PASADENA GIRL GUEST OF MR. AND MRS. GEORGE.

By MELLIFICIA—Sept. 7

Knitted for Civil War Heroes.

Knitting and making hospital supplies for our soldier boys is nothing new for Mrs. W. P. Harford, venerated Omaha clubwoman. Mrs. Harford performed such service during civil war times. It was in her girlhood that she scraped lint and raveled homespun linen for hospital supplies and learned to knit so deftly that the accomplishment can now be put to good service.

Mrs. Harford, who was formerly president of the Omaha Woman's club and also headed the Young Woman's Christian association, as well as many church societies, and distinguished as a parliamentarian, responded to another call for war work.

At her summer home on Madeline Island, Lake Superior, from which she was unexpectedly called home by business, Mrs. Harford has been reaping the best of her war garden. She and her daughter went north in May and planted seventeen different kinds of vegetables and fruit in soil never before tilled. The land was cleared since they took it over.

Mrs. Harford proudly planted flags in front, indicating her patriotism.

Now that she is home, Mrs. Harford is ready to do her bit in knitting for the Red Cross society. She would just as soon knit as eat, members of her family state.

Wedding Announcement.

The wedding of Miss Alice McGavock, formerly of Omaha, and Mr. Elmer Raynor Colwell of San Francisco took place Wednesday morning in Berkeley, Cal. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. X. Fine Arts' Lecture Course.

The Society of Fine Arts, owing to the war, can not yet announce a completed program for the coming season, but the list of lecturers already engaged gives promise of an interesting lecture course. As previously announced, William Howard Taft, chairman of the Red Cross central committee, gives the opening address of Friday evening, October 19. The Fine Arts society has been trying for several months to secure him. Mr. Taft's appearance in Omaha will be an event, and an evening talk has been planned instead of the usual 4 o'clock hour.

In December Thomas Whitney Surette will present some of his interesting theories about music. He is the first person in the United States to give educational lectures on music. He writes on children's music, opera for the people, and community music.

Two lectures on art topics will be given by Ralph Adams Cram and Royal Cortissoz. Mr. Cram is the architect who has charge of the completion of the church of St. John the Divine in New York. John Macfield will give a talk on English poetry and will read from his "Tales of the Sea" and other poems.

Among the possibilities which Mrs. Leonard Everett, chairman of the lecture committee, is trying to make certain are Meredith Nicholson, H. Charles Woods, an English traveler and war correspondent; Charles Theodore Carruth of Boston, and Ambassador James Gerard.

Spends Furlough With Parents in This City

A. W. Tonge, first-class electrician on the United States steamship Wisconsin, returned to his ship after a short furlough spent in this city. While here he visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tonge, 1820 North Thirty-second street. He was a member of the naval reserve and responded to the call when war was first declared. A younger brother, Harry, is planning on joining him this month.

Quaint Old Elegance Revived

GIVEN a spray of waxed flowers in a rounded glass case, an insisted flower carpet, innumerable tasseled draperies, intersperse a few strains of "Robin Adair" and you have the proper setting for this primly elegant broadcloth gown.

The quaint and perky bustle effect is perfectly balanced by the very dignified high collar and long sleeves. Of course, there is that necessary finish in a bit of white ruching—every Victorian gentlewoman wore ruching at the neck and sleeves. Likewise many buttons.

Red Cross Activities

Choose Chairman at Carter Lake—Mrs. W. T. Bourke was chosen chairman of the Carter Lake Red Cross auxiliary to fill the vacancy made by Mrs. E. E. Crano, who has acted as president since the organization of the circle. The meetings will be held every Wednesday from 9 until 1 at the club. In addition to the regular garment making the women will begin knitting for the Red Cross at the meeting Wednesday.

Woodmen of the World Auxiliary—The Woodmen of the World Red Cross auxiliary has been organized, with Miss Dorea-Alexander as chairman. It will meet in Miss Alexander's office in the Woodmen of the World building every Wednesday and Saturday afternoon.

Bandage Requirements Strict—So exacting are the requirements for the samples in kits sent to Washington by the women in the surgical dressings teachers' training class that one head bandage was returned to an Omaha woman because it measured eight and one-fourth inches instead of eight.

WOMEN TO LEARN OF REGISTRATION

Three Information Stations to Be Maintained When the Women of Omaha Go to the Polls.

Three information stations for women's registration day, September 12, will be maintained on that day, one at the public library, one at Election Commissioner Moorhead's office in the court house and the third in the Woman Service league rooms in the Bee building. Mrs. Albert Egbert, Miss Hurd and Mrs. Harry Sharp will be in charge.

Dr. Jennie Callias has volunteered to serve as chairman for the Fourth ward, the stock yards district.

Attendance at the instruction classes for registrars is very good. Mrs. W. F. Baxter reports. The instructors are Miss Margaret Vincent, Miss Jennie Salmon, Miss Elizabeth Stewart, Mrs. Alexander Hodge and Mrs. Draper Smith.

Mrs. Baxter addressed the Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church at the home of Mrs. David Cole today on registration.

Miss A. B. Mills of the Rome hotel will take all the women employed there to the polls on registration day in her car.

Montgomery Maintains That Kelly is Innocent

John Montgomery of Villisca, Ia., father of Mrs. Joe Moore, one of the victims of the notorious ax murder, was in Omaha Thursday. Mr. Montgomery maintains that Kelly is innocent and says the trial is not the result of an effort to bring the murderer of the Moore family to trial, but is the outgrowth of a political feud.

How Is Any Woman to Know?

Now with the opening of the Fall Season for Women's Apparel, each ad in the newspapers is sprinkled with the words, "Exclusive," "Individual," "Different," "Greatest Values," "Lowest Prices," etc. All the stores cannot have the best—the greatest values, the best styles, the lowest prices—How is any woman to know?

No matter what price a woman pays, she wants to feel she has bought the best in style and value that is possible for her price to purchase. How is she to know what store can give her this?

There is only one way to know, and that is to go to the several stores—and compare, and when that test is used we are confident your purchase will be made here.

When we purchased our fall stock of women's apparel we paid the greatest regard to the style and the quality of every garment we bought. When we put our retail prices on the garments we remembered that this season, more than any other this country ever faced, merchants must be moderate in the amount of profit they ask from the public—and our merchandise is marked with this in mind.

Come in and let us show you what we think is the snappiest line of Women's Suits and Dresses and Coats, that we have had in recent years.
