

Rousing Send-Off For Omaha Boys Entraining For Cantonment Camp

LINCOLN CHEERS AS SOLDIERS LEAVE

Gives Great Farewell to Boys of Draft on Way to Funston; Will Hold Sunday Movies for Them.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—Lincoln and Lancaster county people gave the men assembled in Lincoln today as the second contingent of the men called by the draft a great send-off. A lunch was spread at the Lincoln hotel. Young women dressed as Red Cross nurses pinned flowers on the coats of all of the men and they were addressed by Mayor Miller of the city and others. The Lancaster contingent consists of 164 men.

After lunch the men formed in line in front of the city hall and were escorted to the Union Pacific station while a big crowd followed and gave them a rousing good-bye.

The Omaha and Douglas county delegation, which arrived this morning, 562 strong, also gave the boys a noisy greeting as they reached the station. The Omaha contingent, a lively bunch, had decorated their cars with such announcements written on the sides as "The Bloody Fourth," "Kaiser Getters from Omaha and Lincoln" and other pert and apt things.

While the Lancaster contingent were waiting for their coaches to be backed up the Omaha boys entertained the crowd with songs, while the University band, which had headed the line to the station, joined in the demonstration with many patriotic pieces.

This week will be a busy one in the capital city. Nearly 4,000 Nebraska men on their way to Fort Riley will pass through the city and most of them will stop off for a few hours enroute. Preparations are being made to entertain them and when the big crowd is here Sunday special efforts will be made for their enjoyment, which will include a big free cat at the Lindell hotel for all the drafted men in the city at noon.

Yes, and what do you think? On Sunday there will be a free picture show open for the boys. And what is more wonderful, it will be in the city auditorium across the street from two churches and only a block from five more. And all this will happen in Lincoln.

Palmer Leads Strenuous

Life at Fort Snelling

Lincoln, Sept. 19.—(Special.)—A letter was received today at the state veterinarian's office from T. C. Palmer, chief clerk in that office, who has been given a leave of absence while he is attending officers' school at Fort Snelling.

Mr. Palmer says the work is strenuous and getting more so every day, but that he is getting used to it and never felt so well.

Military Notes

A recent addition to the Lucky Seventh is Shelby Sears, son of Judge Sears. This regiment is rapidly clearing every day some of the best known young men in Omaha put their names on its muster roll.

Will Madlin, member of the Lucky Seventh, has received several letters from people throughout the state as a result of a story concerning him in The Bee of September 15. This young man, who was a child in childhood, knows nothing of his parents and has no friends. The letters received are from people who wish to help him find his relatives or to send him encouraging letters at camp and at the front.

There are several young men in the Seventh National Guard reserve with no friends to care if they come home safe or not.

Major Frith, army recruiting officer, has returned from a trip to Lincoln, where he enlisted sixteen men. Omaha is slowly catching up with Des Moines in the matter of enlistments for the army in the last few days. However, Des Moines scores for the last fifteen days in the report for the first half of September being 148 men from Des Moines and ninety-eight from Omaha.

Sergeant Hall in charge of the army recruiting sub-station at Sioux City, enlisted a young man for the Omaha office Saturday morning. An hour after a feminine voice called up, anxiously, to know if a young man answering to that name had enlisted. In fear and trembling Sergeant Hall admitted he had, expecting to be severely reprimanded for doing so, imagining the young man had overrated his age and other matters to get into the army without his parents' consent.

To his surprise the woman exclaimed "Oh, I'm so glad. I have been waiting for you so long. He said he would today but I was afraid he wouldn't. It is the best thing that ever happened to him."

Since then the mother cannot do enough for the recruiting officer, saying she owes them undying gratitude for enlisting her son.

HOW TO JUDGE A WOMAN BY HER HAIR

There is real common sense in just noticing whether the hair is well kept to judge of a woman's neatness or good taste. If you are one of the few who try to make the most of your hair, remember that it is not advisable to wash the hair with any cleanser made for all purposes, but always use some good preparation made expressly for shampooing. You can enjoy the very best by getting some cantaxin from your druggist, dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which inspires hair growth.—Adv.

Heard at Depot As Boys Leave For Fort Riley

The management of the entrainment was carried on splendidly by the station officials and the members of the district boards. All the board members were there to help the boys get started.

At the last moment C. C. Redwood of the Third district decided he had better go along, at least part way, with his contingent, so he hopped on the train, too, to the great delight of the boys who had learned to know him well these last few weeks.

Various devices were employed by the different districts to identify their men. The Sixth district men wore neat little cards decorated with flags and patriotic ribbons, bearing the words, "I am John Smith (or whatever the name was), from Omaha. Sent by the Sixth district of Douglas county, Nebraska."

Christian Bull was appointed captain in charge of the Sixth district group, with Dwight Lindborg as lieutenant.

The men from the Sixth left Tuesday night at the Castle hotel and had breakfast there. Since roll call at noon Tuesday they have been in the government service, with all expenses paid.

Twenty Italians were among the representatives from the Fourth district. "We are glad to fight for America and Italy, for liberty and humanity," they said.

The Italian Liberty band marched ahead of the men on their way to the station.

The procession was led by three well known Omaha men: George Brandeis, representing the business men of Omaha and the Ak-Sar-Ben governors; Charles Black, representing the Ak-Sar-Ben directors also, and Dan Butler, representing the city.

One Spartan mother, who sent her boy away with a smile was Mrs. A. B. McConnell, whose son, Harold McConnell, was lieutenant in charge of the Fifth district men. "I was determined he should not see a tear in my eye," she said. "I wanted his last memory of his mother to be one of smiles. It was terribly hard to do it but I succeeded in smiling to the last."

A small box car was attached to the rear of the Union Pacific train bearing the boys to Camp Funston. "See that car?" shouted a boy in the last passenger train. "That's what we're going to bring the kaiser back in!" And the station crowds cheered.

Among the proudest men at the station were the board members of the Sixth district, including Dr. W. H. Reed, Wayland Magee and Oscar Pickard. "We'll back our men against any in the country," said Mr. Pickard, beaming. "We have the finest young men in Omaha, a selected bunch. They are all boys from good homes, who have given up good positions to answer the call. The spirit of these boys is fine," said Wayland Magee. "Every one is anxious to do his duty and to do it as soon as possible."

Ninety-two men went from the Fifth district, 115 from the Fourth and fifty-one from the Sixth. Over ninety went from the Third.

The three men placed in charge of the Fifth district contingent by Charles Foster, chairman of the board, are James F. Keel, captain, Clarence B. Darlow and Andrew H. McConnell, lieutenants. All these have had military training at colleges and universities, where they graduated. Captain Keel was trained at Lake Forest college, Lieutenant Darlow at Cornell and Andrew Harold McConnell at Notre Dame, Ind.

Fremont, Neb., Sept. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Dodge county sent another contingent of seventy men to Camp Funston today to begin training for the army. Dodge county has now sent seventy-eight men 45 per cent of the first draft.
