

LITTLE PROGRESS IN STRIKE HEARING

Witnesses Testify to Intimidation and Threats by Union Teamsters During the Strike Trouble.

Hearing of the strike injunction case was resumed before Judge Leslie, sitting in equity court, Monday morning. The state, represented by Deputy Attorney General Munger and Norris Brown, introduced a number of witnesses, including several non-union teamsters, who testified as to alleged violence, intimidation and threats on the part of union men during the strike trouble last spring.

One teamster, Ed Keenan, told of crowds of men unhitching his team when he attempted to drive out of a coal yard. Most of the testimony was of the same nature as that introduced at the hearing before the state board of mediation several months ago.

Deputy Attorney General Munger, who, in the name of the state, asks a permanent injunction against the Business Men's association and Omaha unions, was frequently interrupted by labor lawyers objecting to certain lines of cross examination.

F. A. Brogan and F. H. Gaines are attorneys for the employers. A Nind and W. D. Owens, counsel for the International Bricklayers' union, represent the labor faction.

At the present rate of taking testimony the strike hearing will last at least three weeks more.

"Flivver King" at Last Loses Boat to Thieves

Joe Sherry, "flivver king" of the court house, has lost his 1917 "tin Lizzie." Result—much wailing and gnashing of teeth on the part of corpulent Joe. Sherry, a deputy in county court, has owned flivvers since Ford first began turning them out. Each year he bought a new model and scoffed at the warning of friends that some day he would have one stolen.

Joe always had his cars insured, but he refused to buy locks for them. "Steal my flivver, he-haw," laughed Sherry. "I don't leave it standing alone like some foolish people."

Anyway, Joe left his flivver outside the court house Sunday night while he went across the street to lay in a supply of stogies. When he came out two minutes later it was gone.

Kugel Says Love Powders Are Being Sold in Omaha

Superintendent Kugel of the police department brought before the city council committee of the whole a charge that clairvoyants operating without licenses are selling "love powders." Mr. Kugel believes further regulation of "dealers in futures" should be enacted.

The council permitted clairvoyants to operate without licenses upon filing with city clerk certificates of membership in "religious organizations," the belief being that such membership insured protection against questionable methods.

BOY IS BITTEN BY HORSE WITH RABIES

Son of J. C. Hoffman of Butte Will Be Taken to Chicago for Pasteur Treatment; Cow and Hogs Attacked.

Butte, Neb., Oct. 1.—(Special Telegram.)—A horse belonging to J. C. Hoffman of Butte developed a violent case of rabies yesterday and bit Mr. Hoffman's son, Marvin. The animal also bit the cow and several hogs. It was shut into a stall and held until this afternoon, when arrangements were made for killing it. But just before the execution was planned the horse dropped dead.

The stall presented a badly wrecked appearance. The animal had chewed the partitions and walls, bumped his head until everything was covered with blood, tearing up a couple of old mattresses and otherwise showing all the symptoms of the dread disease.

The boy will be taken to Chicago tomorrow and placed under the Pasteur treatment. The brain of the horse will be sent away to determine just what was the matter. Steps will be taken at once to insure against any further outbreak of the disease and in all probability all dogs will be killed. The source of the infection is not known, but it is supposed that some dog bit the horse.

"Home Folks" Know Best

HERE'S A LETTER from "home folks" telling of an experience with a Charter Oak Stove that had seen service for sixty-four years—and expressing their continued fidelity to this tried and true brand.

MAPLEWOOD, ST. LOUIS COUNTY, MO., July 1, 1917.
725 Sarah Street, St. Louis, Mo.
Gentlemen:—My parents bought a Charter Oak Stove in 1852. My mother used it constantly every day until 1860 when it passed into my wife's possession, and she used it without needing any repairs, up to February 25th, 1916, at which time it was destroyed by a dynamite explosion which wrecked our home. Of course we have remained loyal to the Charter Oak brand.

Signed Yours truly, CHAS. A. WILHARDT.
