Sheriff Clark For Additional Feeding Money

Attorneys for Sheriff Clark have filed transcripts of appeal in district court for additional jail feeding money. When the county board recently allowed claims totaling about $7,000 for jail feeding from January to July, inclusive, it was on the basis of 32 cents a day for each prisoner. The law provides for 50 cents a day when the monthly average of prisoners is less than 100. Sheriff Clark is asking for the difference between 32 cents and 50 cents for May, June and July. About $1,200 is involved. When the county board let the claims for $7,000 it was agreed Sheriff Clark could appeal to district court for the additional money he says he is entitled to. The court will decide on the legality of the law providing 50 cents a day when the average in prisoners is less than 100.

Oil Case Hearing is On Now in the Police Court

The hearing in the case against Don De Bow, C. B. Hollingsford and Jacob Hacinell, accused of issuing false advertising relating to the sale of land owned by the Farmer's Oil and Gas Co., began what promises to be an interesting legal battle before Judge Fitzgerald in police court.

D. E. Wilson of Lincoln, a member of the State Railway commission, testified that De Bow gave him, at the company's office, 222 South Fourteenth street, Omaha, a highly decorated advertising sheet and told him that the company was drilling ten oil wells in Butler county, Kansas, and owned or leased property in Oklahoma which were to be used for the same purpose. De Bow is charged on another complaint with unlawful selling of securities.

Pretty Soft for Man Who Will Deliver Bonds

It's going to be pretty soft for Dan Butler, city commissioner, or Otto Bauman, chief clerk in the treasurer's office.

Between October 1 and October 10 the recently approved public improvement bonds must be taken to New York. Either Butler or Bauman must personally conduct the bonds.

By leaving Omaha October 5 the bond carrier can stop in Chicago for the world's series games October 6 and 7, then leave for New York to deliver the bonds and lamp the clash in Gotham October 9 and 10. On the return trip he can stop off at Chicago for the game October 12.
