OMAHA AMATEURS LOSE OUT IN BOTH CONTESTS PLAYED AT MINNEAPOLIS SUNDAY

Murphys Strike a Snag When They Are Forced to Play a Class A Team, Runners Up to the Wilcox Triumvirate And Lose 4 to 0; Armours Lose Out By Score of 4 to 2.

By F. S. HUNTER.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Omaha suffered a double dose of defeat at the hands of Minneapolis today. Both the Armours and Murphy-Did-Its were victims.

The Armours, playing the Wilcox Trux, Minneapolis Class A champs, in the first game of the inter-city series to determine the amateur championship of the United States, lost out, 4 to 2, while the Murphys were defeated, 4 to 0, by the Lake Athletics, Class A runners-up of Minneapolis.

While Omaha's colors were trailed in the dust, the Gate City athletes made two mighty fast ball games possible. Both the Armours and Murphys played good ball and they fought until the last man was out. The Armours ran into a little too much class in the Wilcox Trux. Andy Graves did the best he could, but the heavy artillery of the Trux was too swift for the gray-haired veteran and they pounded him for ten safe knocks.

TRUX GET START FAST.
The Trux got away to a flying start in the first two innings, before the Omaha packers settled down. After the first two innings the Armours outplayed their foes. After two were down in the opening stanza, Fushman beat out a scarily infield hit. Wines followed with a double to right, which advanced Fushman to third.

Cahlander pounded a safe knock through second, scoring Fushman. Mines came on home on the play. Musser had him a mile at the plate, but knocked the ball out of Musser's hands and was safe.

In the second stanza C. Andersen ripped off a double to center and scored on Sheromans safe drive to center.

Graves Takes a Brace.
From that round on Graves hurled great ball. In the fourth Rapp was safe on John Andersons error and he went to third on a miscue by Sheromans. He scored on Bowleys infield hit.

The Wilcox crew marked up another tally in the fifth on Sheromans double and Fushman's single. The last Armours run was made in the ninth. Weiss Corcoran startled the crowd with a ripping triple to left. He scored on Bowleys sacrifice.

Murphy's Strike a Snag.
The Murphy-Did-Its fell before a class team. It was first agreed the Murphys were to play the Grass Northers Class B champs of Minneapolis. But at the last moment, the local authorities switched and made the Murphys play the Lake athletes. A class A league pennant winner and Runners-up to the Wilcox Trux in the city championship series.

The Murphys never murmured, but consented to tackle the class A boys or anybody else Minneapolis had to offer. "We should worry who we play, how big they are or how fast they may be. We're in the game for the sport of it," declared Bert Murphy and his diamond athletes.

Stage Lead Battle.
So the Omaha Class B lads gamely went up against a team of superior classification, and believe us, they put up a nicely fought battle. The Lakes knew they were in a ball game after they had earned their victory. For four innings the Murphy-Did-Its held the Lakes hitless, but he couldn't keep it up, and the Lakes finally pounded out the hits which delivered the talia. At that the Murphys made as many hits as the Lakes.

After the double defeat, the Armours and Murphys decided to beat it out of this man's town quick. They caught a rattler at 7:30 p. m., all except a few, who decided to stay a day or so more vacationing.

Art Moran of the Murphys stayed over owing to illness. Despite his ailment, Moran played right field for the Murphys, while Kelly was shifted to second base.

Art in Potsdam.
C. L. Dodson, the gifted Lewis Carroll, while touring on the continent in 1847 with Dr. Liddon, made in his diary the following notes, which were published in "The Life and Letters of Lewis Carroll" by Stuart Dodson Collingwood, in 1894, and are of special interest just now:

"July 13. . . . The amount of art lavished on the whole region of Potsdam is marvelous; some of the tops of the palaces were like towers of castles. And there were all over the gardens, set on pedestals, in fact, the two principles of Berlin architecture used to be there:—the one on the housetops, wherever there is a convenient place, put up the figure of a man; the other, in consultation, all looking inward—either a circular group of busts on pedestals, in consultation, all looking inward—or else the colossal figure of a man killing about to kill or having killed (the present tense is preferred); a boat; the more precise the better; the boat-killing principle is the correct thing, but if that is beyond the artist, he may content himself with a lot of a 4. The boat-killing principle has been carried out everywhere with relentless monotony, which makes some parts of Berlin look like a fossil slaughter house."

Double Victory Over Salt Packers Gives Miners Boost; Now Neck-and-Neck With Hutchinson.

Joplin, Mo., Sept. 16.—Ray Sanders pitched his way to fame here today, when he shut out the league leaders in the final double-header of the season, and by so doing brought the Joplin club into a tie for first place in the standings for the second half of the Western league season. The score of the first game was 4 to 0 and that of the second game 8 to 0.

The double win by the Miners makes a "play off" series necessary. The first two games of the series will be played in Joplin tomorrow and Tuesday and the next two will be played in Hutchinson Wednesday and Thursday.

Find American Red Cross Nurses at Bagdad
Geneva, Switzerland, Aug. 15.—A member of the Devon regiment in charge of a Maxim gun section, who was severely wounded before Bagdad, writes from the Clive hospital, Bombay, to his uncle here:

"What was our surprise on entering Bagdad. I went in on a stretcher to find a number of American ladies awaiting us. A few were the Red Cross badge, but I have not been able to find out how the others got to Bagdad before us, because I was moved down south quickly. How kind they were to the wounded. I believe they bought up the whole bazaar of fruits, flowers, sweets, tobacco, etc., and worked in the heat. But as long as I live I shall never forget an iced drink of clear wholesome water an American girl gave me when I was suffering from fever. I have never tasted nectar, but I think that was it. Hot sandy region! Many a British officer and man will remember those kindly American ladies who have saved many lives."
