

LIVING MODELS IN LATEST FASHIONS

Benson & Thorne Stages Style Show During the Evening Hours, When Children Also Dance.

Something unusual has happened in local fashion circles! A style show, not staged during business hours, as has been the custom for many seasons, but as an evening affair, so that everybody could attend—and they were all there too! Housewives, who had been busy all day with their canning and preserving, school teachers, business women, children and men—never before have so many men been seen at a style show in Omaha—and moreover they seemed to enjoy it quite as much as did the women.

It was estimated that over 1,000 attended this gala event at Benson & Thorne's Tuesday evening, between the hours of 8 and 10.

The attractive second floor show room of the store was decorated with palms, ferns and Russell roses. A raised dais representing a trellised, vine-covered porch had been erected at one end, from which living models appeared depicting styles radiating the spirit of autumn.

Live Models Display Suits.

The program opened with strains of a patriotic air and the presence of "Liberty" attended by two Boy Scouts brought forth a round of applause from the assembly. A fashion review of the newest and most modish styles in ready-to-wear garments for women, misses and children followed. Smart man-tailored and dressy suits, beautiful coats for street and evening wear, afternoon and evening frocks were shown. Particular interest was manifested in the juvenile styles worn by tiny tots—Little Martha Doty, 3 years of age, being the youngest of the lot.

The program came to a close with a dance by the juveniles in pretty party attire. The children were pupils of Prof. Chamber's Dancing academy. Music was furnished by Mr. Will Hetherington, violinist; Mr. Smiley, cellist, and Mrs. Charles Thiem, pianist.

Punch and French cakes were served throughout the evening by colored waitresses.

The models for the women's and misses' garments were: Mesdames J. M. Burkheiss, Ward and Heiner, Misses Wolcott, Jennings and Morledge.

The children—Girls: Mildred Jack, Vera McLean, Josephine Mach, Nellie Grant, Mary Meyers, Martha Doty, Adele Foster, Loretta Boroff, Ruth Ridgion. Boys: Edward Grant, Norman Mach, Hess McLean, Bruce McLean, Jr., and the Gibson twins.

McConnell to Go Into Medical Corps at Riley

Harold McConnell of the Fifth district will probably be transferred to the medical department of the army as soon as he arrives, being a graduate in pharmacy from Notre Dame, Ind. He preferred to enter as the rest did, however, asking no favors, and take what comes. As men with medical training are badly needed in the army the entrance of such young men as he is hailed with joy by army officials.

Wedding Anniversary of Rev. Lorimer is Celebrated

The Zion Lutheran church, Thirty-sixth and Lafayette avenue, gave its pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. A. T. Lorimer, a reception Tuesday evening, September 18, the occasion being their tenth wedding anniversary.

After the assembly had gathered in the church auditorium the pastor's family was escorted to the church by Mrs. J. A. Swanson and Mrs. W. Otto Liljenstolpe. Mr. V. A. Johnson acted as chairman, and on behalf of Zion church spoke a few words of appreciation for the splendid work done during the four years of their pastorate here. Dr. P. M. Lindberg, Rev. J. V. Carlson and F. E. Miller made short addresses. J. L. Jacobson, chairman of the board of trustees, presented the guest of honor with a purse of $175. Little Norman Swanson presented Mrs. Lorimer with a bouquet of roses.

Rev. Lorimer responded, expressing his and his family's gratitude for the splendid reception and gift. Musical numbers were furnished by the church choir, Birger Edquist and Amy Nelson.

After the program the ladies of the church served ice cream, cake and coffee. The committee in charge consisted of Mesdames A. E. Sygg, Luther Ring, A. G. Swanson, G. E. Wallin and A. T. Ahlberg.

Zion church has made a wonderful gain during the time that Rdy. Lorimer has been pastor of same. A new parsonage was planned and erected at a cost of $6,000 the first year. Two hundred and ninety-one communicants have joined. The congregation is now making an effort to wipe out the church debt, about $5,000 having already been pledged.

Brown Pleads Guilty And is Sent to the Pen

W. C. Brown, 59 years old, pleaded guilty to a charge of passing checks on a bank in which he had insufficient funds before Judge Sears, sitting in criminal court, and was sentenced to one to three years in the penitentiary and a fine of $100. Brown broke into the limelight when he stole several blank checks from the Gayety Realty company and then followed a burlesque girl, with whom he was infatuated, about the country, writing bogus checks whenever he needed money, which, the police say, he used to buy presents for the young woman.

He was trailed to several eastern cities and finally arrested at Louisville, Ky., by Special Detective Finn of the Brandeis stores.

PRODUCE ORDERS SWAMP MARKETS

Monro Makes Arrangements to Make This Banner Week; Prices Will Not Be Raised.

The biggest demand for vegetables Omaha housewives have ever made on local dealers is the result of the canning propaganda started by George Monro of the food conservation committee appointed by the G. W. Wattle.

When orders began to pour in so rapidly fruit and vegetable dealers could not supply the demand an S. O. S. call went out to Mr. Monro. He has now completed arrangements with the Omaha Fruit and Vegetable Growers' association for enormous shipments of fruits and vegetables this week.

"Prices will not be raised on account of the great demand," Monro emphasizes. "The great influx of canning stuff at this reasonable price is made possible by co-operation of producers and consumers."

The canning fever is due to extensive press notices and pamphlets issued by the conservation committee and distributed by grocers.

Women are urged by Mr. Monro to give up other activities this week especially in favor of canning.

Salesmanship Pupils to Put Theories Into Practice

An opportunity to try out their theories will be given seven students of salesmanship in the High School of Commerce. They will go behind the counters at the Brandeis stores for six Saturday's beginning next Saturday, and will sell goods. An accurate count of the work they do as real salesmen and women will be kept and they will be given credit in their school work.

This plan is inaugurated by Dwight Porter, new principal of the school. It has been tried successfully in other cities and Mr. Porter looks for gratifying results here.

The seven who will do the work in the Brandeis stores are Misses Ethel Webster, Mona Bedford, Ethel Bynum, Dorothy Hamilton and Mabel Michaelson and George Reynolds and Meyer Colnic.

Members of the salesmanship class receive instructions at the Brandeis stores on Mondays under direction of Miss Alice Mahler, efficiency expert.

Rushing New Street Lights for Ak-Sar-Ben

President Davidson of the electric light company has notified the city authorities that the new street lighting system will be completed within two weeks.

All of the material has now reached Omaha and Mr. Davidson has informed the city dads that installation of the lamps will be pushed to completion with all possible speed.

The city commissioners had hoped the new street lighting system would be completely installed in time for the Ak-Sar-Ben festival. Many of the lights already are in and the light company promises to put in as many more as possible before the fall carnival opens.

Charities Joins in Protest Against Trial

The advisory board of the Omaha Associated charities has passed resolutions protesting against a trial by jury on a charge of manslaughter of little Concetto Circo, 12-year-old Italian boy, who stabbed a companion, Earl Cunningham, to death during a quarrel.

Members of the board recommended to Probation Officer Miller that the lad be given a hearing in juvenile court and then sent to Kearney for a term.

"It is in line with The Bee's protest against the outrage of subjecting a lad of tender years to a criminal trial," declared the chief probation officer. "I am in full sympathy with The Bee's fine protest against a court trial for young Circo. The juvenile court should be allowed to handle the boy's case."

Concetto is now at his home on the South Side. He was released from Riverview detention home on $5,000 bond put up by Italian friends of the family.

Tooth Paste Agent Fined For Attacking Young Girl

Michael Nelson, tooth paste agent, was found guilty in police court of an assault upon Viola Krause, 2412 Ames avenue. Miss Krause testified that when she went to Nelson's room at the Fontenelle hotel September 13 in answer to an advertisement for girls to sell tooth paste, Nelson began by making indecent proposals. She said he suggested as one of the conditions of employment that she come to his room every night at 6 o'clock. She refused and said he attacked her. Nelson was fined $25 and costs by Police Judge Fitzgerald.

Nelson pleaded "not guilty," but paid the fine and offered the judge a $10 bonus. "I'd just as soon have paid $50," said Nelson as he was paying at the desk. "This makes me clean of that."

Caught Peeping Through Windows of Two Hotels

Dick Kennedy, 1014 South Eleventh, was caught Tuesday night peeping in the windows at the Chatham and Keystone hotels. Special Officer Lighthall saw Kennedy with his eye glued to an opening beneath a window shade in the rear of the Keystone hotel and nabbed him on the spot.

Huge Shipment of Silk Hurried Across Continent

Six million dollars' worth of silk, said by railroad men to be the largest shipment ever carried across the Pacific from Japan, reached Chicago Tuesday in twenty-two special baggage cars of the Milwaukee railroad. The cargo arrived at Seattle on the liner Manila Maru of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha company.

Farm Cost $800 and Now Sells for $28,000

Frank J. Carey, president of the Carey Cleaning company, sold his Cuming county farm near West Point, Neb., for $28,000. This farm was purchased by Mr. Carey's father, the late P. H. Carey, in 1882 for $800.

Visit Uncle Alvin White On a Long Tour of the West

Alvin D. Hensel of Detroit, Mich., purchasing agent for all the lumber used in the construction of Ford and Hudson automobiles, and Charles Hudson, a wealthy farmer of Marion, Ind., are visiting in the home of their uncle, Alvin R. Hensel, 2525 South Eleventh street, veteran constable in county court.

Alvin D. Hensel was named after the old constable. His father, who is 91 years old, is a brother of Constable Hensel. Mrs. Charles Hensel and Mrs. Sadie Thompson, nieces of Constable Hensel, are also visiting him.

The Hensels and Mrs. Thompson are enroute to Estes park. They are touring the country in a high-powered motor car.

"Shorty" Hensel, as the constable is known to most Omahans, showed them the "sights of the city" Tuesday.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

"I know something that will clear your skin"

"My sister went through just the same thing. Her face was a perfect sight with eczema, and the itching nearly drove her wild—especially at night. She tried everything until a doctor recommended Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. All the suffering stopped at once and the eruption was gone in a wonderfully short time. Why don't you begin using them today?"

The Resinol treatment is equally effective in making red, rough, pimply complexions clear and healthy.

Resinol

Resinol Ointment is so nearly flesh-colored that it can be kept on exposed surfaces without attracting attention. Resinol Soap and Ointment are sold by all druggists. It comes in two sizes (50c and $1).
