Peace News and Fine Weather Gives Corn Conservative Buying for Immediate Makes Only Temporary Setback; Provisions Rise. Chicago, Ili., Sept. 22.—Only a temporary setback in the corn market resulted today from peace news and fine weather. Such bearish factors were later offset by weekend evening up of trades and by a revival of misgivings about eleventh-hour danger from frost. The close was unsettled at $1.17\% December and $1.15 May—\%c off to \%c up, as compared with yesterday's finish. Oats declined \%c to \%6\%c net. from peace news and fine weather. Such bearish factors were later offset by weekend evening up of trades and by a revival of misgivings about eleventh-hour danger from frost. The close was unsettled at $1.17% December and $1.15 May—%c off to %c up, as compared with yesterday's finish. Oats declined %c to % %%c net. The outcome in provisions was an advance that ranged from $67c to $1.05.

Free selling of corn took place at the outset, but after the first hour the downward swing of prices gave place to a gradual but complete reaction.

The fact that oats for immediate delivery had lost their premium over future options had a depressing effect on the oats markat. The trade anticipated more liberal receipts from now on.

Millers' requisitions for wheat continued far in excess of what the food administrator's subordinates here could obtain. Receipts at western centers in general to-

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE.

Irregular Market but Good Undertone Apparent; Spirited Movements Are Upward. parent; Spirited Movements Are Upward.

New York, Sept. 22.—Aithough the stock market was highly irregular during the week, the most spirited and extensive movements were upward. There was less liquidation of investment shares, and after a period of depression acarly in the week, professional operations for the decline met with effective resistance.

The progress of the war gave impetus to the growth of a more hopeful feeling. The improvement in the Russian situation was regarded as especially encouraging and the market for rubles held steady after the sharp recovery from the recent acute decline.

Charles Scandrett Loses Two Brothers and Uncle, and Wants to Avenge Their Deaths.

A bronzed young rancher rushed into the office of the British recruiting office Saturday.

"I want to enlist," he announced. "and I want to enlist in the part of the army that will get to the front the quickest!

"I got a letter this week from England telling me my only two brothers and my uncle had been killed at the front. I want to get over on the firing line as soon as possible to avenge their deaths."

Warner Oland, who plays the villaim to Pearl White in the Pathe scrial, "The Fatal Ring," has been called upon to do many dangerous and unpleasant things in the making of the picture, but it is doubtful if there has been anything quite so unpleasant as that which he was called upon to do the other day. After a struggle with Miss White upon the top of a fast moving railroad train he had to make a flying leap to escape the trainmen who were supposed to come to Miss White's assistance. To prevent almost certain disaster it was arranged to have Mr. Oland found plenty of water in which is an arm of the sea. The location man had visited the place at high tide and found plenty of water in which a man could jump with little danger, but when the time came to take the scenes things were different. No one thought to measure the depth of the water on this occasion. Mr. Oland did his jump magnificently, but as there their deaths."

Charles Scandrett, a wealthy rancher of Wintertown, Neb., received the letter from home the first of the week. In two days he had of the week. In two days he had held as in a vice. It took three men held as in a vice. It took three men

Railroad Strike Grows

Serious at Buenos Aires Buenos Aires, Sept. 22.—The min-ister of war today asked President Iri-goyen to place the city of Rosario, where a railway strike has been in progress, under martial law and to call up a class of conscripts. The minister reported troops already at Rosario are unable longer to hold in check the thousands of strikers thronging the streets and firing at patrols. Several persons were killed and wounded in clashes today. Six railroads in Argentine announced their intention of striking tomorrow. The president has been informed officially the situation is serious. PHOTOGRAPHS
