Buttermilk the Drink That Suits Police Officers Best

A gallon can of buttermilk is kept at the police station to quench the thirst of officers who answer telephone calls, search prisoners and otherwise fatigue themselves in the performance of their duties.

Lon Troby, now doing desk work since his leg was injured, fond of buttermilk and whenever forced by the rush of official business to eat at a restaurant, confines himself to the simple fare.

"Bread and milk" was the reply, whereupon the waiter inquired, "Shall I cut the bread?" He evidently remembered that they served the bread "on a block" in the city jail to those who can't control their appetites.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS HAVE RALLY DAY

Large Gathering at Third Presbyterian Church, Even Babies in Arms Turning Out.

Sunday school rally day yesterday at the Third Presbyterian church brought out even larger audiences than the officers had set as their goal.

"The Sunday school is a most important adjunct of the church," he said. "It is a sort of preparatory school. The Sunday school takes the infant soon after it is born and puts its name on the cradle roll."

"The Sunday school is a comparatively modern institution. The first Sunday school was founded by Robert Raikes at Rochester, England, in 1780. From that time until 1873 it was an institution of individual churches here and there."

BISHOP STUNTZ IS CHEERED FOR PATRIOTIC TALK

The greatest demonstration of nationalism today is that which is being witnessed under the Stars and Stripes.

"This nation is the instrument of Almighty God for the establishment of righteousness. We should remember that the state, the nation, is not the object and end of its own existence, but that it is an instrument through which to attain a higher aim than merely its own maintenance."

"Charles I said, 'I am the state,' and he believed it until he lost his head. The state protects the family and the church in the exercise of its functions. The state is necessary because there is no belief that everyone will behave. The state represses the unruly. We will have national prohibition even though the bootleggers are being chased."

The bishop arraigned a Hindu philosopher and poet who spoke in Omaha this year against nationalism. He said this speaker was a man who had never lived under true nationalism.

"He had 126 wives and yet many of you, I expect, went to hear him. Brigham Young was comparatively a feeble aspirant for matrimonial honors," was a comment on this Hindu savant.

DEDICATE HOME FOR AGED PEOPLE

Many Are Present to Participate in Exercises and Witness the Keys Turned Over.

Hundreds of patrons and friends were present Sunday afternoon at the dedication of the new $80,000 Old Peoples' home, erected on the Fontenelle boulevard near Bedford Avenue.

The first Old Peoples' home consisted of three rooms upstairs in a building on the corner of Sixteenth and East St. sets, where the First National bank now stands. It was started by Mrs. George Tilden and Mrs. P. Perrine, in 1832. The home was later moved to Twenty-seventh and Burt and then to near Twenty-fourth and Wirt streets, where it remained until June of this year, when the new building was ready for occupation.

The new home is a three-story, brick building, with seven completely furnished bedrooms, a modern kitchen, a large airy dining room and spacious halls and living rooms furnished in the most up to date manner. It was erected on a site donated by Mrs. George A. Joslyn.

"The rooms have practically all of them been furnished, each by the donation of friends of the home," said Mrs. C. C. Belden, chairman of the furnishing committee, "and our kitchen and general household fixtures, our rugs, glass and silver are here almost all been furnished by manufacturers and merchants of Omaha. It will require about $14,000 more to finish and furnish the rooms on the third floor."

"There is plenty of room for work in this good cause," said Mrs. Edward Johnson, receiving the keys from the building committee. "We have visions of a rose garden and a fountain and need of a sidewalk to the car line less than a block away, as well as donation, to provide for the complete finishing of the floor."

Mrs. H. H. Hume, chairman of the building committee, turning over the property to the trustees, paid a tribute to the generosity of the many patrons and patronesses, whose assistance had made it possible to carry on the work of Mrs. Tilden and Mrs. Perri, the founder of the movement.

German Teachers to Meet At Convention in Omaha

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Lincoln, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—It is evident that efforts are being made to increase the teaching of German in Nebraska, a postal card received at the office of the State Council of Defense sent out by A. J. Wedeking of the Central high school to teachers of German in the schools of the state reading as follows:

"If German is to be justified as a subject of study in our schools it must be taught more efficiently than ever before. There must be more definiteness in aim and method; there must be a closer co-operation between the teachers of German to the end that the uses of its study will be more generally recognized. The teaching of German must be made to serve the best interests of the individual, the community, the state and the nation and it is the teacher's business to know how this may best be done. Will you not come to the meeting of the German section in November and help us work out these problems? In the meantime will you not answer this card promptly?"

German Grain Crop Shows Ten Per Cent Reduction

Copenhagen, Oct. 7.—Semi-official announcement is made in Berlin that the estimate of the German grain crop has shown a reduction of 10 per cent in the bread ration from November 1 will be necessary if the grain supply is to last out the year.

In place of bread a corresponding amount of potatoes will be furnished. The announcement seeks to convey the impression that the ration will be unchanged notwithstanding the inferior nutritive value of potatoes as compared with an equal amount of flour. Assurance also is given that better flour, containing less bran than the present 94 per cent grinding, will be furnished if the grain statistics now being collected show a larger harvest than was indicated by the August figures.

WALK ERECT AT EIGHTY

Because a man or woman does not mean that they must walk along bent over and supported with a cane. A man can be as vigorous and healthy at eighty as at twenty if he aids the organs of the body in performing their functions. These capsules are a prescription and have been used and are still being used by physicians in daily practice. They have proven their merit in relieving backache, kidney and bladder complaints and all ailments arising from an excess of uric acid in the system.

STATE UNIVERSITY DECLARES FOR WAR

Faculty Organizes Patriotic League and Urges Support of Government in Every Possible Way.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Lincoln, Oct. 7.—(Special.) Telegram.—At a meeting held this afternoon Temple hall was crowded to capacity with professors and students of the University of Nebraska and before adjournment, the "Patriotic League of Nebraska" was organized, its membership consisting of faculty members and the student body.

The principal speaker at the university meeting was Chancellor Avery, who in proposing a faculty organization, said:

"We believe in the vigorous prosecution of the war, and with this end in view, this organization is proposed. Its purpose is to support our government in every possible manner and at all times."

The organization of this league—the spontaneous organization of the intellectual life of the university—may fill a unique place in the school and may be of great benefit and help to the university.

Effort to Dismiss Mooney Charge in Higher Court Fails

San Francisco, Oct. 7.—Motion to dismiss charges against Warren K. Billings, Thomas J. Mooney, his wife, Mrs. Rena Mooney, Edward D. Nolan and Israel Weinberg, for murder, as the result of a preparedness day bomb explosion here, was denied by Superior Judge George A. Cabanis today.

Attorneys for the defendants asserted the charges had not been prosecuted within the sixty-day period provided by law. Assistant District Attorney Louis Ferrari contended that the delay was unavoidable, because of the trials of similar cases against some of the defendants in other courts. Judge Cabanis upheld this contention.

First Snow of Season Falls at Ellsworth

Ellsworth, Neb., Oct. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—The first snow of the season fell here for a brief period this afternoon. The thermometer early this evening registered freezing and the indications are good for the first general frost of the year. The growing season was greatly retarded in this section by the extreme dryness of midsummer. This was followed by heavy rains during September, which retarded growth. The ideal fall, with entire absence of frost, made possible a plentiful crop that otherwise would have been almost a failure.
