

HOOVER IS URGING FOOD CONSERVATION

Sets Date for Enrolling Forces to Work in Campaign that is to Be Nation-Wide in Scope.

Herbert Hoover, federal food administrator, has issued the following statement, inaugurating the food pledge week campaign for the week of October 21-28:

"The week of October 21-28 has been selected for a nation-wide campaign to complete the enrollment of our forces in conservation of the food supply. The harvest is now in hand and we can measure the world's resources. The available supply this harvest is less than last year. The demand upon us is greater than last year. From the last harvest we exported more than we could really afford. We can only meet the call upon us next year by savings, and by substitution of commodities which cannot be transported.

"The allies are our first line of defense. They must be fed, and food will win the war. All Europe is on rations or restricted supplies. Only in our own country is each one permitted to judge for himself the duty he owes his country in food consumption, although the world depends upon us to guard and provide its food supply. This is a duty of necessity, humanity and honor. As a free people we have elected to discharge this duty, not under autocratic decree, but without other restraint than the guidance of individual conscience.

Here Rests Issue of War.

"On the success of this unprecedented adventure in democracy will largely rest the issue of the war. We are asking every householder, every hotel and restaurant keeper, and dealer in foodstuffs in the nation, to become a member of the food administration for conservation and to pledge to follow in so far as circumstances permit the suggestions that will be offered from time to time as to food saving.

"For us there is no threat of privation. We wish that our people should eat plenty, but wisely, and without waste. Wisdom in eating is to make possible such adjustments in our food consumption, shipping and war necessities as will allow us to fulfill our duty in exports to our allies by elimination of waste.

"I therefore appeal to the churches and the schools for their assistance in this crusade; to all the organizations for defense, local and national; to all the agencies, commercial, social and civic, that join the administration in this work for the fundamental safety of the nation."

MINNESOTA TROOPS COME TO FORT CROOK

Forty-First Infantry Takes the Quarters of Quartermaster's Corps Transferred to Fort Benjamin Harrison.

The Forty-first Minnesota infantry, with Captain Cook as ranking officer, has arrived at Fort Crook and has taken up quarters. The command consists of sixteen officers and 330 men.

The Minnesota troops arrived over the Great Western on a special train of eight coaches, one sleeper, three flats, three box, two stock and one automobile car.

The quartermaster's corps of 500 men that has been stationed at Fort Crook left for Fort Benjamin Harrison on a special train over the Burlington.

"The Campbells are coming, O ho! O ho!" Or, rather, they're here. They arrived Saturday to help make the Ak-Sar-Ben week a success and get recruits for the British army.

With files and bagpipes blowing—just as they played the Britishers "over the top" in the first days of the war, when they checked the Germans marching over France, so they play on the streets of Omaha.

The Canadian Highlanders Kilites band, under the direction of Pipe-master Sutherland, will headquarter at the British recruiting office, 1612 Farnam street, with their kits and red jackets, their bare knees and jaunty feathers, the ruddy-faced Scotchmen bring a smile and a cheer to the lips of those who see and hear them. These men are on furlough because wounded too severely for active service just now. Many are young boys, for the age limit is lower in the band than other branches of the service.

They are just back from a week in Kansas City, where they caused a sensation and brought in many recruits for the king's army. They will assist in the work of the British mission all week, will play on the carnival grounds and march in the parades. They are a picturesque sight and their music is enough to send the most hesitating Britisher at once to the nearest recruiting office.

A fine chance for men to get into war service, as wireless telegraph operators is offered in a communication from the radio inspector at Chicago, stating that examinations will be held here some time in October for these positions. Those interested should write to the office of the Radio Inspector, Federal building, Chicago, Ill.

Council Sympathizes With Kugel Over Loss of Ford

The august dignity of the city council was rudely shattered by Mayor Dahlman and City Clerk O'Connor.

In the midst of the proceedings O'Connor startled the city dads by reading a resolution of sympathy for Commissioner Kugel. The resolution read in part: "Whereas it has come to our notice that one of our fellow members was suddenly stricken with the theft of his second-hand Ford, be it resolved this council extend its sympathy to Mr. Kugel and lay aside a sum to bring about the capture of the arch-criminal, dead or alive."

Ohio Coach Confident of Turning Out Winning Team

Despite the war, Ohio State university, which won the Western conference football championship last season, will begin this season with its varsity team intact. Few of Ohio's players have enlisted or left school.

Coach Jack Wilce, former Wisconsin star football player, who led the Buckeyes to victory last fall, is confident that his team will be strong enough to carry off the championship honors again.

The first practice of the year brought out a fairly good list of returning veterans and one or two promising men from last year's freshman squad to fill in the gaps. "Chick" Harley, Ohio State's crack half-back, who won a place on the all-American team last season, probably will not be back this year, as he is planning on entering the aviation corps. Holcamp, center and McDonald end have joined the marine reserves and will not be back. Line letter men, upon whom Coach Wilce is depending, are Peabody and Bolen, ends; Harold Courtney and Karch, tackles; Seddon and Captain H. Courtney, guards, and Van Dyne, center. This means that the line will be practically intact.

Yerges, last year's quarter, will not be in the school this year. Friedman, who was Yerges' understudy, will be on hand, however. Boesel is back to play fullback. Stinchcomb, of last year's freshman team, probably will play one of the halfback positions.

Enough sophomore talent is available to make possible a good list of substitutes, the coaches say. Ohio State's season will open September 29, when the Case school eleven will play here.

Food Administrator Does Not Fix Prices of Produce

The wholesale and retail price lists of produce given out each day by the state food administration in Omaha, are not prices fixed by that body. There is as yet no price fixing of produce here. State Food Administrator Wattles says he has found that in some cases both the retail dealers and the consumers have misunderstood this.

"The local food administration," Mr. Wattles says, "wishes it distinctly understood that it is not attempting to dictate the prices at which these foods should be bought or sold, and that the price lists wholesale and retail are published merely for comparison. These wholesale prices are gotten at the wholesale markets at Eleventh and Howard streets, each morning. The retail prices are received from various retail dealers in different parts of the city. This explanation is given in order that there may be no misapprehension in the future regarding these published price lists."

Corn Takes Big Slump On the Omaha Market

With continued favorable weather and reports that corn over the entire belt is rapidly ripening, there was a slump of 3 to 7 cents in cash prices on the Omaha Grain exchange. The sales were made at $1.88 to $2.01 a bushel, with eighty-four carloads on the market.

Wheat receipts were forty-nine carloads, and by Food Administration Agent Neal, this was considered good. He is now of the opinion that the shortage has been pretty well overcome and from now on receipts will be sufficient to take care of most of the demand of this territory.

Oats were one-half cent off and sold at 57 1/2 to 58 1/2 cents a bushel. Receipts were ninety-two carloads.

Championship Oregon Team Must Be Rebuilt Entirely

University of Oregon's championship football team, which last New Year's day defeated the University of Pennsylvania eleven at Pasadena, Cal., will have to be rebuilt almost entirely this year, as a majority of the members have enlisted or will not return to school.

For a time it was thought not one of the 1916 eleven would return, but this fear was dispelled when Charles "Shy" Huntington, last year's quarterback, failed to pass the physical examinations for entrance into the marines or the ambulance corps and announced that he would be back in his suit this year.

With Huntington, the nucleus of the 1917 team will be "Bill" Steers, a sophomore, who last year played on the varsity against the Oregon Agricultural college team, Basil Williams, a tackle, and "Tony" Goretzky, a track man who is reputed a good prospect for halfback.

Hugo Beszdek, University of Oregon coach, who is at present manager of the Pittsburgh National league baseball team, will be back on the campus ready to begin work by October 1. Graduate Manager A. R. Tiffany has announced.
