Goodrich, Cora Ferris, S. Bostwick.

The monthly council of the Women's Foreign Missionary societies of all the Methodist churches will meet Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock in the Young Women's Christian association assembly room.

Mrs. W. E. Hills will be hostess for the Dundee Catholic Women's circle Monday at 2 o'clock at her home.

Smith College alumnae will meet with Mrs. Bernard Capen Wednesday at 3 o'clock to do Red Cross work.

The Oratory department of the Omaha Women's club will open its classes October 2, at 10 o'clock. Prof. Edwin Puls of Bellevue college and the Young Men's Christian association will be the instructor. Themes taken from current events, and more especially from the social problems arising from the present war situation, furnish the speech material for the course. It is the aim of the instructor to make "public speakers," fitted to appear on all occasions. In fact, the department will be a "Speakers' Training Camp." There is great enthusiasm for the work, as the women realize its value at this time of the nation's history. The officers of the department are: Mrs. Joseph C. Lawrence, leader; Mrs. O. G. King, assistant leader; and Mrs. Joseph Duffy, secretary.

Benson Woman's club held its first meeting of the season Thursday at the city hall, when Mesdames Walter Snell, J. F. Barton, H. V. Jeffrey and M. F. Berry were added to the membership.

The delegates chosen for the state convention were Mrs. W. A. Wilcox and Mrs. J. T. Pickard.

Mrs. Walter Halsey of Omaha gave a talk on "The Omaha Indian." Mrs. C. C. Sawtelle was leader.

Mu Sigma, one of the oldest literary clubs in the city and one whose study programs have always been maintained on a high plane, has so arranged its program for the coming winter that members may do a great deal of Red Cross knitting during the meeting hours. The number of speakers in each program has been cut so that there will be fewer breaks in the program and knitting will be expedited.

The first meeting will be held September 26. Modern literature will be studied this year, the following writers having been selected: Walpole, Chesterston, Bennett, Lagerlof, Repplier, O. Henry, de Maupassant, Barrie, Dunsany, Tagore, James, Crothers, Materick, Turgenieff, Conrad and Suderman. Rev. G. A. Hulbert, Rabbi Frederick Cohn and Miss Jessie Towne will give special lectures.

Le Mars club announces the dates for its dancing parties of the coming season, the first of which is scheduled for Tuesday evening at Keep's academy. Vincent Schmittroth is president; Jay Collins, secretary; and Jack McCarthy, treasurer. Dates for other parties are: September 28, October 19 and 31, November 9, 20 and 29, December 14 and 31, January 18 and 30, February 12, March 16, April 1, 12 and 23, and May 3 and 17.

Clifton Hill or the Sixth and Seventh precincts of the Sixth ward, contains the most considerable people in Omaha, Mrs. F. A. Follansbee, precinct registration chairman, believes. J. Mead furnished flowers for the polling place, C. V. Warfield telephone service and Glover & Soain the use of a building for registration. Mrs. Mary E. Howe, the newly elected president of the Woman Voters' Conservation league, and her helpers, Mrs. C. H. Jones, Miss Nettie Morgan, Miss Jennie Smith, Mrs. Alex McKie, Miss Olga Jorgensen, Miss O. W. Hendee, Mrs. T. R. Ward, Mrs. A. C. Anderson, Mrs. E. Oehrle and Miss Edna Birss, made a house-to-house canvass, and in the eight hours' work found but one woman who refused to register for service. One enthusiastic worker invaded the Presbyterian church during the evening services and registered the women.

The National War Aid, a society of American women, who have male relatives in the war, has organized, with national headquarters at 1606 Twentieth street, N. W., Washington, D. C. The main purpose back of the National War Aid, as explained by its chairman, Miss Elizabeth E. Poe, is to raise the morale of the troops at the front and in the fighting ships by getting the women they have left behind in active service for the country in relief and other war work and also by assisting these women by obtaining information from and giving directions how to reach authorities in Washington.

Membership in the organization is limited to women over 18 years of age that have relatives in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States. The names of members, together with the names of relatives in the service, are inscribed on a roll of honor book to be kept at headquarters and which will be handed down to future generations. In after years membership in this society will prove to be historic and a proof of patriotic service.

Tennison chapter of the Chautauqua circle and the Round Table circle will resume their work the first week in October. The Tennison chapter will meet the first Monday in the month at the public library at 2:30 p. m. The Round Table will meet the first Friday evening in the month at the home of Mrs. W. B. Howard at 7:30. Mrs. H. F. Curtiss is president of the Tennison circle and Mrs. Willard Powell secretary, while the division leaders are Mrs. J. T. Morey and Mrs. C. J. Harper. Mrs. George Condon is president of the Round Table and Miss Elizabeth Ryan and Gertrude Bailey are division leaders. Mrs. W. B. Howard is general leader of both circles.

The course of study will be of a classical nature this year. The books studied will be "Life in Ancient Athens," by Prof. T. G. Tucker; "Characters and Events of Roman History," by Guglielmo Ferris; "The Seven Greatest Books in the World," Mrs. Laura Spencer Porter, and "How to Live," by Irving Fisher. Five young women who began the chautauqua course in the evening class formed four years ago will graduate from the course next May. They are Miss Grace Grant, Miss Elizabeth Ryan, Miss Gertrude Bailey, Mrs. Walter Loomis, then Miss Mittie Ward, and Mrs. Rose Davis.

The Belles Lettres Literary society will henceforth direct its efforts along war relief lines, abandoning for the present its literary programs. The meetings, which are held every two weeks, will be devoted to knitting. The first meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. B. Ferris, when Miss Ruth McDonald, who is affiliated with the National League for Woman Service, will give the women their first instruction. The members of the club are Mesdames E. B. Ferris, Sam Morris, Gus Hollo, Will White, J. H. Stine, E. A. Nelson and Misses Helen Anderson, Edith Miller and Terra Tierney.

Miller Park Mothers' circle will hold a reception for the new principal, Miss Orr, and the teachers at Miller Park school in the auditorium Wednesday at 3 o'clock. Refreshments will be served. This is the first meeting of the club this year, of which Mrs. T. P. Davis is president.

Rev. E. B. Taft of Grace Baptist church will conduct services at the people's home on Fontenelle boulevard, Sunday at 3:30 o'clock.

"Vacation Reminiscences" will be the roll call at the first meeting of the Woman's club of the railway mail service Wednesday at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. W. S. Toxword.

Mrs. A. W. Jefferis, chairman of Red Cross knitting, made an appeal to the Scottish Rite Woman's club Friday for assistance in the work. She decided to continue its Red Cross work through the winter and appointed Mrs. J. H. Stine chairman. Mrs. M. Garrison and Mrs. H. J. McArthur were named censors. The club will give a luncheon at Prettiest Mile club Wednesday, September 26, in honor of out-of-town women who will accompany their husbands to the national meeting of the Masonic Relief association, which will be held in Omaha September 25 to 27. There will be fifteen women visitors.

Miss Mary Griffith, a missionary from Japan, will address the meeting of neighborhood Bible class leaders Monday at 2:30 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian association. This is the first meeting of the year. The work is a follow-up of the "Billy" Sunday campaign.

Chapter E of the P. E. O. sisterhood will have a business meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Robert Grant at 2 o'clock.

Registration of Nebraska women for patriotic service will go on until every loyal woman citizen over 16 is registered. Mrs. A. E. Sheldon, state chairman, announces.

"Registration on September 12 was very heavy, especially in view of the fact that but six weeks were allowed for organizing and perfecting plans," she writes.

"Topeka, Kan., registered 2,600 women; Wichita, Kan., registered 4,900 women, each of these towns about the size of Lincoln. Lincoln registered over 5,000. The Nebraska State Council of Defense has no organization as yet in six of ninety-three counties. In at least eight other counties registration was not held on the 12th because the organization necessary was not sufficiently complete. About thirty counties have as yet no woman chairman. October 17 is the date set for completed returns from each county. "Registration is to be carried on through precinct organization in each county after the manner prescribed by the County Council of Defense. No other day will be set for statewide registration. "The following states have held registration: Alabama, Arkansas, Indi-

Let's Go Shopping with Polly

Women of AMERICA, Hail! T'will surely be of some avail Your REGISTRATION. Helps to put them on your track So to speak Each week You can "do your bit" By giving just a little time Outside your regular line Just think of it! Then, if you can "Parlez vous Francais," it is up to you To volunteer to go to France To help our COUNTRY'S cause advance

And even tho' you go abroad In uniform you'll feel quite proud For WOMEN and CLOTHES to a certain degree Can't help mixing up as you may see For CLOTHES are to Milady faire What a frame is to a picture rare In satin she's perfectly lovely She's dainty as can be in lace She's proud and stately in velvet And wears it with beautiful grace In a serge frock she simply is swagger In linen she's always smart And in frilly white muslin old fashioned and quaint She's Queen over many a heart.

FOR the Business Woman. A very busy little Business person whom I met on the street the other day inquired plaintively: "Oh, Polly, where shall I find some good looking clothes for office wear? I've only an hour at noon and it's such a little time in which to shop. Won't you please look around and tell us Business Women in your Sunday columns what you've seen for us in the shops?" I promised I would, and below is the result of my investigation:

I'll begin with SUITS. The Business Woman who requires one sturdy suit will find satisfaction in choosing one from the splendid array of man-tailored garments at F. W. Thorne's Uptown Shop for Women, 1812 Farnam St. It's surprising what snappy styles they are showing in moderate price merchandise. For instance, there's a clever belted model of that "stand-by" color, navy blue, in Burella cloth, for only $24.75—really a remarkable suit for the price! This same model also comes in the new approved shades of beet-root, Hunter's green and walnut. There are two extremely stylish trench models in checked velvet—one gray and green, the other gray and blue, for $37.50. My, but they are good-looking and nothing more than practical for service. Besides these, there are many other varied and delightful styles which cannot fail to please the Business Woman who wishes "to look the part."

THEN I scooted around looking for BLOUSES, and at the same shop I found some plaid and striped taffeta blouses which are tailored in appearance, and not gay in color, but those lovely, soft, subdued shades which bespeak "perfect taste" for the Business Woman. Some of these have the new high collar effect and neatly finished cuffs. They're priced $5.45. For times when a dressier blouse is required there are lovely dark Georgette in every shade to match the new Fall suits for $6.00 up, at F. W. Thorne's.

A LITTLE talk about watches is timely. If you're a busy woman you must depend upon your watch to do so many things for you in an allotted time. At Arnold H. Edmondson's Pretty Jewelry Shop, 2d Floor Securities Bldg., they have wrist watches which are not only as dainty as can be, but are dependable as well. These can be purchased on the easy payment plan, making it possible for even the business girl on a modest salary to have one for her very own.

THE crowning achievement to a woman's appearance is a hat built on correct lines. The fashions I saw in Benson & Thorne's Millinery Department are really lessons in effective simplicity. They show what may be done to a sailor or walking hat to give it a distinctively different air—straight, rolling and tip-tilted brims, stiff or soft crowns, chin-chin or turban effects; but all appropriate for their intended use—to wear with the smart "tailleur." When you visit Benson & Thorne's Opening on Tuesday don't fail to see THE HATS.

THE one-piece dress holds an important place in the wardrobe of every well attired Business Woman. The smart simplicity of the serge frocks shown by Lamont, 2d Floor Securities Bldg., commend them especially to the woman who desires style as well as serviceability. Blue serge, which is always satisfactory, is used in some very charming models. One which I especially admired had insets of biscuit colored serge in stripes which were hidden by 6-inch box plaits. Beet-root, Hunter's green and mode shades are also shown in this unusual collection of Autumn dresses.

SHOE news. I asked Mr. Rush Winget of the Boot Shop of Benson & Thorne's to show me some boots which were modish and at the same time within a price that the average Business Woman could afford. I was astonished at the beautiful boots he showed me for $8.00. Walking boots in tan, cocoa brown and black Russia calf and kid—some with Marine cloth tops to match and having the 1 1/2-inch strolling heel, flexible welt and hand-sewed soles—in height, 8 1/2 and 9 inches. He produced a dressier model for $9.00 in all the new Fall shades, with kid covered Louis heels. It would certainly add grace to a feminine foot.

cordially invited to come and enjoy this treat with us. All educational classes will begin the week of October 8. Educational and gymnasium folders may be obtained at the main desk.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES. The first fall vesper service will be held today at 4:10. This will be an afternoon of conference memories, when the girls who attended the Storm Lake and Geneva conferences will tell of the interesting things heard there. During the social hour which follows pictures taken at the above conferences will be shown. All girls are very

THE present season brings out many beautiful effects in neckwear. I noted some new ties in Persian patterns at Lucien Stephens' Shop for Men, 1901 Farnam, this week which I thought were exceptionally good looking. The salesman who showed them to me said that they had come from one of the most particular of American manufacturers and were only $1.00. It's the details of a man's apparel that give tone and character to his makeup, and you may be assured of the absolute correctness of these if you are a patron of Mr. Stephens' shop.

HURRAH! Discovered a way to put one over on that old ogre, H. C. of L. It's by buying your shoes in the new Economy Department of Napier's Bootery. There you'll find the niftiest looking boots taken from regular $7.00 and $8.00 lines all for one price—$4.90. Why, you'll just be amazed at these values! There are boots of patent leather, vici, dull or brown kid, with turn and welt soles, 2-inch Louis heels and either button or laced. For business wear or lacing there are some of those dandy, comfortable English walking boots with low strapping heels. As Napier's feature so many new styles they naturally accumulate broken sizes and discontinued lines, so they have created this ECONOMY DEPARTMENT as an outlet to dispose of them. Just take a peek at the display of these $4.90 boots in the center window.

VISITED the shop this week where the Franco-American Toilet Requisites are sold. Mrs. M. W. Humphrey, who presides over this little shop, is an expert in her line and talks so intelligently on the subject of the care of the complexion that I'm anxious to have you meet her and become acquainted with the splendid preparations she has to offer. She says she has the right powder to meet every complexion needed, various creams for massage—in fact, many delightful aids for the woman who wishes to appear youthful and charming. Mrs. Humphrey will send samples of Cutigene (face cream) and powder on receipt of a postal from you. Address 772 Brandeis Bldg.

IT GOES without saying that the marvelously beautiful dress trimmings seen in the show cases at Thompson-Belden's are importations direct from Paris! Beaded trimmings and motifs which are high in the favor of Dame Fashion this season for embellishments on handsome gowns are shown in various patterns of intricate design and exquisite blending of coloring. There are heavily beaded flouncing—really sumptuous when combined with the rich velvets and satins which are used for evening and dinner gowns—and beading in every color imaginable for the outlining of necks and Georgettes. Embroidered trimming which betrays the hand of an artist is seen—some of it with gold and silver threads interwoven. It's impossible to resist the charm of these wonderful new trimmings.

"CARRY it home." Are you carrying home your small parcels? To help you do it, Orchard & Wilhelm are showing a wonderful lot of carry-it-home BAGS. These have evolved from the Summer's knitting bags and vary in important points, but, of course, there is a place to tuck the knitting in. Some of these closely resemble the old-time carpet bag of the '60s, excepting they are made of very elegant broadcades and velvets.

Knit, and the world knits with you. For knitting stands for courage strong and true, And for close bound unity 'tween our men across the sea. And the women in our homes who strive to do.

NOW is a good time to have your Fall and Winter garments cleaned and pressed, ready for use the day you want them. Just yesterday I met a friend of mine and I couldn't refrain from exclaiming over her smart appearance—from the hem of her dainty skirt everything looked brand new. Why, she looked like she'd just stepped out of a band box. "THE PANTORIUM," she declared, "deserves all the credit" for this is last season's outfit. It would almost seem beyond belief if I didn't know from experience that this establishment does work transformations of this kind. Their phone is Douglas 963.

A word to the wise is sufficient. I've searched through the shops for what's new. There are many more things unrecorded. I'd be happy to list them for YOU. I trust what I've written is helpful. And you'll find something here which you'll need. If you like me to help you ASHOP-PING, I'll be only too happy indeed!

IF YOU'RE wondering where to find a hat that small but fastidious little daughter, let me direct you to The Drahos-Luttig Shop, 1706 Douglas. I saw some delightfully jaunty chapeaux for children there. There's also a new shipment of lovely new dress and tailored hats which will please you at this smart little Hat Shop.

WHEN Little Sister boards the train for Shut-Eye Town there's nobody she'd love more for a traveling companion than a Pillow Dolly. This dolly has the prettiest hand-painted face, is neatly dressed in a gingham frock and is one of the famous Jane Gray playthings for Tiny Tots which are being exhibited at The Alla Shop, 207 S. 18th St. Priced $1.25, "Kuddles" is the name of a kiddy which school girls are using for mascots—and they're certainly cute! Then there are little dolls for 75c made of Turkish toweling with funny faces. My, wouldn't any child love to take a bath with one of these!

THE sub-deb will go into perfect ecstasies of delight over an adorable little party frock created by an Eastern modiste just for her and brought to Lamond's, 2d Floor Securities Bldg., for her inspection. It's just as dainty and sweet as a French confection, with its alternate rows of wide pink satin ribbon and tiny silver edged tulle ruffles. The bit of a waist has a broad girde of pink satin finished with small circles of gold braid and paste roses. There's another frock which has been christened "Moonlight," and the designer must have had a poetic inspiration when she originated it. It's of pale blue and silver cloth with a faint touch of pink—the whole being given a shadow effect by being veiled with filmy black tulle. If you're considering a party frock for the Ak-Sar-Ben ball there are many beautiful ones at this fashionable shop.

AFTER you've decided what your frock will be for the Ak-Sar-Ben dance, call Doug. 8244 and consult Lee Larmon, the Fontenelle Florist, about an appropriate corsage bouquet. I understand that corsages will be worn by all the Smart Set at the ball, so you want to get your order in early. There are miniature roses, orchids, lilies of the valley and sweet peas, besides other dainty blossoms to choose from. Mr. Larmon has made quite a reputation on his artistic arrangement of corsages.

THINKING about a Piano Player? At the A. Hospe Co., 1512 Douglas, I discovered something quite remarkable—a Player Piano at $395. Just think! It really should bring $500, for it has proven itself as good in tone and far better in action than even higher-priced players. Also, you are given a 1-year guarantee, several piano rolls, a bench, and, moreover, this piano can also be played by hand. Next time you're downtown drop in and see Mr. Hospe about this splendid Piano Player, which may be bought for cash or terms.

LAST Wednesday I happened into the little Japanese Shop of The Nippon Importing Co. 218 S. 18th St., just at the moment of the unpacking of a fascinating array of BASKETS. Baskets to put your knitting in, your fancy work or mending—Baskets for bon-bons—in fact, there's a Basket for almost everything you can think of, and these will be decorated to your order with rings, tassels, beads and coins. There's also a new shipment of charming vases just arrived from the Orient.
