Kennedy Is Released—Dick Kennedy, colored, arrested by Special Officer Lighthall back of the Keystone hotel Wednesday night, was released by Judge Fitzgerald Thursday afternoon. Kennedy says he was making a delivery for the Merchants' Express company, employing him.

Withheld Back From Hunt—City Commissioner Withnell has returned from a shooting excursion to McPherson county. Twenty-eight birds in three days was the toll for the party of seven. Whether the marksmanship or the number of birds flying was responsible, the commissioner refuses to say.

Mohler Visits Old Friends—A. L. Mohler, former president of the Union Pacific, is in town after a summer spent along the Atlantic coast. He will remain here several days prior to going "some place in the United States," as he puts it. Mr. Mohler is still in the east and expects to remain there some time.

Ninety Days for Beating Wife—Alfo Casillo was given ninety days in police court for beating his wife. Witnesses testified that Casillo's wife was sick in bed with consumption and that he was in the habit of giving her $15 or less occasionally and that he took it back again a couple of dollars at a time.

Long Is on the Job—J. A. Long has arrived from Peoria, Ill., to become city passenger agent of the Illinois Central, succeeding F. H. Spinkhorne, who has gone to the army cantonment at Fort Riley. Spinkhorne is a member of the national army and went with the first contingent. Since then he has been ordered to report at the training school for noncommissioned officers.

Two Up for Gambling—Lee L. Barr, from "out in the sand hills," and William R. Kirscher, proprietor of the Gayety cigar store, appeared in police court on gambling charges. Barr said he lost $27.50 of his own and $12 borrowed money playing a "drop-the-marble" device in Kirscher's place in the hopes of winning a cigar. He won once. Kirscher said the percentage of possible wins on the machine seemed rather small. After his arrest he ordered the machine, which was installed last Saturday, taken out. Barr was discharged. Kirscher's case was taken under advisement.

ROTARIANS HOLD FIRST NIGHT FEED

Present Dr. E. C. Henry With Testimonial; Delegates Describe International Convention at Atlanta.

Rotary club held its first night dinner at Happy Hollow Wednesday with the wives of the members as guests.

Receiving the reports of the delegates to the international convention of Rotary clubs, held at Atlanta last summer, constituted the chief business of the meeting. Harry Weller, Dan Johnson, Tom Kelly and Dan Baum gave graphic accounts of the stirring times in the southern city.

J. W. Welch, vice president, presided in the absence of President Clark.

A gold razor set was presented to Dr. E. C. Henry, the retiring president, by his former associate officers, to which courtesy Dr. Henry responded with a short talk.

Creighton Men Assemble for Their First Military Drill

Students of the high school and college department of Creighton university assembled Wednesday afternoon on the college campus for military drill, working under the command of the newly chosen officers, Commandant Waldo Shillington, late of Fort Snelling, and Acting Adjutant Benjamin Stearn. Both men were pleased with the showing made by the Creighton cadets.

The new uniforms have arrived and great rivalry exists as to who shall be the first to appear in public with the soldier-like clothes.

Two afternoons a week will be devoted to drill. The acting officers are:

Commandant, Waldo Shillington; assistant, Benjamin S. Stearn. Captain of companies: A. H. Robinson; B. R. Wilson; C. P. Munk; D. H. Burkle; E. R. Kastner; F. John Kennebeck; and G. L. Doran. Lieutenants: L. Riely, James, McGan, B. Walter, E. Campbell, E. Randolph, J. Connell and D. Leary.

William Sparks Sues Grocer Horbund for Damages

Yesterday William Sparks filed suit in district court for $25,000 damages against Henry Horbund, grocer, 2202 North Thirtieth street. He alleges false arrest.

Sparks says he went into Horbund's store to make a purchase and alleges that the grocer refused to sell him anything. When he left the store Horbund called the police, Sparks alleges. He says Horbund told the police he was the man who had recently held him up.

The police, according to Sparks, subjected him to a cross-examination and then turned him loose. He says Horbund afterward admitted it was mistaken identity.

Educational Program at Family Theaters

Lillian Walker in "Kittie McCay" and a Vitaphone comedy will be shown at the Lothrop theater Friday evening for the family movie program arranged by the educational committee of the Omaha Woman's club. Mary Miles Minter in "Melissa of the Hills" and comedy will be shown at the Suburban and Peggy Hyland and little Bobbie Connelly in "Intrigue" and a Black Diamond comedy at the Apollo.

PRESBYTERIANS OF OMAHA WITH WILSON

Presbytery Endorses President of the United States and Prohibition in Nebraska.

By the presbytery of Omaha, in session at Valley, Tuesday, Rev. James D. Butter was released from the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Florence and dismissed to the presbytery of Nebraska City, to accept a call to the church at Alexandria. Rev. Robert E. Taup, Bellevue, was elected Stated Clerk and treasurer of the Omaha presbytery, succeeding Rev. C. C. Meek, who resigned.

The presbytery adopted the following war and dry resolutions:

"Whereas, In this time of international strife when the welfare of humanity depends so much upon the policy adopted and executed by the United States, we realize the value of courageous, conscientious and Christian national leadership; and, whereas, The enforcement of the dry law in Nebraska is being accomplished with commendable and beneficial success, and realizing that this is due in large measure to the firm and determined stand and demands of Governor Neville, therefore, be it Resolved, That the presbytery of Omaha hereby express its gratification at the official support of our state executive and pledge him our good will and aid.

"Resolved, That we consecrate ourselves for the struggle and pledge our whole-hearted support to the military and naval effort of our nation in defense of democracy, and to all those agencies whereby the horrors of the contest may be ameliorated, and to the Young Men's Christian association and the magnificent work that it is embarking upon in the home cantonments and on the battle front; to the food conservation movement, that by our thrift, foresight and sacrifice at home the strength of ourselves and our allies may be adequately maintained, and last, but not least, to the American Red Cross, in its great Christian mission of mercy to alleviate the sufferings of a crucified world."

"Resolved, That we consecrate ourselves for the struggle and pledge our whole-hearted support to the military and naval effort of our nation in defense of democracy, and to all those agencies whereby the horrors of the contest may be ameliorated, and to the Young Men's Christian association and the magnificent work that it is embarking upon in the home cantonments and on the battle front; to the food conservation movement, that by our thrift, foresight and sacrifice at home the strength of ourselves and our allies may be adequately maintained, and last, but not least, to the American Red Cross, in its great Christian mission of mercy to alleviate the sufferings of a crucified world."

Room Assigned for All State Teachers' Meetings

E. V. Parrish of the Omaha public bureau and Miss Martha Powell, president of the Nebraska State Teachers' association, have assigned the rooms for the twenty-nine sectional meetings of the association at their meeting in Omaha November 7, 8 and 9.

The high school, commercial high school, Rome, Fontenelle, Castle and Blackstone hotels, Young Men's Christian association and Young Women's Christian association and one theater will be required to accommodate the teachers.

Superintendent Beveridge of the Omaha high school has been named as chairman of the local committee.

A meeting of the committee will be held in the office of the superintendent at 3:30 this afternoon, when E. V. Parrish will be present and plans outlined for the entertainment of the teachers while in convention.

Cubbyhole in Closet

A small cubbyhole cut in the wall in a clothes closet in the room of Stella Marquette, 420 South Thirtieth street, revealed the hiding place of a large quantity of liquor. Sergeant Russell of the moral squad while searching the place last night, discovered a suitcase containing twenty-one quarts of beer and three quarts of whiskey hidden snugly away in the cubbyhole.

A large tinbox filled with empty beer bottles was found next to the suitcase. The woman was arrested and later released on bonds.

To Look After Food Eaten in All Public Places

In a telegram received by E. V. Parrish from Nebraska Food Administrator G. W. Watters it was announced that the appointment of J. F. Letton, president of the Omaha Hotel Men's association, as chairman of the Nebraska hotel and restaurant men's conservation committee had been affirmed. Mr. Letton will have charge of conservation of food in the public eating places over Nebraska.

Two Autos Stolen From In Front of Theater

Two automobiles were stolen from in front of the Brandeis theater while the owners were attending a performance of "Bunker Bean." Dan Whitney, 4329 Franklin, reported to the police that when he returned to his automobile, which he left standing in front of the Brandeis, it was gone. A. L. Schuster, 4519 South Twenty-third, also reported that his automobile was stolen from the same place.

Omaha Stags Are to Boost For the Seventh Nebraska

At the Swedish auditorium Friday night the Omaha Stags will hold a meeting to boost for the Seventh Nebraska regiment. There will be a banquet for the members of the Stags' base ball team, after which Captain McGlone of the Seventh Nebraska will urge the boys to enlist.

Leading members of the order have taken it upon themselves to organize a company and include only Stags in the membership. They believe that it can be done.

Jazz Band for Columbus Park for Sunday Night

Shady Lake, the amusement park near Columbus, Neb., has proven very popular this season, and considerable interest has been manifested by the announcement that the original Dixieland Jazz band had been booked for Sunday night, Sept. 23. The boys have an enviable reputation, and are said to be masters of syncopated and jazz tunes. The management of this pleasure resort feels especially proud of this engagement, owing to the fact that this is their first stop from the eastern cities and merely goes to show again the progressive management of this resort.

Public Library Obtains New Books for Teachers

A special exhibit of educational books for teachers is announced by the public library. The books deal with motivation, educational measurements and medical inspection in the schools as well as other subjects suitable for the professional reading required of teachers each year.

The books are the newest ones published. John Dewey and other well-known writers on educational subjects are the authors.

Another exhibit consists of children's books to supplement their courses of study. For American history, for instance, there are stories of periods in American history.
