CARDS PINCH THE PIRATES BOTH TIMES

Both Contests; Cooper Holds in First Until Ward's Fumble Queers Game.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 1.-St. Louis won two games from Pittsburgh today by 1 to 0 scores. Both contests were St. Louis. 50 80 385 Minneapolis 58 18 433 brightened with splendid pitching. In the first Cooper held the visitors safe until the ninth, when Ward's fumble, followed by two well-placed hits, scored the only run of the game. Two hits and a sacrifice bunched on Carl-son in the fourth inning of the sec-ond game accounted for the only run of that contest. Score, first game: AB H.O.A.E. 3 0 0 0 0 3 1 1 0 0 0 0 Long,rf 1 0 Betzel,lf 0 0 Snyder,c OCCUPATION 2 Cooper,p 3 1 1 4 0 Totals. .29 5 27 18 0

Indians Grab Last From Tigers; Even for Series

Cleveland, O., Sept. 1.—Cleveland defeated Detroit here today, 3 to 2, and won an even break in the series. Only three of the visitors reached second base in the last eight innings. Speaker, in attempting to steal home in the first inning, was hit in the face by a ball batted by Evans. Through the courtesy of Manager Jennings of Detroit he was allowed to remain out of the game one inning, while the cut was sewn up. Score:

Call of the Game Gets

the Best of Them All

Most major league ball players are heartily sick and tired of the game by the time the end of the schedule comes around. A large number of them say they would be glad to retire permanently if they had ha'f a chance, and some, like Hans Wagner, for example, have retired, only to pop out again after the season has been under way for a spell.

It's the lure of the sport and the spice of spring that brings them around. They may think, honestly, that they prefer to get out and stay out. And it's not always the money that puts them in uniform once more when the spring trip
