helen Wright of Chicago were also present.

After a buffet supper Mr. and Mrs. Stott left for a two weeks' wedding trip in Wisconsin, after which they will be at home at the Russell residence, 411 North Fortieth street. The bride's going away suit was of bur-gundy broadcloth with a georgette blouse to match and a brown velvet

Miss Agnes Matthiessen, daughter Mr. and Mrs. Hans Matthiessen of Belgrade, Neb., and Mr. Hilbert Newquist, also of Belgrade, were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Bjornberg Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Rev, A. T. Lorimer. Miss Esther Johnson, sister of Mrs. Bjornberg, was bridesmaid and Mr. Clauss Björnberg, cousin of the bridegroom was best man.

Flags and red, white and blue were used to carry out a patriotic effect in the decorations of the house. The bride wore a simple frock of white taffeta and carried pink and white roses. Mr. and Mrs. Newquist will in the ambulance corps. misery.

> Fund for War Dogs Injured in Battle in France

Ten dollars is ready to be sent to Miss Aileen Moretta, Roselands, Glen Lake, N. Y., for the Collies of Amer-ica fund, as a result of the sale of one lively Persian cat, a pet of little Miss Frances Jones, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Newell Jones, 5117 Underwood avenue. Some time ago in the columns of The Bee Frances offered two of her pets for sale and one of the kittens was sold. Another equally pretty one is still for sale. Its fur is fluffy yellow and it has four snowwhite feet.

The money from the sale of these kittens will go toward the fund for establishing an ambulance service for wounded war dogs in Europe. These dogs are taking the place of wounded horses in pulling loads of supplies. they serve as sentries along portions of the front and save the lives of many wounded men by bringing aid. Miss Blanche Cameron of Lincoln has written to The Bee saying that her white Scotch collie is too old for service at the front, but that he is going to earn money to send to his brother collies and care for the your feelings while you have youth and its natural resilliency to help you.

"FOR THE LADIES"

Boys and Girls

WILL BE DELIGHTED with the beautiful col-ored Mother Goose toys given free with every package of Washington Crisps, New Process Corn Flakes.

There's Humpty-Dumpty, Cinderella, Old Mother Hubbard, Little Boy Blue and dozens of others dear to the hearts of youngsters.

The Corn Flakes are delicious and you will find, that after Father tries them, he will back the children and demand Washington Crisps.

Washington CRISPS

THE PERFECT TOASTED CORN FLAKES

