"Hotel Women" Will Be Next. Says Reserve Militia Man

A. G. McGlone, a member of the reserve militia, formerly a hotel man, believes the war will open up a splendid field in hotel work for women.

"Women make good head waiters, for instance," he said. "A woman is more tactful in dealing with patrons. If a customer complains about some dish, a woman will be polite to him and will get him another dish to suit his taste. She may lose 15 cents, but next day the customer comes in

"Women are also splendid in managing restaurant: and cafes. A woman -- manager, who is economical, is a blessing to a hotel, for it is in the kitchen that the hotel loss comes. The hotel rooms are always there; if not rented one day they will be still there for rent the next. But if a dozen bunches of lettuce too many are purchased, they spoil and are a com-

"I know women who are drawing good salaries in hotel management. But a woman must mean business and be eternally on the job. A woman who goes out nights and is tired the next day won't do, or the one who is frivolous. Take a woman whose husband is dead and who has a child or two to support and she usually makes good, for she is in earnest"

Will Auction Leases

On Oil and Gas Land The government has taken over 25,000 acres of the deeded portion of the Shoshone Indian reservation in

Wyoming and at Fort Washakie, October 10, at auction, will sell oil and gas leases on the same, the highest bidders taking the 150 or more The purpose of the government, it is asserted, is to prevent speculation in petroleum and the by-products found on its land. To secure the leases, the bidders must pay 20 per cent bonus at the time of bidding, an annual rental of $1 per acre and a royalty of 121/2 per cent on the gross proceeds at the time of sale, or removal of the gas, or oil. No bidder will be permitted to acquire leases on more than 2,400 acres of the land. Leases will cover a period of twenty

On the lands that the government has taken over it is asserted that there are a number of oil producing wells. The land on which these wells are located will be sold on the basis on an appraised valuation.

Oh, Such Lovely Hats and They're Only $7.50, too

THE above and similar expressions are heard every day now in our millinery section, on the second floor, where the new ideas in women's head dress are shown in splendid selections.

The shirred-rim effects of velvet that are so soft next to the face, droopy mushroom shapes, rolling brim sailors with medium and small roll brims and side turn effects. Although small hats seem to predominate, there are quite a few large, high crown sailors and many with trimmed brims. One of the most popular is velvet and panne velvet combined and trimmed with jet ornaments and grosgrain ribbon. The colors are terra cotta, gobelin blue, tete de negre and taupe, with plenty of black. Specially priced for Saturday at $7.50.
