

ARMY RECRUITING URGED BY SIXTH

Committee to Assist Regular Army Officers in Urging Recruits in All Branches of the Service.

Once more the pedestrians are to be tagged, but this time by stalwart young men seeking recruits for the army, instead of by women interested in charities.

Ten convincing young soldiers from the Sixth regiment have been loaned by Major Harries to the army station at Fifteenth and Dodge streets. They will halt friend and foe alike, urging them to enlist in either the United States army, the federalized guards or the national army.

"Last month this plan was carried out in Des Moines," said Robert Goldberg of the army recruiting office.

"Des Moines, during the month of August, brought in fifty more recruits than Omaha, but we are confident Omaha would have beaten it if we, too, had been aided this way."

The young men who will aid in the recruiting are John Kerr, Harold Morse, Joe Vacek of Company D; Philip Johnson, Al Edel and Clyde Jones, Company A; Frank Soukup, William Menken and Edward Rosten, Company B.

Each man accosted will be given a card with the soldier's name on it, which he will bring with him if he comes to enlist as a result of the talk. Thus a record will be kept of the soldier's work, and those who convince many will get special mention from the brigade commander and possibly promotion from the battalion major.

One National Guard soldier in Des Moines brought in sixty-seven men last month and each averaged between two and three a day. The Omaha office expects an increased enlistment as soon as the National Guard men begin their crusade.

The slackers are migrating rapidly from Algona, Ia. The reason is a big sign posted in a prominent place by the county sheriff.

"Either enlist, go to work or leave the town. Don't live on the community."

For some time the sheriff has been carrying on a campaign to rid the county of idlers, till none dares show his face there now.

The undefeated ball team of Company A, Sixth Nebraska, which was received so royally two weeks ago by the South Side, is going to give the north end of town a chance to do likewise Saturday.

A game with the Frank Deweys at Holmes park, Thirty-first and Ames, is scheduled for Saturday at 3 p. m. The management of the park and the opposing team have voted that all gate receipts go to the mess fund of Company A and the boys are hoping there will be a large attendance.

There are some well known amateur players in this team, among them being Oliver Ferrand, James Bardo, Vinton Rhodes and Daniel Linehan.

There was great rejoicing at the Auditorium Friday, for the band is back. It was brought up for yesterday's parade by request of the Commercial club and the Omaha battalion is hoping it can stay a while.

Early Friday morning Bandmaster Webb had his men in the center of the Auditorium floor practicing stirring music that wouldn't let the boys' feet rest. When Company D got in from drill at 11 a. m., a number of them were seen practicing dancing steps in case the Sixth gives a hop before it goes.

There will be a concert by the band on the steps of the Auditorium at 8 tonight. Experts say this is one of the finest military bands in the country.

Captain Risch of Company D has presented his men with a fine photograph and three dozen new records.

Stove and Hardware

Factory Locates Here

The Merrill-Higgins company, which will manufacture stoves, furnaces, heating plants and heavy hardware, has filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk. The capital is $100,000. The plant will be located in Omaha.

H. B. Merrill, E. A. Higgins and C. J. Miller are the incorporators. The officers and directors are: Mr. Merrill, president; G. D. Klemme, first vice president; B. E. Rainey, second vice president; Mr. Higgins, secretary and treasurer.

Stockman is Struck

Down by an Automobile

While crossing the street at Sixteenth and Jones to board a car R. G. McKenzie, stockman from Shoshone, Idaho, and stopping at the Castor hotel, was struck by a swiftly passing automobile and knocked to the pavement, suffering a cut on the scalp and an abrasion on the left leg. He was taken to the police station, where Dr. Callaghan attended his injuries. The automobile was driven by Morris Kattelman, 1518 North Nineteenth street, who was arrested for reckless driving and later released on bonds.

Woman's Service League

The Western Union Telegraph company has volunteered to instruct all women enlisted in the telegraph detachment of the National League for Woman Service in the use of the Navy-Nash stove, who are to be packed for shipment. Mrs. William Archibald Smith, "We are assisted by army officials to donate patriotic and lively scenes rather than anything too serious or tragic," she said.

A large shipment of khaki-colored yarn was received Thursday by the league headquarters from the Navy-Nash store, who for the Red Cross is being distributed at the league headquarters.

Members of the Woman's league will distribute 500 pocket comfort kits to the men in the Navy-Nash store Monday afternoon at the Auditorium.

Make Hospital Shirts—One hundred hospital shirts were completed by the Scottish Rite Woman's Club Red Cross auxiliary, members of which have been sewing every Wednesday afternoon and all day Saturdays throughout the summer.

GENERAL EDWARDS GREET'S HIS SUCCESSOR—Major General Clarence R. Edwards, former commander of the Department of the Northwest, and his successor in that position, Brigadier General James A. Johnston.

SMITH HELD FOR NETHAWAY MURDER

Negro Suspect Waives Preliminary Hearing and is Bound Over to the District Court.

Charles Smith, negro, suspected of complicity in the murder of Mrs. C. L. Nethaway a week ago last Sunday, was quietly arraigned in county court Friday on charge of first degree murder. He waived preliminary hearing, pleaded not guilty and was bound over to district court by Judge Crawford.

Deputy County Attorney Piatti read the complaint, which was drawn up by County Attorney Magney and filed by Paul Steinwender. Public Defender Horton, who will represent Smith when tried for Mrs. Nethaway's murder, and Adult Probation Officer Andreesen, who is convinced of the negro's innocence, were present.

In spite of the fact that precautions were taken not to let the public know just where and when Smith would be arraigned, for fear of a demonstration, a large crowd packed county court. The negro appeared calm when he was brought into the court room by Sheriff Clark and Deputy Sheriff Lindsay. He was not handcuffed.

Smith probably will not be tried until late in the fall. Both Sheriff Clark and County Attorney Magney announced they would continue their investigations of the mysterious circumstances surrounding the brutal slaying of the Florence woman.

France Has Not Taken Up the Name of "Sammies"

The use of the term "Sammies" to describe our troops is almost unknown in France, according to dispatches received from the United States marines in the overseas expedition of the "first to fight." How the terms came into use is explained in this wise: When the "first to fight" contingent steamed into port the people on the wharf shouted, "Vivent les amis!"—pronounced "Veev lays ahmeel." What this means is "Long live the (our) friends," but "les amis" may sound a good deal like "les Sammies," and the newspaper men so interpreted it. Immediately the folks "back home" began calling our troops "Sammies," but the French have yet to acquire the habit.

Man Charged With Nethaway Murder Insane, Says Mother

In a letter to Officer Noah Thomas of the Omaha police Mrs. Betty McClellan of Lawrence, Kan., mother of Charles Smith, charged with the murder of Mrs. C. L. Nethaway, writes that he has never been rational since a small boy. He was released from a Kansas institution for the insane apparently cured. The mother requests that he be told that he will have to get out of his present trouble the best that he can, as they are unable to come to his assistance again.

Maid Decamps With Some Of Mistress' Best Clothes

A colored maid came to the home of Miss Katherine Walker, 709 South Twenty-ninth street, Thursday morning to work. She cleaned the kitchen, then proceeded to ransack the house while her mistress was away. Besides the colored servant, two silk waists and a silk vest are missing. She gave only Emmeline as her name and said she lived near Twenty-second and Burdette streets.

Corn Now Sells Close To the Price of Wheat

There was a good shipping demand for corn and generally the prices were a cent or so higher, the sales being around $2.01 to $2.11, but were not as numerous as might have been expected. The receipts were twenty-nine carloads.

Food Administration Agent Neal was in the market for the wheat, taking all of the grade stuff at prices fixed by the government. Receipts were fourteen carloads.

Oats sold up a cent at 57 to 58 cents a bushel, with fifty-nine carloads on the market.

WATTLES OUTLINES HIS FOOD PLANS

To Wage Campaign to Reduce Waste, Eliminate Speculation and Encourage Future Production.

The activities of G. W. Wattles as food administrator of Nebraska will be along three general lines. The first will be an educational campaign in an effort to obtain the co-operation of consumers to bring about a reduction of the use of all food products that can be exported to our soldiers or to the allies. This involves also a campaign to eliminate waste on every hand.

Second will be a campaign to eliminate as far as possible speculation in food products and coal, so as to give assurance that the consumers can be supplied with necessities.

Third, the campaign will encourage future production of food products.

Men of "Dandy Sixth" Go South Soon to Deming

The "Dandy Sixth" regiment will probably start for Deming, N. M., the first of the coming week. Officers believe this to be definite now, as it is pretty well understood that the men are to be given a day and night off Sunday without passes, which is always taken as a sure sign they are spending their last Sunday in the city.

Colonel P. L. Hall, commander of the regiment, made a flying trip to Omaha from Lincoln today and hurried back to the Capital City.

Colonel Hall and Major H. L. Harries took luncheon together at the Omaha club, after which Major Harries went to Lincoln with Colonel Hall.

Those of the men who have heard rumors of moving are on tiptoe of expectancy. They are very anxious to get started for the border and all have long been envious of the men of Company C who have preceded the remainder of the regiment to the training camp.

German Foreign Secretary Favors Negotiated Peace

Amsterdam, Sept. 7.—The statement that the German foreign secretary, Dr. von Kuehlmann, is in favor of a negotiated peace is made in a dispatch to the Frankfurter Zeitung from Vienna, which the secretary recently visited.

"Dr. von Kuehlmann's calm and steady manners," the dispatch says, "made a good impression in Vienna, especially as he, like the imperial chancellor, is free from all chauvinism regarding the situation and in favor of peace by understanding."

DOMESTIC TROUBLES KEEP POLICE BUSY

Wife Threatens Murder and Suicide When Not Allowed to Keep Potatoes She Raised.

"I can't get along with him any longer. I am going to kill my children and then commit suicide," screamed Mrs. William Johnson, 3212 North Fortieth, as she rushed down the steps of the city jail, and ran towards a street car. A moment later William Johnson burst through the door and ran toward a car in another direction, bent on heading off his wife from committing the murders.

There has been dissension and trouble in the Johnson family since last winter. In June Mrs. Johnson appeared in police court and filed a complaint against her husband, alleging nonsupport. Judge Fitzgerald ordered Johnson to pay his wife $15 per week. Mrs. Johnson says he paid her $15 a month. She has four small children, and in her desperation at not being able to take proper care of them, again appealed to Judge Fitzgerald. Johnson earns only $60 per month, so he was ordered to pay her $10 a week and also pay the rent of the house in which they were living.

"But what about the potatoes that I took care of all summer? He is going to sell them and I won't get any of the money," wailed Mrs. Johnson to the judge.

"Well, as far as I can see, they rightfully are his, according to law," replied Judge Fitzgerald.

This decision did not agree with Mrs. Johnson's idea of the case and in a rage she ran from the court room and toward a street car, bent on taking the lives of her four children and then her own.

Captain Heifelt sent Motorcycle Officer Vance out to head off any trouble that might arise.

Fontenelle Park Lake To Soon Be Completed

City Commissioner Hummel is delighted with the progress that has been made in the construction of the lake in Fontenelle park. Excavation has been completed, the bottom of the pool puddled and the water turned in. When filled the lake will cover an area of about four acres, will be six feet deep in the center and two to three feet along the edge.

While the details have not been worked out, it is probable that next season a bath house will be erected at the lake. The water is about the purest that can be found in the city, the supply coming from a large spring that has an inexhaustible supply.
