Omaha Scores But One Run in Third, When Miller Triples With Two Out and Nye Singles.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Des Moines took a listless game from Omaha, 3 to 1 here today in the first of the closing series of the season.

The Rourkeles gave a crippled team in the game, but the locals were little better with Manager Jack Coffey on the bench with a sore arm. Omaha scored one in the third when with two out Miller tripled and Nye singled.

McNamara and Hagen Tie for
Lo win Second at Chicago

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Tom McNamara of New York, champion in 1914, and Walter Hagen, of Rochester, N. Y., present title holder, today shared the honor of low score for the second and eighth holes of the western golf championship, each taking 70 strokes, two under par. This score was not good enough to take the lead from James M. Barnes of Philadelphia, who today added 71 strokes to his record of 67 yesterday and topped the field with 138 at the half way mark, as compared to 144 for Hagen and 149 for McNamara.

Jack Hutchison, with 71 strokes today, held second place with a total of 141 among the sixty-nine who qualified for the final thirty-six holes tomorrow. Hagen's score jumped him into third place, while Fred McLeod of Washington with 72 today, gained fourth place with 145.

Frank Adams of Beverly club of Chicago, M. J. Brady of Boston and James Donaldson of Glenview, were tied for fifth place with 146 each. Only one stroke behind Jack Burgess of Washington and Jeter O'Hara of Pittsburgh. One stroke further removed from the title were R. H. Craigs of Louisville, Gil Nichols of New York, James Simpson of Milwaukee and George Simpson of Chicago.

Harry Turpie, the veteran of Rochester, Minn., with a par 72 today was tied at 149 with W. C. Sherwood, Tom McNamara and Emmett French of York, Pa. Six men were tied at 151 for last place among the sixty-four assigned to survive, and all of them will be allowed to play the final round.

Other scores made were: R. Hunter, Fort Worth, Tex., 42, 39, 81—160. William Brown, Hastings, Neb., 37, 41, 78—151.
