STRIKE HEARING RESUMED BEFORE LESLIE TUESDAY

Many Witnesses Summoned by Both Sides and Case Promises to Be Long Drawn Out Affair.

Strike litigation between the state of Nebraska and the Business Men's association and Omaha unions will be resumed before Judge Leslie, sitting in equity court next Tuesday morning. The final chapter in the long drawn out legal battles between the attorney general's office and counsel for employers and labor organizations is expected to last at least a month.

During the hearing for a permanent injunction asked by Attorney General Reed hundreds of witnesses will be called by both sides. The state has already subpoenaed more than thirty business men and about sixty members of labor unions as witnesses. Much Legal Talent.

Attorney General Reed and Deputy Attorney General Munger will repre-sent the state. C. N. Owen, counsel for the International Bricklayers' union, and Anson Bigelow are at-torneys for the unions. F. H. Gaines and Francis A. Brogan are the Business Men's association lawyers. The strike litigation dates back to last spring, when Attorney General Reed stepped in in an effort to end labor troubles in Omaha. He obthe business men and the unions from "acts in restraint of trade."

Sent Back to District Court. The case was taken to United States district court and then remanded back to district court by Federal in equity court, the attorney general obtained a temporary injunction against the Business Men's association and the unions. The case was set for a hearing on its merits before Judge Leslie September 25 after a couple of postpone-

The final hearing is expected to develop into one of the hardest fought equity cases ever waged in district court.

British Toll of German Prisoners Exceeds 3.000

London, Sept. 21.-The number of German prisoners taken by the British in yesterday's fighting on the Belgian front now exceeds 3,000, according to the British war office statement tonight. The British yesterday repulsed several strong counter attacks, inflicting exceptionally heavy losses.

Berlin officially admits that the British effort was successful and the Germans were forced to evacuate some of their defenses in the vital Ypres tained a court order restraining both salient, but it attempts to minimize the importance of the advance. The British losses in the assault are reported to have been light. Valuable Positions.

importance of the new ground won lies in the fact that it Judge Woodrough. Other attacks by the Germans on the Aisne front and near Verdun were repelled by the French.

Ten of Charges

Austin, Tex., Sept. 22.-The senate high court of impeachment trying touched the crudely made gun Governor James E. Ferguson last this pocket. afternoon, sustained ten of the tentyty-one charges brought against him. Senator Bailey of Dewitt, sent up a resolution that on Tuesday, September 25, at high noon, the senate formally pronounce judgment on the governor. He moved that the resolution be reported to the senate to lay it on the table until called up.

Recess then was was taken until Mon-Comparing himself to "Daniel in the lion's den, fighting for his life."
Governor James E. Ferguson today staged his last great effort to clear himself of the impeachment charges brought against him For two hours he faced the senase high court and a throng of spectators and pleaded for acquittal.

On the sixth article, charging the governor derived a profit from state funds deposited in the Temple State Bank, the senated voted to convict. Other articles, charging misconduct in connection with various financial deals, were sustained. That the governor sought to coerce the regents of the uiversity was sustained. That he sought to remove good agents without cause was sustained. he bribed Allen, chairman of the

The trial of Pitloun, charged with the murder of his wife, Bessie Pit-loun, lasted all week. Up until Friday afternoon it looked as if the South Sider had a chance to be acquitted by the twelve veniremen.

Argued Self-Defense. His attorney put up a strong de fense, the principal point of which was the contention Mrs. Pitloun was accidentally shot to death on the night of June 21 in the little home on the South Side. Pitloun and his wife had a quarrel over money matters on the fatal night. He demanded to see $115. on the wall in the kitchen. He testified he grabbed the holster, believ-ing it contained the additional $40 of heir savings.

Tried to Kill Self.

There was a struggle for the revoler. Pitloun testified she shot him erst and that the second shot must have been accidentally fired during the struggle. The state's theory was that Pitloun shot his wife and then attempted to take his own life.
Police evidence was that as Pitloun was being taken to the South Side station, one of the arresting officers saw him draw the holster from 'a pocket and throw it to the ground. Pitloun himself testified he was drawing a handkerchief out of his pocket o wipe the blood off his face when the holster fell to the ground. In his closing argument to the jury Chief Deputy County Attorney Abbott, heading the prosecution, pointed out that if Pitloun was sincere when he said he believed the additional $40 was hidden in the holster he would have discovered it immediately upon laying hands on the gun cover. Money Easily Discovered. The prosecuting attorney, exhibit-had been in Lough Swilly. The five vessels, it was said, convoyed by the destroyers put to sea after midnight and were attacked by massed submarines at daylight the following morning. The news of the disaster was learned when the destroyers which escaped put back to port bringing survivors of the torpedoed merchantman and war vessels. The closest secrecy was immediately thrown about the incident," the merchant ship officer said. "The survivors were given positive instructions to say nothing about it and no details as to the name of the ships or the extent of loss of life could be learned.

The Bohemian told the court his wife took a revolver out of a holster on the wall in the kitchen. He testing the same of th demned the nefarious effects of conscription as a war breeder, that in its own dominions, it had refused to use compulsory military service and that Napoleon had adopted this idea. Conscription, the papal secretary said, led to many wars, the government's always having ready at hand a fighting instrument. It was further explained by the cardinal that the recent examples of Great Britain and the United States proved conclusively that voluntary military service really gave the necessary contigents for the maintainence of public order, but did not supply the monstrous armies needed by modern monstrous armies needed by modern warfare and which tempted their rovernments to make use of them. Therefore, he argue, by the suppression of conscription, bik armies, munitions plants and militarism automatically would be destroyed and the energy and money consumed in these ways could be used in paying off the huge costs of the present war.
