Thousands Surround Comiskey Park Before Gates Are Opened and Many Are Disappointed; Weather is Perfect; Giants Confident Turn in the Luck is Due.

Comi key Park, Chicago, Oct. 7 .- Undismayed by their setback at the hands of the Chicago White Sox, the New York Giants today resumed the battle that is to lead to the world's series championship. The champions of the National league were in high hopes of capturing the second contest of the big base ball series and return to New York, from foreign fields, with an even break. ROWLAND CLAIMS EDGE. Wolfgang, Lefty Williams went to "We have got the jump on the the hurling hill. Giants," said Manager Rowland of the American league pennant winners, before the game, "and that means a on the other fellow. If you will look over our search's play you will find that once out ahead of a rival in any series we played the Sox were rarely headed. The Giants have a fine team base ball to tirn back."

John McGraw, the Giants' chieftain. was nowise upset by yesterday's ball and it will be auctioned off for game, which went to the Wh.te Sox the benefit of the American Red by the small score of 2 to 1.

and one that will take a lot of good

Muggsy is Confident. "The series has only started," said McGraw briefly. He would give no inkling who he intended to start on the rubber against the Sox. Charlie Herzog, the keystone sacker of the National league champions, thought Schupp would be sent against Comiskey's men, but many believed Schupp would not be started until the teams play on the Polo grounds. where the pitching mound is several inches higher and gives a pitcher of Schupp's type an added advantage It was believed that if "Red" Faber warmed up good he would be Row land's selection for box work. Faber has wide, fast curves and a low breaking spitter which he does not always control. Camp All Night.

Saturday's victory for the south gave him a vocal toasting. Zimmer-side boys added a finer edge to Chicago's already keen appetite for base it is the fashion in Chicago to ride ball and today all records were broken him a bit for old time's sake. by the outpouring that filled Com-iskey park and surged around the big brick stands unable to gain admit-tance. Scores camped out all night and Perritt worked out on the side awaiting admission to the unreserved field stands. Sun-up found a line of fans stretching eight blocks away from the turnstiles and then the rush to the south side ball yard began. From the residential districts, the stock yards quarter and from the lake front Chicago poured its thousands into the vast reaches of Comiskey park. Long after the stands in the sun fields were filled and the gates closed long lines of people stood around outside the ball field with nothing to assuage their disappoint-

October borrowed a day .rom May The sun was bright and warm with a touch of midsummer haze in the air, but only enough to kill off a high sky that makes the judging of lofty fly balls troublesome to the outhelders. A light westerly breeze blew listlessly across the playing field. The diamond and outer meadows were drier than yesterday and in perfect playing condition.

Brass Band Plays. Before the teams came on the field for batting practice, an industrious brass band entertained the crowd. Wolfgang and Benz took the pitching mound during the White Sox batoitch to the Giants in their practice Ball is Returned.

The ball which was driven for a home run into the left field bleachers by Happy Felsch yesterday was returned to President Comiskey today by the fan who got it.

The White Sox owner and Manage: Rowland put their autographs on the the benefit of the American Red

Shortly after 1 o'clock every seat in the bleachers was filled and rows of fans stood in lines behind the back field fences. There was every reason to believe that yesterday's crowd or 32,000 would be exceeded by the big Sunday host.

Practice Spirited.

Batting practice was spirited and brisk and it was noticed that the Giants gave an unusual bit of attention to bunting, which indicated that they might drop their usual hit and run offensive for the sacrifice game in case they found the Chicago pitching difficult of solution.

The Giants took the field first for practice and they displayed much more pepper and dash than yesterday. When Zimmerman, on third, made a bobble the crowd got after him and

The White Sox put in a lively fielding practice that brought loud lines for New York, while Reb Russell, the Sox big lefthander, and Red Faber warmed up for the American leaguers.

Just before game time the band played the "Star Spangled Banner," while the spectators and players stood with bared heads.

Faber and Schalk was announced as the battery for the White Sox. Schupp and McCarty was the battery for New York.
