FLOATS INTEREST THE FOREIGN BORN

Ak-Sar-Ben Electric Parade Will Picture History of Polish, Bohemian and Other Peoples.

The Ak-Sar-Ben electric parade Wednesday, October 3, will have especial interest for the foreign-born persons of the South Side. There will be a Polish, a Bohemian and a Lithuanian float. Each will picture the history of the country which it represents and will show the brave struggle these small nations are making for liberty and democracy.

The many thousands of South Siders of Polish descent will be thrilled at the sight of the Polish float. Liberty, in shackles, will be the central figure. She will be shown clinging to a cross and pleading for her freedom. The float will also show the three states of Poland. The three classes of soldiers will be represented. Rev. Father William of the Immaculate Conception church, Rev. Father Gliba of St. Francis' Polish Catholic church and W. Mike Kalamaja, prominent in Polish organizations, are working to make the Polish float a wonderful spectacle, which will tell the story of their fatherland. The float will be a symbol of the history, the tragedy and the bravery of the Polish people.

The Bohemian and the Lithuanian peoples have also given much thought to planning the floats which will represent their countries.

Rev. Father George F. Joniatis of the Lithuanian church of the South Side is a leader of the Lithuanian people in Omaha and will help plan the Lithuanian float. Joe Mick, prominent Omaha Bohemian, will help to plan the Bohemian float so that it will portray Bohemia's message to the world.

Miss Renze is also making a float that will represent the Hibernians.

Special Story Hour for South Side Children

The South Side library will have a special story hour Saturday for the children who are members of the Summer Reading club. Invitations have been sent out to sixty-five children for 2:30 o'clock, when Miss Swartzlander, the library story teller, will be ready for them with a fine lot of stories.

Member of "Rainbow" Division Convalescing

Karl Nilssen of the Forty-eighth "Rainbow" division, United States army, is at his home on the South Side, convalescing from a serious operation which he underwent in a New York hospital. Nilssen has two brothers who are in the war and are already "somewhere in France." He expects to go to the front as soon as he is well.

Mr. and Mrs. Elov Nilssen, 3932 South Twenty-eighth street, are the parents of the three soldier boys. The brothers all enlisted in the same regiment—the Kansas-Missouri-Colorado ammunition train.

The mother of the soldier lads is Mrs. Mary Jewett Harter Nilssen. She can trace her descent to Mary Chilton, the first woman who stepped off the Mayflower.

Dr. Connell Warns Against Breaking Quarantine Rules

"I intend to enforce the quarantine law," said Health Commissioner Dr. Connell in South Side police court Friday morning.

Physicians who advise their patients to raise the quarantines before the time is up should be prosecuted. The health commissioners are the ones who have the authority to raise a quarantine.

Mrs. Sarah Alters, Twenty-fifth and Jefferson streets, was fined $5 and costs in South Side police court by Police Judge Madden for allowing her children to break the quarantine on their home for scarlet fever.

Mrs. Alters told the court that their family doctor had told her that all danger was past and it was all right for them to leave the house.

Hibernians Give Watch to Member Going to Fort Riley

John McDonnell, popular South Sider who left for Fort Riley Wednesday, was given a rousing sendoff by the Hibernians of South Omaha before his departure. At the special farewell meeting held in his honor, Dr. E. P. Shanahan, Thomas Keane, L. D. Kavanagh and State President J. J. Curtin spoke. They lauded the patriotic character of the soldiers who are going to war.

The South Side Hibernians presented McDonnell with a gold wrist watch. A committee of Hibernians accompanied young McDonnell to the station when he entrained for Fort Riley.

U. S. Regular Recruits on South Side for Few Days

F. B. Gibbs, in the recruiting service of the regular United States army, has taken charge of the work on the South Side during the absence of Lieutenant Bruett of the "Fighting Fourth," who is in Sioux City. Mr. Gibbs is ready to enlist men in the regular army or the militia.

"There is a vacancy or two," said Mr. Gibbs, "in the engineer corps and in the cavalry. Ane one wishing to get into these branches stands a pretty good show if he hurries and beats the other fellow to it."

The recruiting station in the army canteen building at the military carnival is proving a big success. The officers are kept busy answering questions of the interested boys who are anxious to learn about army life in the different branches of service.

Meat Cutters Ask Secretary, Wilson About Seven Strikers

The Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen who banded themselves into a large organization during the recent packing house strike, are trying to make their newly won rights effective. They have consulted Secretary of Labor Wilson in regard to the case of seven employees at the Swift plant, who, it is alleged, were denied their old places at the plant. One of the terms of the agreement between the packers and the strikers was that the strikers should be reinstated without discrimination.

The various crafts of the union are organizing. They have leased the second floor of the Ritchie building, Twenty-fourth and N streets, for headquarters.

Judge Madden Gives Negro Couple a Bit of Advice

"You are 'in bad'. You are living wrong. You are law breakers," said Police Judge Madden in South Side police court Thursday morning to Edward Wiggins, 4821 South Twenty-fifth street, and his common-law wife, Hannah Wiggins. Both are colored. They were charged with stealing $15 from Mrs. Brodder, 1215 Missouri avenue.

"I am going to send you both to jail for fifteen days and after you have served your sentence I want you to get married and go to work. See?" said Judge Madden.

On the way to the work house Edward Wiggins pondered over the judge's advice. "Ah, get married, gee, ain't that just another scheme to work a fellow out of a few bones?"

Registration at Night High School Begins October 8

Night high school registration at South High begins Monday evening, October 8, at 7 o'clock. Arrangements have been made to accommodate 600 students. Cross nursing will be offered. A special course in English will be given for foreigners who wish to acquire a better speaking and reading knowledge of the language.

James Farrar Arrested On Complaint of Wife

Mrs. James Farrar swore out a warrant Thursday for the arrest of her husband, James Farrar, 2406 N street, on the grounds of alleged wife and child abandonment. Farrar is a steam fitter at Morris & Co.'s packing plant. Detectives Zaloudek and Francis made the arrest.

Sam Anderson, Local Ball Player, Dies After Operation

Sam Anderson, well known in amateur base ball circles, died Wednesday night at the Ford hospital, after an operation for appendicitis. The funeral was today at 2 o'clock, with services at Crosby's chapel at Twenty-fourth and Lake streets, and interment in West Lawn.

Mr. Anderson was captain of the Frank Deyves last year.
