WEIGHTS MARKED ON PRIZE PORKERS

Band Plays on Children's Day and for the Rest of the Exhibition; Attendance Has Been Large.

The attendance has been large this year. Business men, farmers, soldiers, students, society women and children have thronged the aisles at the horse and mule barns where the hogs are on exhibition. His majesty the hog is no rival to King Ak-Sar-Ben, but his greatest ally and the Ak-Sar-Ben visitors have been quick to do him homage. Weights Marked on Pen. For the first time in the history of any swine show the hogs have been weighed and the weight has been marked on a card over the pen. This is a new feature and it is proving popular. It gives the answer to the first natural question of each visitor, "My goodness, what does he weigh?" Weighing and recording the figures for each of the 1,400 hogs shown was no small task. Saturday was children's day and thousands of "kiddies" flocked in to see the "pigs." George Green's band played and they will also furnish music Sunday and Monday and Tuesday evenings. The National Swine show banquet will be given in the Exchange dining hall Monday evening. Tuesday evening the Nebraska Hampshire Breeders' association will banquet the exhibitors who are showing Hampshire hogs. The following awards have been given: Berkshire. WAR TAX ON AUTOS GOES INTO EFFECT

Three Per Cent Levy on New Cars Sends Prices Up and Purchaser Fooths the Bill. The special war tax on automobiles and motorcycles went into effect Saturday amid protests from all parts of the country. The new law compels manufacturers to pay a 3 per cent tax on the value of each finished car. The manufacturers have promptly raised the price of their product and this makes it necessary for the local dealer to raise the price or sacrifice part of the profit. Ford dealers throughout the country have been notified of an advance in price as have local agents for other brands of automobiles. Members of congress have received numberless letters and telegrams from their constituents protesting that the new tax is unfair. One member of congress admitted that he had received over 600 letters and telegrams protesting against the tax. Many of these objections have come from farmers who claim that their cars are a necessity and not a luxury as congress claimed them when the law was passed. The farmers now own 70 per cent of the automobiles in the country. There will be no tax on cars now in use.

LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE IN STATE IS STARTED

Committeemen Appointed and Work Commenced With Expectations of Securing Big Oversubscriptions. Never has the state been organized for any action as it has for the drive for the second Liberty loan bonds. In every county, in every township and in every precinct committeemen have been appointed, and the best part of it is that these committeemen have taken hold of the work with an eagerness that spells success. Without intensive organization in the last drive, Nebraska boosted its quota allotment more than $2,000,000 with the intensive organization effected through the state committee, of which T. C. Byrne is chairman, it would not be surprising to see the present allotment of about $30,000,000 doubled. Enthusiasm of the keenest sort prevails at all the meetings, no matter whether it be a meeting of state committeemen, state chairman or local committeemen. The patriotism displayed at the meeting of the advisory committee of 100, held Friday, was of the type that is indicative of the general sentiment throughout the state. "Nebraska will be in the front ranks," says State Chairman Byrne. "I have never seen such response to an appeal. The American people are awaking to the task they have before them. And it is no small task. But they are responsive and once the American people are aroused there is no limit for them. "In Nebraska, which I judge typical there is but one answer—Nebraska's quota many fold. The county and district chairmen are getting well organized for the big drive. In many instances, the organizations are completed and all is ready for the big bell. "What about the districts that have not organized?" Mr. Byrne was asked. "Districts Hard at Work. "There are some districts that have been slow in organizing," he replied. "But they are coming through in nice shape. The delay has been caused by local conditions which are rapidly shaping themselves. Especially in Platte county, in Columbus, West Point, Talmage and other places, the organization is not as far along as in other districts, but it will start in these districts and the bankers, business men and professional men are taking hold of a manner which insures their success. "This will be a big week for Nebraska and patriotism will not be confined to any locality. You will find it as keen all over the state as it is in Omaha, and that is patriotism of the keenest sort."

"Twentieth Century Maids" Start Week at Gayety

"He's a fine automobile." "Don't say 'he' when speaking of an automobile; you should say 'she.'" "But this is not a 'runabout.'" That is one of the quips heard on the stage of the Gayety theater during the action of "The Twentieth Century Maids," the current burlesque show which opened yesterday for a week's engagement. The characters of this production are senator's valet, detective, woman reporter, adventuress, society leader, diplomat, dancing master, Japanese potentate and Box Car Bennie, the last mentioned role being portrayed by Jim Barton, the piece de resistance of the show. Tillie Barton, as Aura, gives a demonstration of agility. Music and mirth are liberally mixed into this medley of after and harmony. Florence Tanner, Jacqueline Tallman, Juliette Belmont and Jack Duffy, re much in evidence during the program. A boxing specialty and a blackface specialty by Bob Ferns add to the merriment. A burlesque opera travel act among the bright spots of the show. Several Japanese specialties are offered in the tea garden scene, "Waiting in Japan" and "Suki San" being worthy of mention. A violin specialty by Juliette Belmont and "Hawaiian Home" by Florence Tanner also bring applause.

Police Commissioner's Car Recovered Last Night

Police Commissioner Kugel's automobile, which was stolen ten days ago from Twenty-second and Cumings streets, was recovered by Officer Cooner at Fourteenth and Evans last night.

Bars Thrown Down for Enlistment in Air Service

The bars have been let down for the aviation section of the army and anyone wishing to join who can pass the physical examination may enlist in this branch. At the army recruiting office in the army building yesterday a telegram to that effect was received from Washington. Heretofore some mechanical or other special training was necessary for a young man joining the aviation corps. At one who wishes may now join and will be sent to some flying school or may go to the balloon school at Fort Omaha in lead.

The big drive and the official opening of the campaign for the sale of Liberty Bonds Will Start 12 o'clock Tuesday, October 9th At the Commercial Club

Every man and woman in Omaha, who is ready and willing to subscribe, is invited to attend this great meeting and be ready to name an amount of their subscription. We are fighting a war in defense of the principles for which the fathers of our country gave their blood. Our boys and men, who are at the front and who are preparing to go to the front, are eagerly offering their lives.

Let the mothers of the country know that their boys who are defending our homes are being fed and clothed.
