GIANTS AND WHITE SOX IN NEW YORK TO RESUME PLAY FOR BASE BALL TITLE TODAY

McGraw's Men Confident Different Stories Will Be Told Of Games on Home Diamond; Fans Hopeful, But Unwilling to Risk Coin; Fair Skies Are Promised.

New York, Oct. 8 .- Notwithstanding the reverses suffered by the New York Giants, champions of the National league, in their two encounters with the Chicago White Sox, pennant winners of the American league organization, followers of the game in Greater New York are eagerly awaiting the third contest which will be played on the Polo grounds tomorrow after-

La Follette's alleged disloval speech before the a different story.

Victory was written over the faces the Chicago players. A large crowd and a band was on hand to greet Rowland's men and they were given a cheer as they left their train. It was a happy lot of athletes, brim full of confidence that the world's cham-pionship would be theirs. To the American leaguers it is not a question of winning the series, but whether they can do it in four straight games.

Fair Skies Promised. Weather conditions for tomorrow's me promise to be all that is desired. A light rain fell early tonight, but the weather man soon eased the hearts of fans when he announced that the morrow would be fair and cooler. The playing field is expected to be in excellent condition.

Hundreds of telegrams and letters remain unanswered. The club offices were crowded most of the day with fans trying to buy tickets, but there were none to be had. McCarty, e...... Rariden, c.....

Scalpers Have Tickets.

Tonight some of the reserved seats began to appear at ticket agencies and among speculators, but the number was not as large as was expected. The New York club took every precaution based on past experience to get the much-sought-after tickets into the hands of patrons and not the spec-ulators. Nevertheless some choice seats in the upper stand were offered at $35 for a set of three and $70 for two seats to each of the three games.

Some seats near third base were of-fered for sale at $20 each.

While the inquiry for tickets was brisk, most of those seeking them were slow to buy at tonight's high prices, hoping that there would be a drop tomorrow. Some of these fans made to play off the third necessary are figuring that because of the two decide the series. Darkness interdefeats suffered by the Giants the fered and time was called in the fourth demand for tickets will not be so great and that prices will begin to first game:

drop tomorrow morning.

More than 25,000 tickets for the lower grandstand and the bleachers will be placed on sale tomorrow morning and when the seating capacity of the grounds is reached all the gates will be closed. Those purchasing tickets must go directly into the grounds. The club management hopes that by this arrangement the number of tickets falling into the number of tickets falling into the hands of speculators will be kept

The bleacher line began to form tonight and is expected to lengthen rapidly during the early hours tomorrow morning. A large detail of police was on hand to keep the crowd in

The New York club management expects about 38,000 persons will pay to see the game. Thousands of fans from other cities have arrived to witess one or more of the games and notel accommodations were difficult

What little betting was reported to-night was 2 to 1 that the White Sox build win the series. It was even oney when the Giants left for the set. Some New York bettors were ooking for longer odds. Bets were nade that Chicago would not win New York fans are hopeful that the day, aged 84 years.

Still hopeful that John McGraw's Giants' pitching staff will pull itself together and that the team as a whole will start hitting. They say that Zimmerman and Kauff, who failed to connect safely in the two games at Chicago, are about due to break loose with their bats. The Giants confidently count on winning the opener before the home crowd and feel that the chances also will favor them to win on the following day.

Pitching possibilities are always a matter of speculation. If Manager Rowland starts Cicotte, McGraw may send in Sallee to oppose him. Another possibility is Schupp against Russell.

It is probable that Rariden will do the catching for New York, as Me-Carthy's shoulder and arm are still
