

STATE MINUTE MEN PREPARED FOR FRAY

Nearly Four Hundred and Fifty Speakers From Forty-Five Cities Volunteer Services for Liberty Bond Drive.

Lincoln, Oct. 6.—The human voice of the federal government is beginning to speak in Nebraska. Next week the people of the state will begin to hear it in nearly fifty towns and cities through the volunteer army of four-minute men—the regiment of enlisted speakers, who are accredited representatives of the government, bringing to the people direct, accurate, inside information concerning the war.

The four-minute men organization was created last June, with the personal approval of the president, as a division of the committee on public information, composed of the secretary of state, the secretary of war, the secretary of the navy, and George Creel. Its purpose is to assist in the work of national defense during the continuance of the war by presenting authoritative messages to the people of the country in four-minute addresses to moving picture audiences (and, unofficially, in longer addresses to miscellaneous audiences) on subjects of vital national importance.

Thirteen Thousand Speakers.

President Wilson has requested that the organization be extended as rapidly as possible. It is now organized in every state. About 13,000 speakers are at work in some 1,300 cities. New York, for instance, has about 200 of its best known men going about making these four-minute addresses. Among them is Charles E. Hughes.

In Nebraska the work is directed by Prof. M. M. Fogg, professor of rhetoric in the University of Nebraska, who has been appointing local chairmen and organizing the last two weeks and who also has charge of general publicity work on certain governmental matters.

Local Chairmen.

The forty-five Nebraska local branches, already organized, and their chairmen, are:

Educational Campaign.

"Into this educational work I have gone," said Professor Fogg—"by reason of the instant sympathy of Chancellor Samuel Avery and by the courtesy of the Board of Regents in authorizing me to accept the position—because front-trench victory in this struggle depends pretty directly upon the state of mind and the support of the people here away 'back home.'"

"In forty-five cities and towns, local chairmen and executive committees have been appointed. About 450 speakers are now enrolled. Hearty response has greeted the work. Leading citizens of the communities have enlisted in this educational campaign. The list of chairmen already in action includes, among others, regents of the university, several state senators and representatives, the vice president of the State Board of Education, the president of the Nebraska Manufacturers' association, secretaries of commercial clubs and chambers of commerce, editors, bankers, physicians, attorneys and schoolmen.

Speak in Movies.

"These speakers are authorized representatives of the government. They are the human voice in Nebraska of this fighting government—the only body of speakers authorized to appear in moving picture theaters, of which there are 330. Their authority to appear as accredited speakers is shown by an introduction slide:

(4) Minute Men (4)
Mr. Will Speak Four Minutes on a Subject of National Importance. He Speaks by Authority of THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC INFORMATION, Washington, D. C."

"By their direct contact with all branches of the government our four-minute speakers are in a position to get authoritative, fresh information on war plans and policies—in information which every man and woman in Nebraska is entitled to know.

"Later these speakers will bring news hot from the battlefields, and it is planned to have them exhibit and explain 1,000,000 feet of film from the front."

Palmgren to Lecture On Sweden and Its Interests

The noted lecturer, Axel Palmgren, correspondent of the Stockholm Dagblad, will appear at Auditorium October 1, 2 and 3 in three illustrated lectures upon Sweden as it is today.

Mr. Palmgren has been giving these lectures on a broad tour of this country, and brings with him over 50,000 feet of remarkable film, showing in moving pictures not only the country itself, with its exquisite scenery and places of exceptional interest, but also many of the dramatic issues and results of which Sweden has been and is the theater on account of its close proximity to battle-torn Europe.

Among other things that will be shown will be pictures of the American minister to Sweden, Mr. Ira Nelson Morris, at his residence in Stockholm, as well as American football players playing games against Swedish teams.

Sweden is very interesting in sports and lots of winter sports, such as skating, coasting and skating, will be shown, as well as wonderful summer sports, such as racing and swimming.

Among the many beautiful spots to be shown is the historical island of Visingo, with its wonderful setting in charming Lake Vattern.

Among the many incidents connected with the war will be shown exchanges of war prisoners, through the mediation of the Swedish government, and the Red Cross in action, while the film showing education, industry, transportation, national defense, folk dances, city and country life, effort and promise is voluminous and comprehensive.

The program, which is different for each lecture, is not only extremely interesting, even fascinating, but especially is it educational, and that is its special purpose—to acquaint the American people with Sweden, its life and industry and to promote closer relations between the two countries for the mutual benefit of both.

Mayor Jim Can Already Say "Pomme de Terre"

Frederick William Mills, mayor of Hill City, S. D., says the war may be settled in the air, but if he has his way about it, the embargo would be brought to a conclusion before Uncle Sam gets "over there" with 20,000 aeroplanes now being constructed.

Mayor Mills sent Mayor Dahlman in his irrigated farm. The spuds weighed eight pounds, an average of two pounds each, or four being half a peck.

Mayor Dahlman believes that if the Irish regiments on the western front should be equipped with these large spuds and use them as hand grenades, the resultant mortality among the kaiser's minions would stagger the world.

In this connection, Mayor Dahlman refers to potatoes as "pomme de terre," his French vocabulary growing by leaps and bounds.
